* * * * * *

BENGAL.

Name of officer and rank.	Statement of services for which in particular the decoration has been conferred.
23. Keramat Shah, Constable, No. 2856, of the Midnapur District Police.	On the 4th February 1922, at about 1 P.M., when at a village, this constable got information that a gang of dacoits had been attacking some persons in a cart at a place about a mile away. He could only get one villager with whom he ran to the spot armed with a musket and found that a dacoity was being committed. He shouted to the dacoits to desist, but they attacked him with lathis and swords. He pluckily stood his ground and fired twice killing two of the dacoits and putting the rest to flight. The two men who were killed proved to be two of the most notorious dacoits in the district.

Name of officer and rank.	Statement of services for which in particular the decoration has been conferred.
	BENGAL—contd.
24. Ram Chandra Upadhya, Constable, No. 3688, of the Murshidabad District Police.	On the morning of the 15th November 1921, Constable Bindhachal Ram, who was on sentry duty at Jangipur sub-treasury in Murshidabad, shot dead officiating Head Constable Ramraj Missir. He also threatened to shoot another head constable. Constable Ram Chandra Upadhya very pluckily approached Bindhachal Ram and when every one else fled through fright, snatched away his musket thereby averting further murders.
25. Frederick Douglas Bartley, Deputy Commissioner of Port Police, Calcutta.	Mr. Bartley joined the Indian Police in Bengal at the end of 1908, and was employed with the district police for the first seven years of his service, including 10 months in the then Special Department. He was deputed to Delhi for a month for the Royal Visit in 1912 and then held charge of the districts of Birbhum and Faridpur. Towards the end of 1915, he was posted to the Intelligence Branch and in March 1916 was appointed Special Intelligence Officer. In May 1918 he was appointed Deputy Commissioner of the Port Police, Calcutta, which office he now holds. Mr. Bartley was seriously injured in the riots of September 1918, being stabbed in the neck while endeavouring to persuade the crowds to disperse. He was also injured in the riot at Belliaghata Tramway Depôt in November 1921 while acting as Deputy Commissioner, Headquarters, and was instrumental in securing the dispersal of the mob.
26. Ernest Albert Hartley, Assistant Commissioner of Police (temporary), South Town Division, Calcutta.	Mr. Hartley was appointed a 2nd class European Constable in the Calcutta Police on 19th July 1904 and has risen to the rank of Assistant Commissioner. He has marked detective ability which he has used with conspicuous success in many important cases since his appointment to the Detective Department in 1916. His services in connection with the Lyons Range robbery case of 1921 have been brought to the special notice of Government and are typical of the results which his detective ability has achieved. He was, until recently, in charge of the special Goonda department and succeeded in securing the conviction of some 200 Goondas and in compiling the histories of the majority of the notorious members of this class in Calcutta.
27. Manmatha Nath Sen, Inspector of Police, Nadia.	This officer joined the Bengal Police as a Sub-Inspector in the year 1905 and has by his good work risen to his present position. He played an important part in the investigation of several political dacoity cases during the years 1909, 1911, 1915 and 1917 and obtained important information at considerable personal risk. In dealing with ordinary crime he was also responsible for unearthing several formidable gangs of dacoits. He is a good detective and has shown great devotion to duty.
28. Beni Madhab Chaudhuri, Sub-Inspector of Police, Chittagong.	As the officer in charge of the Kotwali police-station, Chittagong, he took an active part in maintaining peace and order in the town during the strike on the Assam-Bengal Railway and throughout the whole non-co-operation movement. His work has been marked by conspicuous courage and ability. On several occasions he displayed considerable tact in conducting enquiries of a secret nature involving great personal risk and proved most useful and reliable. He has shown great devotion to duty and absolute fearlessness at critical moments.

Name of officer and rank.	Statement of services for which in particular the decoration has been conferred
	BENGAL—concld.
29. Subadar Shanka Singh, Inspector of Police, Special Armed Force, Birbhum.	On the 10th March 1922, the District Magistrate of Birbhum visited a village in connection with the realization of Union Board taxes The inhabitants showed a defiant attitude and formed an unlawful assembly. They stoned the Magistrate and other officials. On receiving the news the Inspector proceeded to the spot, when about a dozen men came running towards him from the opposite direction with lathis and stones. Seeing their hostile attitude, he pointed his revolver at them and they dispersed. He then proceeded on, and when he was in a narrow lane, he found himself again surrounded by the villagers who stoned him. He then fired a shot from his revolver, which dispersed the mob. The mob did not pursue the District Magistrate further. The Inspector rendered very good services in going pluckily into the narrow lanes of the village at considerable personal risk and facing an angry mob single handed. Mr. Blackwood, the District Magistrate, remarks that it was due to the prompt and opportune action of the Inspector that the mob did not pursue him further. The Inspector has also a good record of service both in the military and in the police.

CALCUTTA, THE 3RD JANUARY 1923.

RESOLUTION—No. 90L.R.

READ—

(1) Resolution on 7383L.R., dated the 20th August 1921.

ON the 7th July 1921, a Resolution was passed by the Bengal Legislative Council recommending to Government that a Committee should be appointed consisting of officials and non-officials to consider and report what amendments are needed in the Bengal Tenancy Act, and on the 20th August 1921, orders were issued by the Governor in Council appointing the Committee. Their full report, which consists of the main report, a draft Bill, the notes on the clauses of that Bill and several minutes of dissent, was received by Government on the 23rd December 1922. The Committee have devoted themselves to the consideration of the many difficult problems with which they were confronted in a very thorough manner and have given a clear and concise exposition of these problems. His Excellency in Council has now therefore much pleasure in thanking His Excellency the Hon'ble Sir John Kerr, K.C.S.I., K.C.I.E., the President of the Committee, and the Members of the Committee, for their valuable advice and for the report.

The Committee recommend that the report should be circulated for the purpose of obtaining opinion thereon before a Bill is introduced in the Legislative Council. In view of the intricacy and importance of the proposed legislation the Governor in Council accepts this recommendation and directs that the full report be published in the Calcutta Gazette for information and criticism. All opinions thereon should reach Government before the 1st May 1923.

By order of the Governor in Council,

M. C. McALPIN,

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO CONSIDER THE AMENDMENT OF THE BENGAL TENANCY ACT.

IN a Resolution passed on the 7th July, 1921, the Bengal Legislative Council recommended the Government to appoint a Committee consisting of officials and non-officials to consider and report what amendments are needed in the Bengal Tenancy Act. Orders appointing our Committee were issued in Government Resolution No. 7383 L.R., dated the 20th August, 1921.

2. Our task has proved heavy and onerous. The Bengal Tenancy Act was passed in 1885, and the discussions which led up to it are now nearly forty years old. During the last generation great changes have occurred in the economic and agrarian conditions of Bengal. There has been a vast amount of litigation and some conflict of judicial decisions in regard to many of the fundamental provisions of the Act. Moreover, during the last twenty years, a cadastral survey has been made and a record-of-rights prepared for an area covering nearly two-thirds of the Presidency as now constituted, and these operations have brought to light many defects in the working of the Act and have indicated that it is in many respects unsuited to modern conditions. It is no wonder, therefore, that there has, for some time past, been a growing conviction in the minds of the Government and of the public that a radical revision of the Act is required. It has been our task to undertake that revision. We have held no less than 43 meetings during the last year, and have discussed in detail practically all the important sections of the Act. We have not been able to reach complete unanimity in our conclusions, and, in a matter affecting such diverse and complicated interests, unanimity is hardly to be expected. We are, however, agreed on most of the broad principles, which should govern a revision of the Act, and, where we differ as to the details arising out of the application of these principles, we have endeavoured to indicate the various considerations on either side, with the object of lightening the labours of the Government and of the Legislature, with whom the ultimate decision must rest.

3. We desire to make it clear at the outset that the difficulties of the problem are not due in any considerable measure to the existence in Bengal of disturbed agrarian relations or of bad feeling between landlord and tenant. Such questions, which were so prominent in the discussions of earlier tenancy legislation, are now relatively unimportant, but, while our task has been lightened by the absence of unpleasant and unprofitable controversy, it has been sufficiently formidable in other respects. The main defect of the Bengal Tenancy Act at the present day is that it does not provide adequately for the extraordinarily complicated state of agrarian relations which has grown up owing to the widespread adoption both by landlords and by tenants of the practice of subdivision and subinfeudation of rights in land. The most difficult part of our labours has been to adapt the law to meet this state of things. We are conscious that our proposals may be criticised on the ground that they will make the law unduly complicated, but the situation with which we have had to deal is complicated in the extreme, and there is no way of meeting it which is not complicated, short of forbidding subinfeudation and subdivision of tenures and holdings altogether—a measure which it would be impracticable to enforce without wholesale disturbance of existing rights.

4. The essential feature of tenancy legislation in Bengal has always been the recognition of a right of occupancy in certain classes of tenants, that is, broadly speaking, a heritable right to hold land subject to the payment of rent, accompanied by protection from ejectment so long as the conditions of the tenancy are fulfilled. The regulations passed in connection with, and subsequent to, the Permanent Settlement recognised the existence of this right in the resident raiyats of the village, who were generally known as khud kasht or kadimi. On the other hand, new comers were required to take settlement of lands on the terms imposed by the landlord and might be merely tenants-at-will. The old regulations contained no indication as to the length of time required for the establishment of kadimi rights, and no legal definition of the classes of tenants entitled to occupancy rights was attempted until 1859. In Act X of that year, every raiyat who had cultivated or held land for twelve years was declared to have a right of occupancy in that land, so long as he paid the rent payable on account of the same. But this rule did not apply to proprietor's private land let out on lease for a term of years, or year by year, and the accrual of occupancy rights in any land could also be barred by a written contract. In the twenty-six years which followed the passing of the Act of 1859, these provisions were strongly assailed. It was urged that to make the accrual of occupancy rights dependant on twelve years' cultivation of a particular piece of land and to allow such accrual to be barred by a written contract was a serious infringement of the customary rights of the resident raiyats of the country. On the other hand, it was argued that the effect of the twelve years' rule was to confer rights of occupancy on a large class who were previously mere tenants-at-will. The whole question was reviewed by the Rent Commission, which drew up the first draft of what eventually became the Tenancy Act of 1885. In the end, they made an important modification of the twelve years' rule. It was laid down that every person who for a period of twelve years has continuously held as a raiyat land situate in any village shall be deemed to have become at the end of that period a settled raiyat of the village, and that every settled raiyat of a village shall have a right of occupancy in all lands for the time being held by him as a raiyat in that village. As in the Act of 1859, the accrual of occupancy rights can be barred in proprietor's private land let out for a term of years or from year to year.

5. The principle of the settled raiyat adopted by the framers of the Bengal Tenancy Act has been generally accepted as a satisfactory recognition of the customary rights of the resident raiyats of a village as introduced in the old regulations. It affords almost a complete solution of the status problem in areas where conditions are simple and there are only two persons interested in the land, namely, the proprietor landlord and the cultivating tenant. But in Bengal, at the present day, conditions are rarely so simple as this. There is often a whole chain of persons interested in the land, both as rent-receivers and as rent-payers, between the proprietor at the top and the cultivating tenant. Under the law as it stands, the occupancy tenant right can only be enjoyed by one person in the chain, and, as the law is not properly adapted to the complicated state of subinfeudation which actually exists, it frequently happens that the occupancy tenant right gets into the hands of the wrong person, and the cultivating tenant who ought to have the right finds himself in the position of a tenant-at-will. It is this limitation of the legal occupancy right to a single individual among the numerous persons who may be interested in the land that is at the root of most of the difficulties experienced in the administration and interpretation of the Act in Bengal, and we are convinced that it is necessary to recast this fundamental provision of the Act, in order to meet the requirements of modern conditions. The problem is beset with difficulties, and no solution that we have considered is entirely free from risks and objections, but it is, in our opinion, essential to tackle the problem and to adopt some solution which, even though it may not be ideal, will be better suited to present day conditions than the existing law.

6. The principle which we put forward for consideration is based on the fact that, although the law confers the occupancy tenant right on only one person, yet as a matter of custom and practice the essentials of the occupancy right are ordinarily enjoyed by most of the persons in the chain of those who are interested in the land as rent-receivers or as rent-payers or as both. There are variations for different classes in regard to such matters as the limitations on enhancement and the methods of settlement of rent, the right of transfer and so on, but such matters are merely incidental and are not essential to what we may call briefly the occupancy status, meaning thereby a heritable right to hold land subject to the payment of the rent legally payable for the time being. This is the essential element of a permanent tenure, which is defined in the present Act as a tenure which is heritable and not held for a limited time, and most tenures in Bengal other than those held under leases for limited periods, fall within this definition. The same essential element attaches under the existing Act to all raiyati holdings other than those of non-occupancy raiyats and under-raiyats, and even in the case of under-raiyats the possibility of the acquisition of a right of occupancy by custom is recognised in section 183, though the precise incidents of such a right in the case of under-raiyats are nowhere defined. We are convinced that no mere tinkering with the description of the differences between a raiyat and tenure-holder contained in section 5 of the Act will meet the case. No definition of the term "raiyat" will serve to prevent the acquisition of the occupancy raiyati status by the wrong person if that status is limited to one person. In these circumstances, we consider that the best solution of the difficulty will be to give to all persons holding land under the person who enjoys the legal status of raiyat a right of occupancy as against his immediate landlord. We would except only cases of temporary subletting by persons who for genuine reasons are unable temporarily to cultivate the land themselves. In such cases we think it is reasonable that the temporary sub-tenants should be debarred from acquiring occupancy rights to the detriment of their lessors if the latter are able within a reasonable time to resume cultivation themselves. But, in all other cases, we would give the tenant an occupancy right as against his immediate landlord, that is, a permanent heritable right to hold the land so long as he pays the legal rent and complies with the conditions of the tenancy, and we would add to this the same protection against unreasonable enhancement of rent as is enjoyed by occupancy raiyats under the present Act and the same rights of transfer as we propose to give to occupancy raiyats. We feel, however, that it would in some cases be unjust to the superior landlord to force him to recognise the under-raiyat as his tenant in the event of the holding of the immediate landlord of the under-raiyat being sold in execution of a decree for arrears of rent, and we do not therefore propose to treat the occupancy right of the under-raiyat as a protected interest under section 160. We also propose some modifications in sections 86 and 87 to meet cases of surrender and abandonment by the immediate landlord.

7. The necessity for a radical alteration in the status provisions of the Act was forcibly brought to our notice in the course of our endeavours to find a solution of the difficulties which have arisen out of the existing law regarding the transfer of occupancy holdings. So far back as 1912, the High Court brought this matter to the notice of Government and represented the desirability of legislation to make it clear whether, in the absence of a usage entitling a raiyat to sell his holding without the landlord's consent, such a sale is void ab initio or merely voidable at the will of the landlord. The High Court suggested that the practice of selling holdings has become so universal that to make it wholly invalid would possibly prove unworkable in practice. This view being generally accepted, various attempts were made to devise regulations to govern the transfer of occupancy holdings without touching the main provisions of the Act, but they proved unsuccessful and it was eventually decided that the matter must stand over until a general amendment of the Act was undertaken. It was accordingly put in the forefront of the points which Government desired us to take into consideration. The question was much discussed before the passing of the Bengal Tenancy Act in 1885, and various alternatives were considered and discarded, with the result that the only reference to the matter, which appears in the Act as passed, is contained in the illustration to section 183, which lays down that a usage under which a raiyat is entitled to sell his holding without the consent of his landlord will not be affected by the Act. This provision is useless and mischievous, because it is seldom possible for a raiyat or his transferee to prove the existence of the usage, and no guidance is afforded to the Courts in regard to the law to be applied to the numerous transfers which are effected without the landlord's consent and without any proof of usage being put forward. We agree therefore with the High Court as to the necessity for positive legislation, but here again no solution of the problem is possible which will be entirely free from objection. It is desirable that the law on the subject should be clear and simple, but unfortunately the problem is far from simple. It has reached its present state of complexity, because the practice has been left to grow up unregulated for more than half a century. Any attempt to regulate it now by simple and direct methods must necessarily interfere with existing rights and customs to some extent, but the longer the matter is left untouched, the more complicated it will become, and it is necessary to ask landlords and tenants to submit to some modification of their existing or potential rights in return for the great advantage of having the matter put on a clear and definite basis.

8. The pressing importance of the question is shown by the fact that the number of transfers of occupancy holdings effected by registered deed has risen from 43,000 in 1884 to over 2,50,000 in 1913, and with the growing pressure of the population on the soil, leading to an ever-increasing demand for land and an ever-growing rise in the value of land, transfers are certain to increase in number, whatever the law on the subject may be. It is an established fact that occupancy rights are at present freely transferred without reference to and without the knowledge of the landlord. In most cases, the transferee secures recognition by going to the landlord either immediately after the sale or at some later period and paying him a salami and the arrears of rent due from the old tenant. In some cases, the landlord is unwilling for some reason or other to accept the transferee as his tenant, and the result is litigation on a question to which no positive law can be applied. We are convinced that, as matters stand, the only remedy is to recognise the existing widespread practice of transfer, and to admit the transferability of occupancy holdings subject to the safeguards necessary to protect the interests of the landlords and to secure the general welfare of the agricultural community. Apart from the question of the transfer fee, the landlord is entitled to object to an undesirable person being forced on him as a tenant, while it is clearly not in the interests of the agricultural community that occupancy holdings should be bought up by money-lenders and non-agriculturists and settled on a rack rent with cultivating tenants who would be mere tenants-at-will. Our proposal to give a limited occupancy right to all under-raiyats of whatever grade will, to a considerable extent, avoid the latter evil, but it is more difficult to meet the reasonable demands of the landlords. Any provision enabling the landlords to sue for the ejectment of a transferee whom they considered undesirable might lead to an enormous crop of litigation, and it would be difficult to define the grounds on which such suits should be brought. It is most desirable that these transfer transactions should, as far as possible, be settled by the parties themselves without reference to the Courts, and on the whole we think that the best method of enabling the landlord to get rid of a transferee whom he considers undesirable will be to give the landlord a right of pre-emption or rather of subsequent purchase from the transferee to be exercised within a reasonable time after the transfer is brought to his notice.

9. Our proposals for dealing with the whole question are contained in clause 22 of the draft Bill. Briefly, we provide that all transfers by private sale shall be made by registered instrument, and that the registering officer shall immediately cause a notice of the transfer to be served upon the landlord. The transferee is required within two months to tender payment to the landlord of the transfer fee, which may be deposited in Court on the conditions applicable to the deposit of rent and will be recoverable as an arrear of rent. Except where the transfer is made to a person whom the landlord can have no reasonable objection to accepting as his tenant, such as a natural heir or a co-sharer in the holding, the landlord may within two months of the receipt of the notice of the transfer have the holding transferred to himself on payment to the transferee of the consideration money with 10 per cent. as compensation, together with any sum which the transferee may have paid in respect of rent or landlord's fee. Analogous provisions, with the necessary modifications, are made to meet the case of transfer by will or bequest or by sale in execution of a decree. We have tentatively proposed to fix the transfer fee at 25 per cent. of the consideration money, because from the enquiries made by Government this appears to be the rate usually levied at present. The rate is however by no means uniform. In some localities more than 25 per cent. is charged, and in others less. Occasionally, the rent is also enhanced. We therefore recommend that the question of the rate to be prescribed by law should be further considered in the light of the opinions which will be received on our Bill.

10. In view of the widespread difficulties and disputes that exist regarding the rights of raiyats in trees, we have endeavoured to introduce some clearer definition of these rights into the law. Under the present law they are practically left to custom. We have not complete information regarding this custom throughout the province, but it has been ascertained that it is variable, and that where disputes have arisen between landlord and tenant regarding trees such disputes have been difficult of decision owing to the uncertainty of that custom. Frequently moreover the right is not of much monetary value. In these circumstances we consider that we are justified in proposing that the rights of the raiyat should be made as uniform as they can reasonably be made. Thus, it is reasonable, in our opinion, that the raiyat should have complete rights in trees on his holding, except in respect of valuable trees. In the latter case, we would provide that the tenant should be required to pay to the landlord a fee equivalent to one-fourth of the value of the timber used, or disposed of; on the precise fraction we are not, however, in agreement. The new section 23 A which we propose regarding trees has therefore been drafted on the above lines; and an explanation has been added indicating what constitutes valuable timber. We also propose to give similar rights to occupancy under-raiyats. The whole matter is however beset with difficulty, and our proposals should be regarded as tentative only and subject to further consideration on the receipt of fuller informatioin as to the custom prevalent in different localities.

11. We have made important modifications in section 40 of the Act dealing with the commutation of produce-rents into money-rents, because the present section is not generally workable in the province as now constituted. The majority of us are agreed that produce-rents are generally against the public interest; they encourage indifferent cultivation and are against the best interests of agriculture: in but few cases can the rents ever be described as moderate, and they tend to reduce the cultivator to the status of a labourer. We have therefore, having regard also to the fact that a tenant who pays his rent in produce has had for thirty-seven years a statutory right to commutation in the face of any contract to the contrary, retained the provisions for commutation, but have endeavoured to improve them in two important respects. In the first place, we consider that, when the landlord is dependent upon the produce-rent for the subsistence of himself and his household, it is inequitable that such a rent should be converted into a money-rent. There are many cases, particularly in Eastern Bengal, where middle class persons have sublet lands on produce-rents for their own subsistence. We therefore propose to except such and similar cases from commutation. In the second place, in view of the disparity which exists in many parts of Bengal between the average value of the rent in kind obtained by the landlord and the money-rent into which it can be equitably converted, we consider that some compensation should be payable to the landlord as a premium for commutation. These are the two main principles on which the amendments to the section have been drafted; and, if we are not in agreement as to details, we agree on these two principles. In particular, we consider that the amount of premium payable should be further considered.

Our attention has, however, been drawn to the practice which exists in some parts of treating a person who hands over a part of the produce to the original owner of the land as a labourer. Some of us consider this is justifiable; the majority, however, incline to the opinion that the practice has been extended merely to defeat the operation of the section under consideration, and that it is definitely against the public interest to reduce the status of a cultivator to that of a labourer. The majority therefore propose that a bonâ fide cultivator paying a share of the produce to the original owner of the land shall be deemed to be a tenant, notwithstanding any future contracts to the contrary. For this purpose a bonâ fide cultivator is to be defined as a person who himself supplies the ploughs, cattle and implements of agriculture.

We propose to extend the provisions of section 40 to under-raiyats with rights of occupancy, partly in accordance with the general principles already enunciated regarding the rights of such under-raiyats and partly in order to restrict the growth of a large class of under-raiyats holding on produce-rents under money-lenders, which the proposed sections relating to the transferability of occupancy rights might otherwise encourage. In fact, this proposal is a necessary corollary to those sections.

We also propose, in view of the obvious hardship which is caused by the payment of three years arrears of a large produce-rent to make the period of limitation for such rent-suits one year.

12. As our examination of the present Act proceeded it became obvious that, owing to the large number of cases in which many co-sharers were concerned in one tenancy either as landlord or tenant, it was necessary to try to simplify matters both for the landlord and tenant in the application of the law to such cases. Thus, as will appear from the notes on clause 63, we propose to introduce a common agent to act on behalf of co-sharer landlords for the receipt of notices of transfer and for the realisation of transfer fees, and, if the landlords desire it, for the realisation of rent also. Then, in the proposed sections 146A and 146B, we have endeavoured to meet the difficulties which landlords experience in trying to ascertain all the heirs and co-sharers in a holding before a rent-suit is brought with the possibility that a sale of the holding in execution of a decree obtained in that suit may subsequently be held to be invalid as a rent-sale under Chapter XIV on the ground that a small absentee co-sharer had been omitted from the suit. We propose that each co-sharer tenant should be jointly and severally liable for the rent of the tenancy, with the result, as at present, that a decree in a rent-suit purporting to be brought against the entire body of tenants would be a rent-decree. Further, if it appears later that a landlord has made parties to the rent-suit defendants whose shares in the tenancy aggregate three-fourths of the total, the decree obtained would remain a rent-decree, due provision being made for monetary compensation for co-sharers who were not parties to the suit. If, on the other hand, it appears that such shares aggregate less than three-fourths of the tenancy, the decree for rent would become a money-decree binding only on the parties to the suit. We have adopted the fraction of three-fourths, because we consider that any landlord may reasonably be expected to ascertain the owners of three-fourths of the shares of any tenancy under him. We do not, however, propose to interfere with the rulings according to which the decree is a valid rent-decree, if it is proved that the defendants in the suit represented the entire body of tenants in the holding, and we propose that a definite provision should be made in the law to this effect. Again, in section 148A, we have endeavoured to meet the difficulties of co-sharer landlords in realising their individual shares of rents due to them through the Courts. Briefly, we propose that a co-sharer landlord should be allowed to bring a suit for the arrears of rent due to him alone, making the other landlords parties as defendants; they would then have an opportunity to come forward as plaintiffs, but, if they do not, any decree they might subsequently obtain for rents due to them at the time of the institution of the case would be merely a money decree. The decree obtained by the original plaintiff co-sharer would, however, be a rent-decree valid against the entire tenancy. The same simple principle underlying this amendment we propose should be extended to a number of cases which are at present governed by section 188 of the Act, which states that, when two or more persons are joint landlords, anything which the landlord is under the Act required to or authorised to do must be done either by both or all those persons acting together, or by an agent authorised to act on behalf of both or all of them. These cases are suits for ejectment, suits or applications for the alteration of rent and applications for the determination of the incidents of a tenancy under section 158. In certain other cases at present governed by section 188 we consider that it would suffice if the plaintiff co-sharer landlord made the other landlords parties as defendants. These are applications for the appraisement of produce, regarding improvements, for measurement, for records of private land, for declarations under section 180 (3) and suits under section 106.

13. The proposals in regard to the fundamental question of status and transferability have necessitated a number of further changes in various sections of the Act. These are set out in the Amending Bill and in the notes on the clauses and need not be discussed in detail here. A number of other changes have also been proposed, which are adequately explained in those notes, probably the most important being the simplification of the procedure in connection with the transfer of permanent tenures, the abolition of the chapter on distraint, some simplification of judicial procedure and a reconciliation of the differences between the Bengal Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1907, and the Eastern Bengal and Assam Tenancy (Amendment) Act, 1908. We have also made proposals for improving the service of processes in rent-suits—a matter of growing importance and difficulty now-a-days, when many of the persons affected by a rent-suit are often non-resident in the village concerned. We recommend that the opinion of the High Court be specially invited on this portion of the Bill.

14. We appointed a Sub-Committee to enquire into the question of modifying the law relating to utbandi tenancies and we agree generally with the proposals which they have made for the purpose of enabling such tenancies to be converted into ordinary raiyati holdings. The utbandi problem is, however, a local one, affecting portions of a few districts only and having little connection with the main principles underlying the general Amendment Bill. We think that it will be more convenient to deal with this matter by separate legislation, and we have therefore inserted no provision relating to it in this Bill.

15. Another Sub-Committee was appointed to examine the status of the jotedars of Rangpur, and, following their advice, we propose to treat such persons as permanent tenure-holders, subject however in respect of the right of transfer to the provisions which we propose to apply to the transfer of occupancy holdings. Here again the problem is a local one, but it cannot be dealt with apart from the general principles of the law relating to status and transferability, and our proposals on the subject will be found in clause 113 of the Bill.

16. It will be seen that we are not unanimous regarding the detailed amendments proposed in all cases, but we sign this report in token of our agreement in the matter of the general principles which should be followed in the amendment of the Act and of the subjects which should receive consideration in that connection.

17. In conclusion, we desire to express our warm appreciation of the work done in connection with the drafting of the Bill by Mr. C. Tindall, C.I.E., Secretary in the Legislative Department. The amount of labour involved is only partially apparent from the Bill itself, since this merely contains the final draft which, in the case of the more important and difficult clauses, has been adopted after consideration of various alternatives. Mr. Tindall has spared neither time nor trouble in working out our proposals in legislative form and his services have been simply invaluable to the Committee.

18. We recommend that our report and draft Bill be circulated for the purpose of obtaining public opinion on this intricate problem before a Bill is introduced in the Legislative Council.

Substitution of new section for section 22 of Act VIII of 1885.

19. For section 22 of the said Act the following shall be substituted, namely:—

Bar to acquisition of occupancy rights by immediate landlord in raiyati holdings, and result of acquisition of holding of occupancy under-raiyat by immediate landlord.

"22. (1) Where the immediate landlord of an occupancy holding is a proprietor or permanent tenure-holder and the entire interests of the landlord and the raiyat in the holding become united in the same person by transfer, succession or in any other way whatsoever, such person shall have no right to hold the land as a raiyat, but shall hold it as a proprietor or permanent tenure-holder, as the case may be.

(2) Where the entire raiyati interest in an occupancy holding is acquired by transfer, succession or in any other way whatsoever by a person who is a proprietor or permanent tenure-holder and is interested in the lands of the holding as a co-sharer immediate landlord, the raiyati interest with all the rights attached thereto in the lands of the holding shall be extinguished and the interest thereafter held by such proprietor or permanent tenure-holder in virtue of such acquisition shall be deemed to be a permanent tenure created in respect of such lands under the operation of this sub-section, and he shall pay to the immediate landlords of the former raiyat on account of such tenure the same rent as was paid by the former raiyat on account of the former holding, subject to the principles of this Act regulating the enhancement and reduction of rents of permanent tenure-holders:

Provided that, if the former raiyat held at a rent or rate of rent fixed in perpetuity, such rent or rate of rent shall not be changed except in accordance with the provisions of section 52:

Provided also that the rent of such permanent tenure shall not be limited on the ground that the rate of rent is above the customary rate payable by persons holding similar tenures in the vicinity or that the profit of the permanent tenure-holder is less than ten per cent. of the balance that remains after deducting from his gross rents the expenses of collection.

(3) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (6), the person, if any, who was the immediate under-raiyat of the former occupancy raiyat, if such under-raiyat was an occupancy under-raiyat in respect of such lands or a settled raiyat of the village, shall become an occupancy raiyat in respect of the lands of the former raiyati holding and if he was a non-occupancy under-raiyat of the village, he shall become a non-occupancy raiyat in respect of such lands, and the rent thereafter payable by such person as raiyat shall in either case be the rent that was payable by him as under-raiyat, subject to the provisions contained in this Act as to the enhancement and reduction of the rent of occupancy or non-occupancy raiyats, as the case may be.

(4) If there is any incumbrance on the lands of the former raiyati holding, such incumbrance, unless it is annulled in proceedings under Chapter XIV, shall thereafter be deemed to be an incumbrance on the interest of the landlord, as proprietor or permanent tenure-holder, which continues under sub-section (1) or accrues under sub-section (2) in respect of such lands.

(5) If the right of an occupancy under-raiyat and his immediate landlord becomes united in the same person by transfer, succession or in any other way whatsoever, or if an occupancy under-raiyat becomes an occupancy raiyat under the provisions of sub-section (4), the right of the occupancy under-raiyat, as such, shall be extinguished, and any incumbrance on the holding of such occupancy under-raiyat shall, unless it is annulled under the provisions of Chapter XIV, attach to the interest of the said immediate landlord or to the interest of the said occupancy raiyat, as the case may be.

Any immediate under-raiyat of such occupancy under-raiyat shall, unless his interest is annulled under the provisions of Chapter XIV, hold as under-raiyat under the said immediate landlord, or the said occupancy raiyat, as the case may be, and, shall, subject to the provisions of this Act as to the enhancement and reduction of such rent, pay to such immediate landlord or to such occupancy raiyat, as the case may be, the rent that was payable by him to his former landlord immediately before the extinguishment of the interest of that landlord.

(6) Nothing contained in this section shall affect—

(i) the rights of a landlord who purchases a holding at a sale in execution of a decree for arrears of rent to annul incumbrances on such holding in the manner provided in Chapter XIV;

(ii) the rights of purchase conferred on co-sharer immediate - landlords by section 26G, where the entire raiyati or under-raiyati interest in an occupancy holding has been acquired by another co-sharer immediate landlord of the same;

(iii) any right of ejectment which may be exercised by a landlord under section 26H.

These rights may be exercised as if the occupancy holding of the former raiyat and any holding of an under-raiyat thereunder had continued to exist.

(7) A person holding land as a temporary tenure-holder or farmer of rents shall not, while so holding, acquire a right to hold as a raiyat any land comprised in his temporary tenure or farm.

Explanation.—A person having a right to hold the lands of an occupancy holding as a raiyat does not lose it by subsequently becoming jointly interested in the land as proprietor or permanent tenure-holder, or by subsequently holding the land as a temporary tenure-holder or in farm.

Illustrations.

1. X, a raiyat having the entire raiyati interest in an occupancy holding immediately under A, a sole proprietor, purchases the interest of A. X is a proprietor in respect of the lands formerly held by him as raiyat.

2. A is a sole proprietor. X is a raiyat having the entire raiyati interest in an occupancy holding under A. Y is an under-raiyat under X in respect of half the lands of the holding of X. X cultivates the remainder. A purchases by private purchase the interest of X. Y becomes a raiyat under A in respect of the lands held by him and A holds the remainder khas as proprietor. A then settles the khas lands with Z, a raiyat. Z is a raiyat under A in respect of those lands.

3. A, B and C are co-sharer permanent tenure-holders, and are the immediate landlords in respect of an occupancy holding held by X. A purchases the raiyati interest of X who cultivates the holding himself. A becomes a permanent tenure-holder under A, B and C in respect of the lands, and, if he thereafter settles them with Z, a raiyat, Z becomes raiyat under the permanent under-tenure-holder A.

Amendment of section 23 of Act VIII of 1885.

20. In section 23 of the said Act the words "but shall not be entitled to cut down trees in contravention of any local custom" shall be omitted.

REVISION OF PAY OF OFFICERS OF THE REGISTRATION DEPARTMENT.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

Miscellaneous—Registration.

CALCUTTA, THE 2ND JANUARY 1923.

RESOLUTION—No. 44Mis.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Mr. P. C. Mitter, C.I.E.

THE maximum and minimum pay of Sub-Registrars has remained practically unchanged since 1905 when payment by salaries was introduced in place of the commission system in the Registration Department. In the meantime the cost of living has increased, and it is agreed that the scales of pay of the officers of the Registration Department require revision.

The Government of Bengal (Ministry of Education) are now pleased to issue the following orders :—

(a) The Registrar and Sub-Registrar of Calcutta will be placed on the scales of pay Rs. 450—25—500 and Rs. 300—20—400, respectively.

(b) There will be two Inspectors of Registration offices who will be placed on the scale of Rs. 350—20—450. Their chief function will be to assist the Inspector-General of Registration in inspecting Registration offices.

(c) Sub-Registrars will be placed on the scale of Rs. 80—6—140 (efficiency bar)—6—200 (efficiency bar)—10—250. Probationers will each get Rs. 60 per mensem and will be required to pass their departmental examination before being confirmed as Sub-Registrars. They will remain for one year on the above pay or until they pass the examination, whichever period is longer.

(d) Sub-Registrars in charge of Sadar offices in 25 districts of Bengal (excluding Calcutta, Chittagong Hill Tracts and Darjeeling), who correspond roughly to the present "District Sub-Registrars," which designation is now abolished, will get their time-scale pay plus incremental special pay of Rs. 75—5—100 which will count towards leave and pension. One of their most important functions will be to inspect Sub-Registry offices in their districts, but they will also be in charge of the Sadar Registration offices. In respect of routine office duties, they will, where necessary, be assisted by a Joint Sub-Registrar at Sadar. They will be vested with the powers and duties of the Registrar to whom they are subordinate, and will ordinarily do all original registration work under section 30(1) of the Indian Registration Act. They will also hear all appeals under section 72 and all applications under section 73 of the Act.

(e) At present there is only one Inspector of Muhammadan Marriage Registration offices. The post of another Inspector of Muhammadan Marriage Registration offices is now sanctioned. These Inspectors of Muhammadan Marriage Registration offices will be included in the cadre of Sub-Registrars.

(f) The revision of pay which includes a measure of re-organisation will take effect from the 1st December 1922. The existing leave and casualty reserves have been amalgamated in the ordinary cadre, and subsequent orders will be issued fixing the strength of the cadre.

3. Officers will be brought on to the new time-scale in accordance with the following principles :—

(i) Officers who are brought on the time-scale will be permitted to count all continuous temporary, probationary, acting or substantive pro tempore service in a corresponding post followed by confirmation as if it were service on the new time-scale, and to draw pay at the point which they would have reached on this hypothesis, provided that a deduction of one year shall be made from the total service thus calculated, but no such deduction shall be made in the case of Sub-Registrars who began service not less than one year before the introduction of salary system on 1st October 1905, as they have already lost the whole period of their service under the commission system. Officers who are entitled to the incremental special pay referred to in clause (d) of paragraph 2 will be placed in this incremental scale in accordance with the number of years of service as permanent District Sub-Registrars.

(ii) An officer who originally entered on any of the appointments which are now put on a time-scale at a pay higher than the lowest of those appointments will draw an initial pay not less than that of the officer next below him in the present grade who entered on the lowest pay.

(iii) An officer whose promotion has been accelerated for good work will draw on the time-scale the same initial pay as the officer next below him.

(iv) An officer who has been degraded or punished by having his promotion permanently retarded will draw the same pay as the officer next above him.

(v) Subject to the proviso that no officer will draw less than the minimum of the new scale or more than the maximum, the initial pay must not exceed the substantive, provisionally substantive, or substantive pro tempore pay drawn on the 1st of December 1922 by more than—

(1) Forty per cent. in the case of those drawing pay of not more Rs. 100 on that date,

(2) Thirty per cent. in the case of those drawing pay from Rs. 101 to Rs. 200 on that date,

(3) Twenty per cent. in the case of those drawing pay more than Rs. 200 on that date, with necessary adjustments at points where percentages change, to avoid anomaly of treatment.

(vi) When the pay of an officer determined with reference to the percentage limitation does not coincide with a point in the new time-scale the officer shall enter the time-scale at the point next below and shall receive a personal allowance, to be absorbed in his next increment, equal to the difference between the point at which he enters the time-scale and the amount admissible to him under clause (v) of this paragraph.

(vii) Where an officer is already on a progressive or time-scale pay, the date of his increment in the new time-scale will be the same as in the old scale. In all other cases the incremental period will be reckoned from 1st December 1922.

As the Government of Bengal make appointments in the Registration Department, they alone are competent to enable the holders of these appointments to pass beyond the efficiency bar. The Inspector-General of Registration, Bengal, has therefore been requested to submit for the approval of Government the nominal roll of the existing officers of the Registration Department in the following form, with a statement of the reasons for his not allowing to pass the efficiency bar those officers whom he does not consider fit for doing so :—

Serial No.	Name of officer.	Date of appointment in the Registration Department.	Pay on the new scale on 1st December 1922.	Remarks.

ORDER.—Ordered that the resolution be communicated (1) to the Finance Department of this Government for information and communication to the Accountant-General, Bengal; (2) to the Inspector-General of Registration, Bengal, for information and necessary action.

Ordered also that the resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette for general information

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO ADVISE ON THE EXTENSION OF THE BOUNDARIES OF CALCUTTA.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT.

CALCUTTA, THE 12TH JANUARY 1923.

RESOLUTION—No. 76M.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Sir S. N. Banerji, Kt.

WHEN the Calcutta Municipal Bill was introduced in the Legislative Council, the Minister for Local Self-Government referred to the fact that proposals for the amalgamation with Calcutta of some of the suburban areas (Cossipore-Chitpur, Maniktola and Garden Reach Municipalities) had been made by the Corporation of Calcutta. He had invited the Chairman and Vice-Chairman of these municipalities to a conference held in March 1922, and had ascertained from them that they and their constituencies were entirely opposed to these alterations in boundaries. He had assured them that "Government would not favour these changes, if they went wholly and decisively against the wishes of the people concerned", and he informed the Legislative Council that in view of the opposition which was offered, he had decided not to adopt the proposals made by the Corporation, save in respect of a small area within the Tollygunge Municipality. When the Bill was subsequently referred to a Select Committee, it appeared that several of the members were strongly in favour of the extension of the city boundaries in the interests of the health of Calcutta. The Minister for Local Self-Government, as President of the Committee, thereupon decided that it was desirable for Government to appoint a small committee to advise on the inclusion of certain areas within Calcutta, with the view that their enquiries might be of considerable help to the Select Committee and might assist Government in determining whether the decision set out in the Minister's speech in the Legislative Council required in the light of further information to be modified.

2. A Committee consisting of Mr. S. R. Das, Advocate-General, Dr. S. C. Banerji, President of the Improvement Trust Tribunal, and Mr. J. A. Woodhead, I.C.S., Land Acquisition Collector (Secretary), was appointed by resolution No. 4601 L.S.-G., dated the 29th August 1922. The Committee's report was submitted on the 4th January 1923. They held 13 sittings and took every possible step to obtain the views of the local bodies, associations and persons likely to be affected by the proposed alterations of the city boundaries. Fourty-seven witnesses were examined.

3. The report deals first with the proposal to include the new Dock Extension area within Calcutta. The Committee are of opinion that the loss of revenue at present enjoyed by the Garden Reach and South Suburban municipalities from the new Dock Extension area would seriously cripple the finances of these two local bodies, and that the amalgamation of the Dock Extension area with Calcutta so far as it lies within the Garden Reach Municipality should not be effected unless the whole of that municipality were incorporated in Calcutta. Similarly they are of opinion that the South Suburban Municipality should continue to administer that portion of the Dock Extension area which lies within their boundaries.

4. As regards the Ballygunge Pumping Station and the High Level Outfall Sewer, the Committee are of opinion that this small area which lies within the Tollygunge Municipality should be amalgamated with Calcutta on the Corporation refunding to the latter municipality a sum of Rs. 2,632 expended on local drainage within this area. It is to be observed that the Committee are of opinion that the Tollygunge Municipality's claim to a recurring compensation for the net loss of income (Rs. 3,000) derived from this area should not be admitted.

5. As regards the Cossipore-Chitpur Municipality, the Committee observe that the weight of public opinion is opposed to amalgamation, that the municipality is efficiently managed, and that its financial position is one of considerable and growing strength.

In these circumstances they do not recommend that Cossipore-Chitpur should at present be amalgamated with Calcutta.

6. The case of Maniktola in their opinion stands on a different footing. Its municipal services are admittedly unsatisfactory, and the Commissioners also state their inability to carry out the costly drainage and other improvement schemes which are essential, if this important area is to enjoy the ordinary amenities of a large modern town.

The Committee were informed that the improvement of Maniktola would involve a capital expenditure of not less than 30 lakhs of rupees on which the loan charges would amount roughly to 2½ lakhs per annum, while it was estimated that an additional recurring expenditure of rupees one lakh per annum would be required to bring the municipal services to a proper standard. The Committee came to the view that local opinion almost unanimously favours amalgamation, if some guarantee can be given for the execution of the necessary improvements within a reasonable period. In view of these facts, the Committee have recommended that Maniktola should be amalgamated with Calcutta on condition that a statutory obligation is placed upon the Calcutta Corporation to spend on an average three lakhs of rupees per annum, over and above the amount realized as revenue from the absorbed area, until such time as Government are satisfied that all its more urgent improvements have been carried out.

7. The report of the Committee has been laid before the Select Committee and it is for them to decide what recommendations they will make in this regard to the Legislative Council.

The Minister has directed that the report of the Committee should be published so that the public, and particularly the municipal boards and residents of the areas affected, may have an opportunity of studying the important issues raised.

He desires in conclusion to record his warm appreciation of the services rendered by the members of the Committee and to thank Mr. Woodhead for the manner in which he has discharged the onerous duties of Secretary in addition to his ordinary work.

By order of the Government of Bengal

S. W. GOODE,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

Report of the Committee appointed to advise on the extension of the boundaries of Calcutta.

I. Constitution.—The Committee was appointed by resolution No. 4601 L.S.-G., of the Government of Bengal, dated the 29th August 1922.

II. Terms of Reference.—The terms of reference were to advise on the inclusion of the following areas within the boundaries of the Calcutta Corporation:—

(a) the new Dock Extension area,
(b) the Ballygunge Pumping Station and the High Level Outfall Sewer up to a certain point,
(c) Maniktola, and

III. Meetings held and witnesses examined.—The Committee held thirteen sittings. Advertisements were published in the local papers requesting persons interested in the proposed extensions of the city boundaries to favour the Committee with their views. Written opinions were obtained from all the local bodies affected by the proposed extensions and from private individuals and associations. The Committee also examined 47 witnesses.

IV. The New Dock Extension Area.—The new Dock Extension area is the area acquired by the Port Commissioners for the construction of the King George's Dock and the works in connection therewith. The Port Commissioners intend constructing a road within the outer boundary of this area, and the Calcutta Corporation has proposed that the Calcutta municipal limit should be at a distance of 200 feet beyond this boundary line. This area falls within the jurisdiction of—

(a) the Garden Reach Municipality,
(b) the District Board of the 24-Parganas, and (c) the South Suburban Municipality.

It will be convenient to consider the three divisions of this area separately.

King George's Dock falls very largely within the Garden Reach Municipality. The Port Commissioners favour the inclusion of this area within the city of Calcutta for the following reasons. First, the Port Commissioners desire that King George's Dock and the surrounding area should be provided with a high standard of municipal administration, and above all that a system of underground drainage and an adequate water-supply should be installed. Secondly, they apprehend that the Garden Reach Municipality will not be able to provide municipal services of this high standard, and they maintain that they are fortified in this view by the fact that, in spite of the large sum at present paid to the Garden Reach Municipality as taxes by the Port Commissioners, the municipality has failed to supply those municipal services which the Port Commissioners as ratepayers can reasonably expect, and in particular has failed to cleanse the existing service privies or to provide a water supply to the Dock area. In consequence of this failure the Port Commissioners have been compelled to spend a considerable sum on the installation of septic tanks and the sinking of tube wells. Thirdly, they expect that amalgamation with Calcutta will ensure the provision of an underground sewage system and an adequate water supply within a reasonable period. Fourthly, the existing boundary line and that retained in schedule I of the Draft Municipal Bill of 1921 will become, after the closing of the existing Shahapur, Goragachha and Taratola roads, an imaginary line cutting through sheds and railway yards and running at one place through the water of King George's Dock. Such an imaginary boundary will inevitably lead to difficulty in assessment and municipal administration.

The Commissioners of the Garden Reach Municipality oppose the proposed amalgamation on the ground that the loss of this area will mean municipal bankruptcy for their municipality. They point out that the income realized from the Port Commissioners' area is Rs. 79,000 a year and the expenditure on that area Rs. 12,000 a year, that the budget of 1922-23 showed a balance of receipts over expenditure of Rs. 40,000 and that the loss of the income from the Dock area will turn this surplus into a deficit of Rs. 27,000 a year. A drainage scheme costing 7 lakhs is under preparation and an experimental tube well has been sunk with the object of supplementing the water supply received from the Calcutta Corporation. The loss of the income from the Dock area will inevitably necessitate the abandonment of these schemes, and the return of the municipality from a condition of progress to one of stagnation.

Local opinion and the opinion of the District Magistrate of the 24-Parganas support the views expressed by the Commissioners of the Garden Reach Municipality. Both the Chairman of the municipality and the District Magistrate of the 24-Parganas in the course of their oral evidence before us stated that it would be preferable to amalgamate the whole of the Garden Reach Municipality with Calcutta than to cripple the former by the severance of the Dock area.

Criticism has been and probably will be directed against the fact that the Garden Reach Municipality spends such a small portion of the income derived from the New Dock area on the municipal services of that area. It is beyond our province to say whether the expenditure incurred on the New Dock area bears the correct proportion to the receipts from that area, but in this connection we wish to draw attention to two points. First, the receipts by the Calcutta Corporation from the Dock area at present included within the city boundaries exceeds by a very considerable amount the municipal expenditure on that area and we see no reason to presume that if the New Dock area be amalgamated with Calcutta the expenditure by the Calcutta Corporation on the New Dock area will in any way approach the receipts from that area. Secondly, it is impossible to divide any municipality into water-tight compartments and demand that the expenditure and receipts of each of these compartments shall exactly balance. The richer areas must always contribute towards the cost of the municipal services in the poorer areas.

We agree with the Port Commissioners that the maintenance of a high standard of municipal administration in the New Dock area is of the greatest importance, and we are of opinion that the Port Commissioners are probably correct in concluding that the Calcutta Corporation will be able to provide and maintain a more efficient service than the Garden Reach Municipality. At the same time it must be remembered that the completion of King George's Dock will be accompanied by an increase in the population—in all probability due to an influx of the poorer classes—and in an intensification in the industrial character of the Garden Reach municipal area, and that the maintenance of an efficient municipal administration in the urban area adjoining the docks will be almost as essential as the improvement of the municipal services within the New Dock area. In considering therefore the advisability of amalgamating the New Dock area with the Calcutta Municipality we must not only consider the beneficial effect on the area severed but also the effect on the remaining portion of the Garden Reach Municipality. It would be useless recommending proposals for the improvement of the administration of one area if those proposals must necessarily bring in their train a great deterioration in the standard of municipal administration in an adjoining urban area. We are satisfied that the loss of the revenue derived from the New Dock area will result in the crippling of the finances of the Garden Reach Municipality, will render it difficult for that body to maintain the present services in a state of efficiency: and will postpone indefinitely all schemes for the improvement of the municipal services particularly those relating to drainage and water supply. The amalgamation of this portion only is also open to the serious objection that it will transfer an area which under any municipal administration will yield a surplus of receipts over expenditure from a relatively poor municipality to a richer body, and that the surplus will be diverted thereby to improving an area which is capable of financing its own schemes of improvements without this additional revenue. We have given the case our very careful consideration and have come to the conclusion that we cannot recommend the amalgamation with Calcutta of that portion of the New Dock area which falls within the Garden Reach Municipality. We express no opinion as to whether at the present time the whole of the Garden Reach Municipality should be amalgamated with Calcutta, but if there is any question of the amalgamation of the new Dock Extension area we are of opinion that this should not be done unless the Government is prepared to extend the boundaries of Calautta so as to include the whole of the Garden Reach Municipality.

The case for the amalgamation of that portion of the New Dock area which falls within the South Suburban Municipality is practically the same as that relating to the area falling within the Garden Reach Municipality. Out of the total revenue of Rs. 63,000, Rs. 16,000 is realized from property belonging to the Port Commissioners and the expenditure on the services rendered to the Port Commissioners is much less than the receipts. As in the case of the Garden Reach Municipality the severance of the Port Commissioners' area would seriously interfere with the stability of the finances of the municipality and would very adversely affect the efficiency of the municipal administration. The fact that this portion of the Port Commissioners' land will in all probability be chiefly occupied by a large marshalling yard not requiring such a high standard of municipal service renders the amalgamation of this area with Calcutta less urgent. We accordingly do not recommend the amalgamation of this portion of the New Dock area with Calcutta.

The remaining portion of the New Dock area lies within the jurisdiction of the District Board of the 24-Parganas. As we have negatived the proposals to amalgamate the areas falling within the two municipalities, we cannot recommend the amalgamation of this area at the present time.

The difficulty in assessment and administration which will arise owing to the boundary between the Calcutta Municipality on the one hand and the Garden Reach Municipality, the South Suburban Municipa'ity, and the District Board on the other becoming in a few years an imaginary line is one with which it is at present difficult to deal, because the exact lay out of the New Dock area has not yet been decided upon. This difficulty and other similar difficulties as to the boundaries of Calcutta, we think, may be avoided by the insertion in the Calcutta Municipal Bill of a clause authorising Government to appoint a Committee to advise on any change of boundaries which may appear necessary, and on a consideration of that report to amend by notification the definition of Calcutta as contained in schedule I of the Act.

V. The Ballygunge Pumping Station and the High Level Outfall Sewer.—The small area of the Tollygunge Municipality which it is proposed should be amalgamated with Calcutta, we think, may be conveniently included within the Calcutta Municipality. The Chairman of the Tollygunge Municipality gave evidence before us and he stated that he had no objection to the area being included within the Calcutta Municipality if the Tollygunge Municipality was compensated for the loss of income incurred by the severance. According to the Chairman this net loss of income is about Rs. 3,000 a year. It also appears that the Tollygunge Municipality has recently paid the Calcutta Corporation the sum of Rs. 2,632 for the cost of connecting the drain from this area with the Pumping Station. On amalgamation the Tollygunge Municipality will be entitled to the refund of this latter amount of Rs. 2,632, but we are of opinion that the claim to compensation for the net loss of revenue should not be admitted.

VI. The Cossipore-Chitpur and the Maniktola Municipalities.—The Calcutta Corporation has suggested the amalgamation of these two municipal areas with Calcutta. The reasons given by the Calcutta Corporation may be summarized as follows. First, Maniktola and Cosssipore-Chitpur are integral parts of Calcutta; the population of Calcutta is overflowing into these areas and the residents of these areas are in close and daily contact with the city. Secondly, the standard of municipal administration in these areas is low, and the absence of a proper system of drains and sewers and an adequate water supply is productive of conditions which at any time may turn a serious menace to the health of Calcutta.

Thirdly, these areas are developing rapidly but owing to the low standard of municipal administration this development is uncontrolled. The continuance of this lack of control will produce the evils prevalent in Calcutta of a century ago and will necessitate very heavy expenditure in the future, whereas if the Calcutta Corporation is able to control development through its stronger executive and the greater powers it possesses under the Calcutta Municipal Act, these evils and the consequent heavy expenditure, which will be necessary to remove them, will be avoided. Fourthly, the financial resources of the two suburban municipalities and their powers under the Bengal Municipal Act are too limited to allow of these municipalities introducing and maintaining a high standard of municipal administration. Fifthly, the longer the amalgamation is postponed, the more expensive it will be to carry out the comprehensive schemes of improvement which will be necessary. Sixthly, the Calcutta Corporation is in a position to carry out the necessary improvements in these two municipalities.

VII. Maniktola.—In Maniktola local opinion is sharply divided. The Municipal Commissioners and a considerable body of ratepayers are opposed to amalgamation. This section of the ratepayers admits that the standard of administration in the municipality is low, that radical improvements in drainage, roads, water supply, and the disposal of sewage are urgently required, and that at present there is no possibility of the municipality being able to carry out these improvements. They however oppose amalgamation because they believe that while amalgamation will bring increased burdens in the shape of heavier taxation, the Calcutta Corporation in its present financial position will find it impossible to carry out the necessary improvements within a reasonable time. In support of the latter contention they point to the slow progress made by the Calcutta Corporation in carrying out improvements in the area added in the year 1889.

Another large section of the ratepayers is in favour of amalgamation because they expect that amalgamation will bring about an immediate improvement in the general standard of administration and that the Calcutta Corporation will carry out gradually the expensive schemes of improvement which are so urgently required. A third section of the ratepayers is in favour of amalgamation even if the Calcutta Corporation for financial reasons should find it impossible to carry out in the near future expensive schemes of improvement. This section appears to be so dissatisfied with the present municipal administration and the apparent impossibility of obtaining improvements even in the general administration from the existing governing body that they would welcome amalgamation, because it would introduce an administrative body which would do its best standard of the municipal services. Local opposition to the amalgamation is therefore based not on the ground that the municipality is able to manage its own affairs in an efficient manner but on the fear that their condition after will be no better than before amalgamation in spite of what they consider as one inevitable result of amalgamation an increase in taxes. The persons opposing amalgamation including the Chairman, Vice-Chairman and the Municipal Commissioners admit that if the provision of an adequate drainage system and an improvement in the water supply can be guaranteed within a reasonable time, they would favour amalgamation.

The geographical position of Maniktola with reference to Calcutta renders it particularly suited to receive the population which is being driven gradually to reside further away from the centre of the city owing to the gradual conversion of the central residential areas to business purposes combined with the improvements being effected by the Calcutta Improvement Trust. This is well illustrated by the increase in its population. The figures from the last three census are as follows:—

With improved sanitary conditions this increase very probably will be still more marked in an area which is growing so rapidly, and we are of opinion that the present municipal body is not in a position to direct development along sound lines.

The present sanitary condition of the municipality owing to the absence of any system of drainage and inadequate arrangements for the disposal of sewage is highly unsatisfactory, and if the population continues to increase at the present rate, as we anticipate it will, conditions will certainly become worse and will be likely to become a menace to the health of Calcutta. Extensive and expensive improvement schemes are required very urgently and the present municipal body admits its inability to carry out these schemes.

Mr. Atkins, the Chief Engineer of the Calcutta Improvement Trust, has prepared a rough scheme for the drainage of the Maniktola area. He is of opinion that the best method is to discharge the greater part of the storm water and sewage from the municipal area into the present Calcutta storm water and sewage canal and to pump the balance into the Calcutta pumping station wnich it is proposed to erect south of the present sewage canal. He further pointed out that he considered it essential that the drainage system of Maniktola should be linked up with the Calcutta system before Calcutta embarked upon any large scheme consequent on the difficulties now being experienced with the Bidyadhari. The scheme which is now being considered by Calcutta for the improvment of the outfall for its sewage and storm water does not provide for the drainage of Maniktola being discharged into the Calcutta drains. If the silting up of the Bidyadhari should take place while Maniktola is a separate municipality, Maniktola would be faced with either prevailing upon the Calcutta Corporation to allow it to discharge its sewage and storm water into the Calcutta sewers or being compelled to discharge its sewage and storm water through some other outfall by a much longer and more expensive route. He considered the drainage of Maniktola to be connected so closely with the drainage of Calcutta that on this ground alone amalgamation was not only justified but essential.

As regards Maniktola the following three facts appear to be clearly established. First, the intimate connection which exists between Calcutta and Maniktola. Secondly, the unsatisfactory character of the municipal services provided at present in Maniktola, and the admission by the existing municipal body that they cannot effect any radical improvement in those services. Thirdly, local opinion practically unanimously favours amalgamation with Calcutta if some guarantee can be given that the Calcutta Corporation will carry out the necessary improvements in a reasonable time.

The rate at which taxes are leived in Maniktola is high and in the case of holdings of a low annual value the rate is considerably higher than the rate at present levied in Calcutta. The following table gives the rates at which the taxes are levied on holdings with a latrine, a water connection and within 300 feet of a light (gas) post:—

Annual valuation.	Rates.
Rs.
100	28·2	per cent.
400	22·75	,,
800	22·	,,
1,200	21·33	,,
1,500	20·7	,,
3,000	19·5	,,

Out of 8,832 holdings in the municipality, 7,828 are assessed at an annual valuation of Rs. 200 and under. The Calcutta Corporation in the written note which they submitted to us stated that they expected an increase of revenue of 80 per cent. directly if the reassessment by the Calcutta Corporation had been carried out. The Chairman of the Calcutta Corporation, however, in the course of his oral evidence was not of this opinion. He thought that the immediate increase in revenue which would be derived from Cossipore-Chitpur and Maniktola after amalgamation would be 1¼ lakhs. This is equivalent to about a 20 per cent. increase on the present revenue. It is extremely difficult and almost impossible to estimate the increase in revenue which the Calcutta Corporation may reasonably expect to get from the Maniktola area on a reassessment. We presume that this reassessment would take place immediately on amalgamation. We doubt, however, whether the increase will be very great. Two factors we believe will render a large increase unlikely. First, the high rate at which the taxes are at present levied on certain holdings, and, secondly, the very large number of holdings the annual valuation of which is under Rs. 200. For the efficient administration of the present municipal services in the Maniktola Municipality the Calcutta Corporation in their note estimated an increased recurring expenditure exclusive of any capital expenditure of about 1 lakh of rupees a year. The capital expenditure required to carry out the drainage scheme, to give an improved water supply, for the construction of new and the improvement of old roads will not be less than 30 lakhs. The loan charges on a sum of 30 lakhs will be about Rs. 2,50,000 a year. Within a short time therefore of amalgamation an increased expenditure of 3½ lakhs a year would be required if the improvement of Maniktola is to be taken in hand seriously. The Chairman of the Calcutta Corporation stated before us that the Calcutta Corporation would be able to spend 3 lakhs a year from its own revenue on improvements in the suburban municipalities of Maniktola and Cossipore-Chitpur and he specified the headings under which he expected to make savings whereby the allocation of a sum of 3 lakhs for this purpose would be possible. The financial position of the Calcutta Corporation owing to the heavy expenditure entailed by the new water supply scheme is not of the brightest, but in spite of a certain degree of financial stringency we are of opinion that the Calcutta Corporation will experience no insuperable difficulty in allotting 3 lakhs of rupees a year for the improvement of Maniktola. An increase of ½ per cent. in the rate of Calcutta would yield this sum of 3 lakhs. The improvement of Maniktola is so urgent and the possibility of the improvements being financed out of the income realised from the Maniktola area so remote that we consider the Calcutta Corporation should be prepared to devote the sum of 3 lakhs from its own resources for the improvement of Maniktola. In this connection we would point out that the allocation of 3 lakhs of rupees a year for the improvement of the area added in the year 1889 has proved to be inadequate.

We accordingly recommend that Maniktola be amalgamated with Calcutta, but we would make the amalgamation subject to a statutory obligation being placed upon the Calcutta Corporation to spend an average of three lakhs of rupees a year over and above the amount realised as revenue from Maniktola until such time as the Government is satisfied that the more urgent improvements have been carried out. We consider the imposition of this statutory obligation of the greatest importance and an integral part of our proposals. Without this statutory obligation we are not prepared to recommend the amalgamation. We place great stress upon this statutory obligation for two reasons. First, rightly or wrongly, the opposition to amalgamation is based very largely on the alleged failure of the Calcutta Corporation to supply within the area added in 1889 municipal services of a reasonably high standard within a reasonable time. Witness after witness has reiterated this and has raised strong objection to the Calcutta Corporation realising heavier taxes than are realised in the majority of the suburban municipalities and giving in the added area services of a standard very little higher than those supplied by suburban municipalities. If this statutory obligation be accepted this objection will largely disappear and increased taxation will be willingly paid because the taxpayers will be assured of improvements being taken in hand immediately. Secondly, after amalgamation the Maniktola area will be represented by a small number of Commissioners on the Calcutta Municipal body. It is feared that the influence exercised by those members may be inadequate to prevail upon the other Commissioners of the Calcutta Corporation to devote large sums for the improvement of the most recently added area while improvements are still required in areas added over 30 years ago.

VIII. Cossipore-Chitpur.—In Cossipore-Chitpur the weight of local opinion is opposed to amalgamation. The Magistrate of the 24-Parganas also does not favour amalgamation. The municipality is efficiently managed and its financial position is one of considerable strength. An underground drainage scheme for the more densely populated portion is under preparation and it does not seem improbable that the municipality with its rapidly growing income will be able to carry out this scheme within the next few years. In view of the present financial position of the Calcutta Corporation and the burden which will be thrown on that body by the amalgamation of Maniktola, we doubt whether the Calcutta Corporation would find it possible to carry out any expensive scheme of improvement in the Cossipore-Chitpur area within the next few years. We accordingly do not recommend the amalgamation of Cossipore-Chitpur at the present time.

Our proposals are therefore as follows :—

1. We do not recommend the amalgamation of the new Dock Extension area and the Cossipore-Chitpur Municipality with Calcutta.

2. We recommend the amalgamation of the Ballyganj pumping station, the high level outfall sewer, and the Maniktola Municipality with Calcutta.

The former subject to the payment of the sum of Rs. 2,632 to the Tollygunge Municipality by the Calcutta Corporation and the latter subject to the statutory obligation, which we have proposed, being placed upon the Calcutta Corparation.

S. R. DAS.*
S. C BANERJEE,
J. A. WOODHEAD,

CALCUTTA, the 4th January 1923.

I agree in the conclusion embodied in the re-commendations contained in our report, but as the reasons which have led me to those conclusions are somewhat different from the reasons given in the report and as the matter is in my humble opinion of some importance I have taken the liberty to record my reasons briefly in a separate note.

In my opinion the proposals for the further extension of Calcutta by the inclusion therein wholesale or in part of the neighbouring suburban municipalities is open to the fundamental objection, that it is calculated to defeat one of the primary objects of all institutions of local self-government, firstly, by creating a single centralized authority for the administration of a local area which would be too large for purposes of local self-government and, secondly, by virtually depriving the people of the suburban area concerned of the right which they at present enjoy of administering thier own local affairs.

The principle underlying the creation of institutions for local self-government is that matters which directly relate to the health, safety and convenience of persons residing within a defined area should be administered by the chosen representatives of persons belonging to the locality concerned. The object of these institutions is that all such persons should take a personal interest and have a voice in the administration of matters which directly and in the first instance concern their well-being These institutions have always been regarded as training grounds for the acquisition of those qualities which go to make a nation fit for self-government in its higher stages. They are the steps which lead to those higher and more enlarged forms of self-government which, leaving aside matters of purely local interest, are more properly concerned with things which affect the nation as a whole or larger section of the nation. In a country like India which is, and must for some time to come be, on the way to that complete self-government for the attainment of which she is striving, the importance of these institutions of local self-government lies not so much in the immediate good which they may do to the local areas under their charge but in their educative effect on the people in teaching them the lessons of self-government. They are the stepping stones to the realisation of a higher civic life but to fulfil that purpose they must retain their local character so that the people may through their chosen representatives take an effective part in the details of the administration of their local affairs. To lose sight of the fundamental distinction between institutions of local self-government and institutions representing higher and more centralized stages of self-government would be prejudicial to the cause of the steady progress of the nation towards the highest forms of self-government in much the same way as the intellectual progress of a nation would be jeopardised if in the matters of its educational institutions the distinction between primary schools and institutions for the imparting of higher education were lost sight of.

It is therefore essential that the unit of area to be taken for an institution of local self-government in this country should not be so large that the residents of one part of it cannot be reasonably expected to take a personal interest in the welfare of another part. The consequence of having too large an area for a municipality may easily be imagined. In such a municipality Commissioners taking personal interest in different parts would not be all of the same ability so that the parts represented by the abler Commissioners would be better attended to than other parts, and among these other parts again those which are represented by Commissioners who attach themselves to the ablest among them would have better chances of getting some crumbs than the others. So that, in the absence of a very strong and just controlling authority at the top, there would be grave inequalities in the attention which different parts of the municipality will receive. The improvements effected by the Calcutta Corporation in what is generally referred to as the "added area" may not unfittingly be referred to in this connection. Nothing is more calculated than a state of things of that kind to undermine the faith of people in self-government and nothing can be more prejudicial to the cause of self-government in a country where the people are taking the first steps in it.

It is undoubtedly necessary that with regard to matters which affect the mutual welfare of several neighbouring municipalities there should be co-operation and that there should be an authority to regulate and, if need be, to enforce such co-operation. This can easily be provided for without bringing about the total extinction of the small municipalities for the benefit of their more powerful neighbour.

Judged by the considerations which I have stated above it must, I think, be admitted that the area covered by the Calcutta municipality as it exists at present is already too large for a single municipality. A resident of Baghbazar cannot reasonably be expected to take that amount of personal interest in the welfare of places like Dhakuria or Chetla or Kidderpore which is necessary to constitute the bond to hold together an institution of local self-government. It may be said that some special considerations apply to the case of a city which aspires to the position of the second or third city in the Empire and naturally the instance of London with its vast area is referred to. We find, however, that what is called the administrative County of London is really a federation of twenty-nine municipal corporations, namely, the city of London and twenty-eight metropolitan boroughs which manage their own local affairs with the London County Council as the central authority to deal with all matters which require uniformity of action throughout the whole of London. That is the scheme on which the municipal administration of a large metropolis is carried on in a self-governing county where what I have referred to as the educative effect of these municipal institutions is certainly not a matter of such vital importance as here. Having regard to the circumstances of this country and to the fact that the area included within Calcutta is already too large to be administered by a single authority it would be undesirable except for very special reasons to make any further increase in its area without introducing into its administration some measure of decentralization on similar lines.

Then again, with the scheme of administration set out in the Bill the effect of the proposed extension of the limits of Calcutta will be virtually to deprive the inhabitants of the several areas proposed to be included of the privilege which they now enjoy of administering their own local affairs. It is not difficult to imagine that in the administration of the amalgamated area questions of vital importance to the areas proposed to be added to Calcutta may arise upon which they and the whole of present Calcutta would be ranged on opposite sides. I may refer to one instance which arises on the written note of the Chairman of the Corporation of Calcutta and upon the note submitted to the Trust by Mr. Bompas and referred to in the note of Mr. S. N. Mallik and also on the evidence given by Mr. I. J. Cohen, namely, the removal of all trades and factories from present Calcutta into these areas. On questions like those the people of the areas concerned will have absolutely no chance. Furthermore, the scheme of the Bill is that different branches of the administration would be placed in the hands of standing committees and as it is not likely that the representatives from these areas would have a place on each of those committees the result would be that in the branches of the administration entrusted to committees on which they are not represented they will have no effective voice. Now, the taking away or a material impairing of an existing right is in itself an evil and it is all the more an evil in a case like the present when the right which is in danger of being affected is one which, in the interests of the country, should be fostered. If the people whose rights are sought to be so affected or a majority of them object to the extension it cannot be justified unless a clear case is made out that it is necessary either to avert a greater evil which threatens them or to secure for them a benefit which would compensate them for the loss or the impairment of their right.

These considerations, on which I venture to attach great importance, have led me to the conclusion that, that in the absence of very special circumstances, it would be undesirable to allow any further extension of the limits of Calcutta unless the Municipal Government of Calcutta is remodelled by the introduction into it of an adequate measure of decentralization on lines similar to what were suggested by Mr. Greer in the year 1905 in the Bengal Council in a speech which is referred to in the sixth paragraph of the report of the Special Committee of the Corporation on the provisions of the Bill relating to the constitution and government of the Calcutta Municipality, dated the 1st October 1918. Such more or less fanciful considerations as the securing of natural, as distinguished from artificial, boundaries and the desire to include whatever may be a geographical elongation of Calcutta or even such considerations as the desirability of including within Calcutta all neighbouring places which are connected with the city by interests of trade or business should not be taken as adequate reasons to justify any extension of Calcutta. I would venture to go further and hold that even more considerations of efficiency of administration or of administrative convenience should not be allowed to prevail in deciding the question in issue. If the administration of any municipality is found to be inefficient the proper action to take would be, not to put an end to its individual existence by merging it into another municipality which may be supposed to be more efficiently administered, but to take such steps as would make it more efficient.

I am therefore in entire agreement with my colleagues that no case has been made out for the acceptance of the proposal for amalgamation so far as it relates to Cossipore-Chitpur or to the Dock area, and it is only because I am satisfied on the evidence before us that Maniktola is in urgent need of improvement which it will not be in a position to carry out within any reasonable limit of time and that bulk of local opinion there is in favour of its amalgamation with Calcutta provided that it is guaranteed that it lead to the requisite improvements being made within a reasonable time, that I have agreed to the conditional recommendation contained in our report regarding the inclusion of the Maniktola Municipality within the limits of Calcutta.

REVISION OF PAY OF MINISTERIAL OFFICERS IN THE EDUCATIONAL SERVICES BELOW THE BENGAL EDUCATIONAL SERVICE.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

EDUCATION DEPARTMENT.

Education Branch.

CALCUTTA, THE 13TH JANUARY 1923.

RESOLUTION—No. 119 Edn.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Mr. P. C. Mitter, C.I.E.

READ—

The report of the Committee appointed to consider the question of the reorganization of the Educational Services below the Bengal Educational Service.

The Committee recommended the introduction of time-scale pay in place of the present graded system, and, for the purpose of working out proposals, with this end in view they divided the officers concerned into four categories according to the nature of their work:—

I.—Teaching.

II.—Inspecting.

III.—Ministerial.

IV.—Miscellaneous.

The cases of the officers in the first two categories have been dealt with in Resolution No. 464 Edn., dated the 3rd March 1922. The present resolution deals with the revision of the pay of ministerial officers comprising category III. A separate resolution will issue covering the officers included in category IV.

2. The Government of Bengal (Ministry of Education) have not been able to adopt in their entirety the principles laid down in the Committee's report and have after full consideration of the recommendations made by the Committee, decided to apply to ministerial establishments serving in offices subordinate to the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, the standard scales sanctioned on the recommendations of the McAlpin Committee in respect of the pay of ministerial officers serving under the local Government.

3. The new rates of pay shown in the statements appended to this resolution will take effect from 1st September 1921, and the ad interim allowances will cease from that date. The allowances granted to clerks in certain offices who perform the duties of shorthand typists will continue until further orders.

4. The following general principles are to be observed in bringing officers on to the new scales:—

(a) An officer will draw the pay at a stage of the new scale applicable to him next above the stage that is nearest to one and one-third times his present pay, or if two stages are equidistant next above the higher stage, subject to the condition that no officer shall draw less than the minimum or more than the maximum of the scale in which he is placed. Nor shall he draw less than his present pay plus ad interim allowance. If his present pay plus ad interim allowance exceeds the maximum of the scale in which he is placed he will draw that maximum and a personal allowance equal to the difference.

Present pay for this purpose is defined as the rate of substantive pay drawn for 31st August 1921, or in the case of officers on long leave or on deputation on the 1st September 1921 the substantive pay of their posts on 31st August 1921. The sum of the pay and allowances of an officer actually drawn under the old rates for the period from 1st September 1921 to the end of January 1923 will be adjusted against the amount admissible under the revised scales but when the former exceeds the latter no recoveries of amounts drawn correctly under the rates previously in force will be made. Example:—

An officer going into the scale of Rs. 40—40—45—2—65—2—85—

III.—Ministerial.

IV.—Miscellaneous.

The cases of the officers in the first three categories have been dealt with in Resolutions No. 464 Edn., dated 3rd March 1922, and No. 119 Edn., dated the 13th January 1923. The present resolution deals with the revision of the pay of officers included in the fourth and last category namely, the miscellaneous group. In consideration of the fact that the work of certain officers included by the Committee in categroy IV—Miscellaneous is approximately similar to the work of ministerial officers, the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Education) found it desirable to transfer them to category III—Ministerial.

2. Having regard to the work generally performed by the officers covered by this resolution, the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Education) do not consider it necessary to fix the new scales of pay for these officers on the same general principles as have been followed in fixing the pay of the officers included in the first three categories. They are of opinion that the pay of these officers should be regulated according to the market value and the new scales have been drawn up on this basis.

3. The revised rates of pay shown in the statements appended to this resolution will take effect from 1st September 1921.

4. The following general principles should be observed in bringing officers on to the new scales:—

(a) Subject to the proviso that no officer will get less than the minimum or more than the maximum of the new scale in which he is placed, an officer is allowed to start in the new scale at a stage next above his present pay.

Present pay for this purpose is defined as the rates of substantive pay drawn from 31st August 1921 or in the case of officers on long leave or deputation on 1st September 1921 the substantive pay of their posts on 31st August 1921. The sum of the pay and allowances of an officer actually drawn under the old rates for the period from the 1st September 1921 to the end of January 1923 will be adjusted against the amount admissible under the revised rates but when the former exceeds the latter no recoveries of amount drawn correctly under the rates previously in force will be made.

(b) Individual cases not covered by the above rules should be referred specially for the orders of Government.

5. Increments in the revised scales will be earned by the service in those scales in accordance with the sanctioned terms.

6. Holders of temporary posts have been excluded from the scheme of revision sanctioned in this resolution. They will continue to serve on their present terms.

7. Arrangements are being made with the Accountant-General, Bengal, to enable officers to draw their pay under the new scales as soon as possible.

ORDER.—Ordered that the resolution be communicated—(1) to the Finance Department of this Government for information and communication to the Accountant-General, Bengal; (2) to the Director of Public Instruction, Bengal, for information and necessary action.

Ordered also that the resolution and the appendix be published in the Calcutta Gazette for general information.

By order of the Government of Bengal,

(Ministry of Education),

J. N. ROY,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

Formula for calculating heating surface.

The heating surface for these purposes may be defined generally as the total surface of all plates and tubes exposed to heat on one side and in contact with water on the other, measured on the water side. For Lancashire and Cornish boilers the total heating surface shall include the wetted surface of the furnaces between the end plates and of cross tubes, where fitted, and the part of the external shell below the side flue covers. In estimating the areas, furnaces may be considered as plain cylinders, the area of their wetted surface is to be taken as their mean external circumference × the length of the boiler between end plates. For the shell the width of that part of the circumference below the flue covers is to be taken as $=2D$, and this width × the length between end plates is to be taken as the area of shell heating surface. The part of the surface of the back end plate exposed to heat is to be neglected.

The formula for the total heating surface of a Lancashire boiler having plain furnaces without cross-tubes is therefore H. S. in square feet $=2L\ (3{\cdot}14d+D)$. L is the length of the boiler between end plates, D is the mean external diameter of the largest belt of shell, d is the diameter of furnace flue all sizes in feet.

For steam and water drums of water tube boilers the heating surface of the drum may be taken as half the external mean circumference into the clear length of drum between the outer brick walls or centres of cross boxes as the case may be. The surface of the tubes may be taken as the external surface of the inclined tubes between tube plate and headers. The heating surface of the headers is to be neglected.

For Marine type boilers the heating surface shall include the wetted surface of the furnaces between the tube plates (considered in the same way as for Lancashire boilers), the wetted surface of the combustion chambers (less the area of the tube holes) and the wetted surface of the tubes between tube plates. The parts of the front tube plate exposed to heat are to be neglected.

For Locomotive type boilers the heating surface shall include the wetted surface of the fire-box above the foundation ring (less the area of the tubes and the fire-hole and ring) and the wetted surface of the tubes between tube plates. The smoke box tube plate is to be neglected.

For vertical boilers of ordinary type the heating surface shall include the wetted surface of the fire-box above the foundation ring (less the area of fire-hole and ring and tube holes, if any) and the wetted surface of any cross or other tubes and uptake below the lowest water level shown in the gauge-glass. For any other heating surface not provided for in the foregoing instructions the same general procedure shall be observed. No deduction should be made for stays, etc., in calculating the heating surface.

4. Delete rule XXII of the said rules.

5. In column 2 of Division II of Form No. 1 for the word "horse-power" substitute the words "Heating Surface".

6. In Division IV of Form No. 1 for the existing scale of fees substitute the following, namely :—

		Rs.
Boilers up to 100 square feet heating surface	... ...	20
„ from 101 square feet H. S. to 300 square feet H. S.	...	25
„ „ 301 „ „ „ 500 „ „ „	...	30

G. N. ROY,
Secretary to the Government of Bengal (offg.).

No. F.-1234.

JUDICIAL.

Delhi, the 10th January 1923.

RESOLUTION.

In a Resolution, dated the 13th June 1922, the Government of Bengal appointed a Committee to examine the possibility of retrenchment in the public expenditure of that province. The High Court at Calcutta was, however, not included within the scope of this Committee's enquiries in view of the special position of the Court and the advisability that any investigation of the working of the Court should be conducted by persons having experience in judicial administration and procedure. While the expenditure connected with this Court is met from the provincial revenues of Bengal, the control and general superintendence over the Court, unlike other High Courts, vest directly in the Governor General in Council. In the present circumstances there is, however, no doubt that the possibilities of introducing economies in the expenditure of the Court should also be explored and after consulting the Government of Bengal and the Hon'ble the Chief Justice, the Governor General in Council has decided to appoint a special Committee for this purpose.

The Hon'ble Sir Alexander Muddiman, Kt., C.S.I., C.I.E., President of the Council of State, has consented to serve as President and the Members will be:—

The Hon'ble Justice Sir T. W. Richardson, Kt., I.C.S. (Bar.-at-Law), Judge, High Court, Calcutta;

T. E. Moir, Esq., C.S.I., C.I.E., I.C.S., Member of the Legislative Assembly; and Babu Surendra Nath Roy, Member of the Legislative Council, Bengal.

Mr. R. Douglas, I.C.S., Under-Secretary to the Government of Bengal, will act as Secretary to the Committee.

The terms of reference to the Committee will be the consideration of—

(1) economies in the strength of the establishment of the Court both superior and inferior, and

(2) such changes and modifications of the working of the Court as will tend to economy.

2. His Excellency the Governor General in Council desires that the Committee should meet in Calcutta on such date as may be appointed by the President and hopes that it will be possible for the Committee to submit their recommendations to the Government of India on an early date. The Governor General in Council has no doubt that the Hon'ble the Chief Justice and Judges will afford the Committee every assistance in dealing with this matter, the importance of which in the present circumstances cannot be questioned.

ORDER.—Ordered that the Resolution be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India and that a copy be forwarded to the Government of Bengal, the Registrar of the High Court of Calcutta and the President and Members of the Committee.

Joint Secretary to the Government of India.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 261L., dated Calcutta, the 20th January, 1923.—With reference to the foot-notes to the Report of the Select Committee on the Calcutta Municipal Bill, 1921 (A Bill to amend and consolidate the law relating to the Municipal Affairs of the Town and Suburbs of Calcutta) published in the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, dated the 19th January, 1923, and in continuation of this office Notification No. 173-L., dated the 15th January, 1923, it is notified that Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul Haq, M.L.C., Babu Surendra Nath Mallik, M.L.C. and Mr. G. Morgan, M.L.C., have appended the following notes of Dissent to the report :—

THE CALCUTTA MUNICIPAL BILL, 1921.

Note of Dissent by Maulvi A. K. Fazl-ul-Huq, M.L.C.

I am opposed to the inclusion of the suburban municipalities within the jurisdiction of the Calcutta Corporation, both because such an inclusion is opposed to the weight of public opinion and also because it will be harmful to Muhammadan interests. In most of these suburban municipalities, at present, Muhammadan influence is predominant. I am afraid all this influence will be lost if these municipalities are merged in the Calcutta Corporation. The safeguard of communal representation that has been provided in the Act will not be sufficient to compensate the Muhammadan community for the loss of influence and power which will follow the absorption of the suburban municipalities in the higher body.

As regards Muhammadan representation, I am of opinion that the number of seats to be ear-marked for Muhammadans should be at least 25 per cent of the total number.

With these remarks, I sign the report.

Note of Dissent by Babu Surendra Nath Mallik, M.L.C., and Mr. G. Morgan, M.L.C.

The Select Committee, while recommending the amalgamation of Maniktala, the Port Commissioners' new dock area and a small portion of the Tollygunge Municipality with Calcutta have negatived by a very narrow majority the proposal to include Cossipore-Chitpore. We are strongly of opinion that this area should also be included.

2. Cossipore-Chitpore is virtually an integral part of Calcutta and the present boundary between it and the city is purely artificial. The portion between the river and Barrackpore Trunk Road is practically a trading and commercial centre of Calcutta, and is geographically only an elongation of the city. The bulk of the people of Cossipore-Chitpore are in close and daily contact with the city and practically form a part of the city population. There is an acute shortage of housing accommodation in Calcutta where the land values are extraordinarily high. It is urgently necessary to find room for expansion both for residential and commercial purposes. The population of Calcutta is massed in the north where the density is 160 per acre (i.e. about the same as in the slum areas of London) and there is a natural tendency for the population to move towards Cossipore-Chitpore and Maniktala instead of to Bhowanipur or Ballygunge. We may note in this connection that a large area of nearly three square miles on the south of the city, from Tollygunge to Behala, has been acquired by the Port Commissioners for a marshalling yard and has been lost to the city. Not only is the natural flow of population towards the north, but that is the only direction in which there is room for expansion. The case for the amalgamation of Cossipore-Chitpore and Maniktala is based on the unquestionable necessity of finding room for the expansion of Calcutta, and it is inconceivable how the Cossipore-Chitpore municipal area can be left out of the scheme. People are spreading to Cossipore-Chitpore and are developing land with inadequate means of access, and the evils of the worst parts of Calcutta will before long be reproduced here, unless effective measures are taken to check them. The portion of Cossipore-Chitpore south of Dum Dum Road and Shell Factory Road is a large industrial centre which requires a high standard of municipal administration and efficient inspection and control. If Cossipore-Chitpore is included in Calcutta, the Corporation will be able to control building operations and to regulate future development and to exercise their extensive powers in the interests of sanitation and public health. Moreover, the Corporation pumping station and reservoir, from which the whole city is supplied with filtered water, are situated at Talla, which forms a part of the Cossipore-Chitpore municipal area. The Corporation are considerably expanding the water-works and we agree that for this reason, if for no other, this area should be under their control.

3. Another argument for incorporating Cossipore-Chitpore in Calcutta is the extent of its dependence on the city for some of its essential municipal amenities. The whole of its filtered water supply is obtained from the Corporation on payment, and it also takes a supply of unfiltered water from Calcutta. There is no adequate supply of unfiltered water for fire extinguishing purposes, and although, owing to the large number of jute warehouses situated there, the fire-risks are particularly heavy and the provision of an adequate supply of water is urgently necessary and has been repeatedly pressed by the Chief Officer of the Fire Brigade, no satisfactory arrangements have yet been made. Gas lighting in Cossipore-Chitpore is possible only because of the arrangements made in Calcutta, and it is only as an extension of the city system that any development of tramways in Cossipore-Chitpore can be hoped for. The present city of Calcutta and the municipalities of Cossipore-Chitpore and Maniktala form really one organic whole, and it is only by approaching from the standpoint of this organic unity the difficult problems of sanitation, drainage, water-supply, housing accommodation and communications, all of which will require expert knowledge and control, which only a central authority can provide, that the present wants of the large aggregation of population in these areas can be satisfied and their future interests safeguarded.

4. The Committee appointed by Government to consider the question of amalgamation turned down the proposal, mainly on the ground that the financial position of the municipality is one of considerable strength, that a drainage scheme is under preparation, and with its rapidly growing income it is not improbable that the municipality will be able to carry out this scheme within the next few years, and that in view of the present financial position of the Corporation and the burden which will be thrown on them by the amalgamation of Manicktala, it is doubtful whether they will find it possible to carry out any scheme of improvement in Cossipore-Chitpore within the next few years. We desire to point out that it is a far cry between the preparation of a scheme of drainage and its actual execution, and the mere fact of the Cossipore-Chitpore Municipality having a drainage scheme under preparation affords very little ground for satisfaction or hope. A very rough estimate prepared by the Corporation engineers places the estimate for draining two-thirds of Cossipore-Chitpore at Rs. 36 lakhs, including half the cost of a combined outfall for both Maniktala and Cossipore-Chitpore. The arrangements in connection with the water-supply are estimated to cost about Rs. 15 lakhs for the two municipalities; it may be taken at half this figure for Cossipore-Chitpore. These two schemes alone will entail a capital outlay of half a crore, which will in turn will involve an annual recurring expenditure of 4½ lakhs in interest and sinking fund charges. The total income of Cossipore-Chitpore in 1921-22, exclusive of the opening balance of about Rs. 1¾ lakhs and certain special receipts, was Rs. 5,42,000, and even making every allowance for future growth of income, we are convinced that the municipality will not be in a position to undertake this capital outlay. As to the position of the Corporation, whatever difficulty there may be is only temporary, owing to their having on hand a large scheme for improving the water-supply; but we understand that this scheme will cost considerably less than the original estimates, by reason of the Corporation having let certain contracts at very favourable rates, and the saving effected will provide the outlay required for Cossipore-Chitpore. Further, the revenues of the Corporation are rapidly expanding, and they have an ample margin of borrowing power with which they can easily finance the loans required for improving Cossipore-Chitpore.

5. Another argument which is urged against amalgamation is that, with all the drawbacks in Cossipore-Chitpore, the death rate there is lower than is Calcutta. In our opinion the comparison is altogether fallacious, as owing to the special facilities available in Calcutta, people from all parts of Bengal come to the city for treatment and help to swell the vital statistics. A detailed analysis of the vital statistics of Calcutta to refute the above argument would be out of place here, and we would therefore only point out that in a big industrial and railway centre like Calcutta there are special factors which affect the mortality rates and which are quite unconnected with the general sanitary condition of the town. Further, a large part of the population of Cossipore-Chitpore consists of mill hands and labourers, who generally leave the place and go to their villages up-country when they get sick or become old and unfit for work. It would therefore be altogether wrong to deduce from the lower death rate of Cossipore-Chitpore that it is healthier than Calcutta, a conclusion which is contrary to actual facts and to almost universal testimony.

6. We are convinced that it would be a short-sighted policy to leave out Cossipore-Chitpore which, as in the case of the Added Area 34 years ago, is bound to be included, in its own interest, in Calcutta at no distant date. The only result of its exclusion now will be that when it comes to be taken over a considerably larger amount of expenditure will have to be incurred by the Corporation to undo the mischief that will be done in the interval. The only way to avoid this unnecessary waste of money, and to keep the cost of improvements within reasonable limits is to amalgamate it now with the Corporation.

We recommend therefore that Cossipore-Chitpore should also be included in Calcutta, subject, as in the case of Maniktala, to a statutory limit of expenditure on improvements. The area may be divided into three wards and be allotted 5 seats (i.e., 3 general and 2 Muhammadan seats) as recommended by the Corporation, the total number of Councillors and Aldermen constituting the Corporation being correspondingly increased.

No. 157P.H.—The 29th January 1923.—In exercise of the power conferred by section 290 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884 (Bengal Act III of 1884), the Government of Bengal (Ministry of Local Self-Government) make the following rules subject to which the Commissioners of the Krishnagar

Municipality may allow communication-pipes to be laid down from the service-pipes of the Commissioners for the purpose of leading water to permises for domestic purposes only :—

Rules.

So long as the Commissioners deem it practicable and consistent with the maintenance of an efficient water-supply, they may allow any owner or occupier of a holding paying a water rate imposed under the provisions of Part VII of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884, on the annual value of such holding, when such annual value is not less than Rs. 100, to lay down communication-pipes from the service-pipes of the Commissioners for the purpose of leading water to such holding for domestic purposes only, subject to the following rules and conditions :

Provided that no connection shall be allowed to holdings other than masonry buildings without the sanction of the Commissioners at a meeting :—

1. The owner or occupier of any holding requiring water to be laid on to such holding for domestic purposes, or requiring any addition or alteration to an existing water-supply, must apply for the same on a printed form to be supplied, free of cost, at the municipal office.

2. A fee of Rs. 100 must be paid to the Commissioners by such owner or occupier for each connection to a municipal main supply pipe or a common communication-pipe laid in accordance with rule 3 before any work is commenced, such fee to be in addition to all other costs and charges imposed under these rules.

3. Except as provided below each holding must have a separate connection to the municipal main supply-pipe, and extensions from the communication-pipe of one holding to another holding shall not be permitted :

Provided that with the consent of the Commissioners in meeting connections to two or more holdings may be permitted from a common communication-pipe. Any such communication-pipe must be laid in a street or common passage, and a stop-cock and meter as provided for in rule 7 must be fixed on the connection to each holding :

Provided also that no holding shall have more than one separate connection, but if in any case the Commissioners are satisfied that an adequate supply to any holding cannot be given through a single connection, they may sanction a second connection thereto.

4. The owner or occupier of the holding in respect of which the connection is required must pay the entire cost of the connection, including the supply and fixing of the fittings referred to in rule 7, and must also pay the cost of such alterations in, or repairs to, roads, drains, sewers, gas or water-mains or pipes, and the cost of such other works as may be necessitated by, or result from, the work of making such connection.

5. The owner or occupier of the holding to which a connection has been given must at any time, on receipt of notice to do so from the Commissioners, pay the entire cost of any repairs or alterations to the connection or any part thereof that the Commissioners may consider necessary to put it into a satisfactory condition or which may be necessitated by any change in the municipal water-works or system of distribution or by the defective condition of the connection or any part thereof or by any other cause whatever.

6. (1) The works required under rules 4 and 5 may, at the option of the Commissioners, either be carried out by the Commissioners themselves at the expense of the owner or occupier of the holding in respect of which the works are required, or may be carried out by a person or firm employed by such owner or occupier and approved by the Commissioners.

(2) No work shall be carried out under sub-rule (1) except under the supervision of a municipal officer.

7. A holding connection shall comprise the following parts of fittings :—

(a) a brass or gun-metal ferrule inserted in the main supply-pipe ;

(b) a galvanized iron communication-pipe from the ferrule to the meter ;

(c) a stop-cock and its surface box ;

(e) service-pipes from the stop-cock to the taps ; and

8. (1) All the fittings referred to in rule 7 shall be exact duplicates of standard samples kept in the office of the Commissioners, and approved by them in meeting.

(2) All fittings shall be inspected and tested and stamped by an officer of the municipality before being fixed.

(3) If any owner or occupier shall desire to adopt any fitting of a pattern different from the standard patterns he must present such fitting for the approval of the Chairman, and any fittings so presented may, if considered satisfactory by the Chairman, be stamped, and samples thereof may be purchased and placed among the standard fittings.

9. The holding connection, when fitted in position, must be capable of standing a pressure of 40 feet, and no water shall be supplied until it has stood such a test applied by the Commissioners.

10. The size of the ferrule and the diameter of the communication-pipe referred to in clauses (a) and (b) of rule 7, and the number of taps shall be fixed in accordance with the annual valuation of the holdings as follows:

11. (1) On every communication-pipe a brass or gun-metal stop-cock having the same water-way as such pipe shall be placed as near as practicable to the point where that pipe enters the holding to be supplied.

(2) The stop-cock shall be built in a brick chamber provided with a cast-iron surface cover-box so designed that it can be locked and the key of this box shall remain under the control of the Chairman.

(3) The stop-cock shall be capable of adjustment so that the supply to the holding may be regulated thereby.

12. (1) The meter shall be placed as near to the stop-cock as possible and in a position where it can be conveniently examined.

(2) The meter must be fixed in a brick chamber covered over with a cast-iron surface box of approved pattern.

13. Neither the stop-cock nor the meter must be placed in any private premises.

14. The Commissioners shall depute an authorized person to read every meter not less than once a quarter, and shall give notice to the occupier at least twenty-four hours before the reading is recorded.

15. (1) Every owner or occupier of any holding, in respect of which a connection has been made, under these rules, shall be entitled to a supply of—

(a) if the holding is unoccupied;

(b) if the occupier refuses to admit any officer duly empowered in that behalf into the holding for the purpose of making any examination or inspection authorized under this Act, or under any by-law or rule framed under this Act, or prevents such officer from making such examination or inspection;

(c) if the owner or occupier of the holding touches or interferes with his meter in any way except with the permission of the Chairman, or wilfully injures or damages it ;

(d) if the owner or occupier of the holding wilfully or negligently permits waste of water in such volume as will, in the opinion of the Chairman endanger the water-supply in the neighbourhood ;

(e) if the owner or occupier of the holding shall refuse or neglect to pay any of the fees or charges imposed in accordance with these rules for a space of fourteen days after he has been served with a notice of demand for the same ;

(f) if the owner or occupier of the holding constructs or fixes any cisterns, tanks, reservoirs, taps, pipes or any other works in connection with the water-supply not authorized by these rules ;

(g) if the pipes, taps, ball-cocks, cisterns, or any other parts of the connection are, in the opinion of the Commissioners at a meeting, in a leaking condition or a state of disrepair :

In the circumstances contemplated in clause (d) an officer authorized by the Commissioners in this behalf by a general order shall have the power to turn off the supply for a period not exceeding eight hours on his previously recording his reason in writing.

17. Every tap shall be of the same size as the pipe to which it is attached and shall be of brass and of the pattern known as "Screw-down." Every tap shall be at least 3 feet above the surface of the ground beneath.

18. No cistern, tank or reservoir of any description which is intended to be supplied with water from the municipal water-works shall be permitted to any holding except with the sanction of the Commissioners in meeting, and such sanction shall distinctly specify the dimensions and capacity of the cistern, tank or reservoir allowed. The inlet to every such cistern, tank or reservoir must be controlled by an efficient ball-cock so that the discharge thereinto is completely stopped when the cistern, tank or reservoir is full. Any taps fed from such cistern, tank or reservoir must be included in the number of taps allowed under rule 10.

19. No connection shall be permitted to any holding unless and until the owner or occupier makes effective provision to the satisfaction of the Commissioners for draining all waste water away.

INDIAN ARMS RULES COMMITTEE.

REPORT.

Introductory.—A resolution was moved in the Assembly on the 8th of February 1922 by Baba Ujagar Singh Bedi, to the effect that a Committee with a non-official majority should be appointed by the Governor General in Council to examine the new Arms Rules, 1920, and to submit a report before the next session making specific recommendations with a view further to amend them. The Resolution was carried and was accepted by the Governor General in Council subject to adherence to the principles, (1) that there should be no racial discriminations in the rules, and (2) that the Government must retain the power to impose restrictions to prevent arms and particularly firearms from falling into the possession of lawless or dangerous persons. In accordance with the instructions contained in Resolution No. F.-57-1-Police, dated the 1st June 1922, we have examined the Arms Rules, 1920, and submit our recommendations to the Government of India for such action as they think desirable.

2. Our conclusions have been reached after an exhaustive examination of the views of local Governments, the recommendations of the Committee appointed in 1919 to advise as to the principles on which the rules should be framed, and a larger number of memoranda submitted to us by various members of the public many of which were sent in response to a general invitation issued by the Government of India to those interested in the subject under discussion to communicate their views to Government for the information of the Committee. We have examined orally 13 official and 16 non-official witnesses including representatives of the army and the trade, whose evidence was taken in public of which much has already appeared in the columns of the press. We commenced our sessions in the month of July and spent ten days in recording evidence. We were unable to conclude our work then and for unavoidable reasons were compelled to postpone our deliberations until the September Session of the Legislature. For this reason there has been some delay in the submission of our report.

3. Exemptions.—We propose to deal first with the question of the retention, extension, or contraction of the list of exemptions. Their total abolition has been advocated generally as a counsel of perfection, and the majority of the Committee would prefer this course if it were practicable. Local Governments, however, are of opinion that at this stage the entire abolition of exemptions would create grave dissatisfaction amongst the classes hitherto exempted and would be unwise and inexpedient. With this conclusion the majority of the Committee are in agreement. A large number of non-official Indians both in their oral evidence and in their written memoranda maintain that the Schedule of Exemptions should be enlarged. After careful consideration of the views put before us and after examining in detail the entries in Schedule 1 we are of opinion that the existing list of exemptions contained in that Schedule is imperfect in some respects and we make the following recommendations regarding it :—

Under entry 1 (a) we would include Ministers and Members of the Imperial Legislature during their terms of office and Privy Councillors. The Committee by a majority do not recommend a similar concession to Members of the Provincial Legislatures.

In regard to entries 6 (d), 6 (f), (i) and 6 (g) we doubt whether the terms Great Sardars or Zamindars are sufficiently precise and we do not know what interpretation is placed upon them by the local Governments concerned, namely the Punjab, the United Provinces and the Central Provinces. We therefore recommend that enquiries should be made from these local Governments whether they maintain lists of these categories, whom they include, and whether they are sufficiently elastic. It has been represented to us that in some cases gentlemen who are in fact big Zamindars are excluded because they are not on the provincial Durbar List. If this is so, we think that it is an undesirable restriction. We are further of opinion that due regard should also be paid to lineage and family position and the lists revised accordingly. If such lists of exemptions under this entry are not maintained we recommend that they should be prepared after the terms in question have been more precisely defined. We append a note by our colleague, Baba Ujagar Singh Bedi, making certain suggestions in this connection which we think may suitably be placed before the local Governments concerned for consideration.

Entry No. 7.—We were impressed with the evidence of Khan Bahadur Muhammad Saifullah Khan, Khan of Isa Khel, who explained that the proviso in column 3 rendered this privilege to a large extent ineffective, and we accordingly recommend the removal of the proviso. We are also of opinion that the same privilege should be extended to the districts of Campbellpur, Rawalpindi and any other district adjoining the North-West Frontier Province which are exposed to raids and dacoities unless the local Government take exception to this course.

Entries 11, 11 (a) and 11 (b).—We consider that it is unnecessary to retain these exemptions in the actual Schedule of exemptions. These items were included with a view to protecting what may be termed the vested rights of the classes named on the 1st of January 1920, and we are of opinion that these rights should continue to be protected. We therefore recommend that all the present exemptees in the entries 11, 11 (a) and 11 (b) should be granted a life license conferring on them the same privileges in respect of arms exempted from license and fee which they now possess. The majority of the Committee do not recommend that this privilege should be extended to title holders who received titles after the 1st of January 1920.

Entry 13.—We recommend that an addition should be made to provide for the gift of swords or other arms by the Commander-in-Chief or on his behalf. A similar addition should also be made in Schedule II, entry 3 (vii). Our colleague, Baba Ujagar Singh Bedi, has pointed out that some confusion exists in regard to entry 11 (d) and entry 13. He considers that it should be made clear that entry 13 relates only to those who were presented with swords and arms after 1920. This follows as a matter of course if our recommendations are accepted, as entries 11, 11 (a) and 11 (b) will be omitted, and entry 13 will be renumbered. We are content to leave this point of drafting to the special officer who, we propose, should be appointed for the purpose of redrafting the rules.

4. We considered the proposal that all stipendiary and honorary magistrates should be included in the list of exemptions; but we are of opinion that a firearm cannot be regarded as a necessary part of the equipment of a magistrate as such and are unable to recommend this. The case of the police is sufficiently met by the fact that a revolver is already a part of the equipment of police officers above the rank of head constable. While in our view it is reasonable that all Government servants who in the opinion of the local Government require arms for the adequate discharge of their duty should be exempt from the payment of fees, we cannot recommend that all Government servants should be included in Schedule I among the exempted classes.

5. In the case of all exemptees we consider it of the highest importance that they should register all the arms they have in their possession, and we recommend that registration should be compulsory. In regard to the limit imposed by certain local Governments on the number of arms which may be possessed we have no evidence that such restrictions are irksome and indeed from the rules we have seen we are convinced that the scale allowed is generous. We therefore recommend no interference with the restrictions at present imposed by local Governments on the number and kind of arms which can be possessed by exempted persons. It follows that we do not recommend a fixed scale which shall be uniform throughout India. Conditions vary in different provinces and under the rules framed by the various local Governments exemptees can carry as many weapons as they reasonably require for purpose of protection or other legitimate purposes.

6. A proposal has been put before us that the power of cancelling individual exemptions should be given to local Governments. We consider that the existing rules by which this power is vested in the Governor General in Council should remain.

7. Our colleagues Mr. Bajpai, Mr. Reddi and Mr. Faiyaz Khan favour the adoption of a system by which licenses should be issued without restriction to all applicants on payment of the prescribed fee save in the case of undesirable persons specified in a list kept for the purpose. This proposal, however, does not commend itself to the majority of the Committee, who regard it as entirely outside the scope of practical politics. It is not only exposed to the objections we have urged to the total abolition of exemptions, but is open to the serious criticism that a suitable or proper classification of undesirable persons would be impossible.

8. Entitled Class.—We next come to the entitled class. The evidence on the question whether licenses are often withheld from those who belong to this class is divided, but we would recommend removal of restrictions in two directions. In our view eligibility to be included in the entitled class should be considerably extended, and the existing procedure in the matter of enquiry is susceptible of material relaxation. As to the eligibility we recommend that the payment of Rs. 500 land revenue, Rs. 100 in roads and public works cesses, any payment of income-tax and, in the case of a Government servant, receipt of a pay of Rs. 100 a month and over should be sufficient qualification. In the case of the Punjab, Madras and the Central Provinces we suggest that enquiry should be made whether the limit of land revenue should not be Rs. 250 instead of Rs. 500. Further the heads of Joint Hindu families should be included in this class, and the adult brothers and sons of entitled persons living jointly with them should be similarly regarded as belonging to it. As to the relaxation of the procedure of enquiry we think that lists of entitled persons should be maintained and that any member of the entitled class applying for a license should be granted one immediately without enquiry unless the District Magistrate has some definite reason to think that the applicant is an unfit person, in which case he may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, refuse the grant of a license or cause enquiry to be made: in cases of refusal we would recognize a right of revision by the Commissioner or some officer of equal status nominated in this behalf by the local Government. In the existing rules no mention is made of the entitled class, the principles regarding it being contained in a Resolution of the Government of India No. 2125-C.-Police, dated the 21st March 1919. We are of opinion that it would be more satisfactory to the general public if the provisions regarding the entitled class with the modifications we suggest were embodied in the rules, and we strongly recommend that this should be done.

9. Licenses.—We have given careful consideration to the various questions which arise in connection with the grant of licenses, especially licenses for the possession of arms. Complaints have been made to us regarding the administration, in practice, of the Rules, especially as regards the delays in dealing with applications the irksome nature of the enquiries sometimes instituted, the difficulty of securing renewal of licenses already granted, and in the difference in the restrictions imposed by the various local Governments. Indeed we are constrained to place it on record that in our opinion the vigorous criticism which has been directed against the Arms Rules in some quarters is due not so much to inherent defects in the rules themselves as to the method in which they have been put into practice. We have therefore given our particular attention to methods of improving the executive machinery.

10. Enquiry.—We have referred above to the unnecessary inconvenience caused in some respects to would-be license holders by reason of the delay in issuing licenses We recognise that this delay is frequently caused by the necessity for making enquiries about the fitness of a person to possess a weapon, and while we do not recommend that enquiry can be dispensed with in every case, we believe that the present practice by which enquiries are almost entirely carried out by the police is open to objection by the public and should as far as possible be abandoned. We suggest that in any case in which a previous enquiry is necessary, particularly in cases of entitled persons, the District Magistrate should make it, if possible, by any agency, official or non-official, he may choose other than the police, and whenever possible, through a Magistrate. In any case in which it is found necessary to have an enquiry made through the agency of a police officer we are strongly of opinion that a license should not be refused merely on the strength of the report of such an officer alone but that the District Magistrate should order a magisterial enquiry also before coming to a final decision.

11. Limitation of number of Licenses.—In some provinces we have found that the custom obtains of limiting the number of licenses issued. We have even found that the practice of individual District Magistrates in the same province varies. Any arbitrary limitation of the number of licenses issued in a district or province may clearly lead to the refusal of a license to a fit and proper person and we can see no justification for the adoption, save in exceptional circumstances, of this practice. In our view the normal practice should be that no limit should be placed on the number of licenses which may be issued in any district or province. We recognise, however, that circumstances may arise in which a rapid increase in the number of arms in a particular area may be fraught with danger and we think it advisable that local Governments should have discretionary power, without being compelled to resort to the extreme measure of disarming, to limit the number of arms in any area or district if there is reason to apprehend serious danger from the free grant of licenses and if such restriction is necessary for the maintenance of the public tranquillity.

12. Revision and Prosecution.—We would recognise a right of revision in the case of refusal to grant a license, but we would not disturb the existing rule which requires the sanction of the District Magistrate to a prosecution.

13. Duration of License.—The period covered by the license varies in different provinces, but we recommend that it should now be the Calendar year. The scale of fees is discussed in paragraph 21 below. Persons should be allowed as at present to take licenses for three years on payment of a composition fee. We gather this rule is not widely known at present, and we think it would be desirable that the necessary steps should be taken to ensure its publicity.

14. Temporary Licenses.—In some quarters the criticism has been made that persons desirous of purchasing a weapon are put to inconvenience because they cannot produce the weapon when applying for the license necessary for its possession, and it was therefore recommended that a temporary license should be given to cover such purchase pending the grant of a license for possession. We do not agree with this, and in our view a permanent license should be issued at the time the applicant applies for a license and the number and description of the weapons purchased should be filled in by the firms from whom the purchase is made and communicated by them to the District Magistrate concerned. In this matter a uniform practice should be adopted throughout India.

15. Licenses for persons arriving by Sea.—Another instance in which the present system has been shown to operate to the inconvenience of the license holders or would-be license holders is that of persons arriving at Bombay, Madras or Calcutta, etc., by sea, who are not in possession of licenses and are therefore compelled to deposit their weapons with their agents or in the Customs House until a regular license can be obtained. We therefore recommend that customs and police officers should be permitted to issue a temporary license for fourteen days on payment of the full fee, a receipt being given to the licensee. On receipt of the proper license from the authority empowered to issue the same no further fee should be payable.

16. Loss of weapons.—We attach some importance to the stricter enforcement of condition 7 of the conditions under which a license for the possession of arms and ammunition is granted. It has been suggested to us that the procedure in the case of failure to report the loss of firearms should be tightened up. But we are of opinion that the contingency is provided for by the conditions of the license, and all that is required is its more rigid enforcement. We recommend, however, that the license should also specify the penalty laid down in the Act for breaches of this or any of the conditions under which the license is granted.

17. Crop Protection Licenses.—The question of a freer issue of crop protection licenses was raised by a number of witnesses. The evidence given by official witnesses goes to prove that crop protection licenses are issued freely, but in some cases conditions are imposed such as annual production of evidence of the purpose for which the license is required, before renewal is granted. We recommend the freer issue of such licenses and particularly on applications by or recommendations of landlords who are well acquainted with the local conditions and the extent to which damage is done to crops by wild animals.

18. Form of license.—We have been impressed with the fact that licenses are frequently granted on flimsy paper which quickly perishes, and we recommend the universal adoption of the Calcutta form. There the license is printed on stout paper, and is enclosed in covers such as are used in the case of passports. To the license a leaflet of instructions, in the vernacular of the province or in English at the option of the licensee, should be annexed. These instructions should indicate the procedure laid down for the renewal of the license and the restrictions to which the licensee is subject. In this matter we plead for uniformity throughout India. It has been suggested that the all-India, the provincial, and the district license forms should bear distinctive marks, and a different colour for each has been proposed. We do not regard this suggestion as of vital importance, but pass it on to the Government of India for consideration.

19. Single License.—A single license form should be used for all the weapons licensed and not a separate license for each arm. We have found diversity of practice in the different provinces in this respect and we recommend that there should be uniformity.

20. Renewal of Licenses.—As regards the renewal of licenses we are of opinion that the existing procedure is susceptible of improvement. We see no reason why when a license has once been issued, it should be necessary for a District Magistrate to sanction renewal. The licensee may have changed his district or he may live in an inaccessible locality. The inconvenience then caused is considerable and easily avoidable. We therefore recommend that licenses should be renewed by any Magistrate or an Subdivisional Magistrate in the district in which the licensee is residing or in any other district in which he is known. In the case of a renewal of a license in a district other than that in which the license was originally issued we recommend that the original license should be renewed and the authority which issued the original license supplied with information of renewal. The production of firearms should not in our opinion be a precedent condition to the renewal of a license.

21. Fees.—In regard to the scale of fees we find that there are indications that the present fees are regarded as too high (except for a provincial license in the North-West Frontier Province) especially in the case of breech-loading guns. We recommend the following scale in all provinces (except for provincial or district licenses in the North-West Frontier Province and possibly frontier districts of the Punjab) :—

Initial fee.—Revolver, Rs. 10; Rifle, Rs. 5; Breech-Loading Gun and ·22 bore Rifle, Rs. 3; Muzzle Loading Gun or Air Gun requiring a license, annas 12; the enhancement of the fee from annas 8 to annas 12 being intended to meet the cost of the improved and more expensive form of license. The fees on renewal should be reduced and we recommend that they should be respectively Rs. 5, 2-8, 1-8 and annas 8; but if renewal applications are not made within a month after the expiry of the period covered by the license we recommend that it should be open to the District Magistrate in lieu of prosecution to levy the initial fee in full. No reduction of fee on account of composition is required.

Payment of fees should be by non-judicial stamp and applicants should be allowed to send their applications for licenses or renewal of licenses by post.

Exemption from Fees.—As stated earlier in our report all Government servants, who are, in the opinion of their local Government, required to possess arms for the adequate discharge of their duty and all members of the Auxiliary and Territorial Forces should be permitted to possess two arms without payment of fees. Exemptees should as at present pay no fees and those who will, if our recommendations are accepted, receive a life license should similarly pay no fees for the arms which they are entitled to possess. We consider that the question of the extended issue of firearms free of fee in the North-West Frontier Province and Frontier districts should be carefully examined by the local authorities and we strongly recommend that, subject to such enquiries, action on these lines should be taken. We sympathise with the view of the arms dealers that the existence of a separate fee for a license for import into India and transport to destination is a distinct hardship, and in our opinion there should be a single fee only.

22. Restriction on limit of possession of Ammunition.—Under the rules no limits are placed on the amount of ammunition which may be possessed; but local Governments have themselves imposed limitations. From the evidence before us we consider that these restrictions are in some cases unnecessary and calculated to inconvenience the bona fide sportsman. A uniform procedure in this respect is desirable throughout India, and we accordingly recommend that no limit of ammunition should be fixed in the case of shot guns or ·22 bore or target rifles. In the case of revolvers we recommend a limit of 100 rounds and in the case of rifles a limit of 200 rounds per rifle. Any person who can prove that he needs more than 100 rounds for a revolver or 200 rounds for a rifle should be given a license for a large number. At the time of the purchase of revolver and rifle ammunition the license should, in our judgment, be produced. We are also of opinion that measures should be taken to facilitate the export of arms and ammunition to persons residing in feudatory states.

23. All-India Licenses and more expeditious procedure.—We have discussed in some detail questions affecting the issue of licenses because we feel that the public have legitimate grievances, and we believe that improvements can be effected for their benefit without in any way impairing the efficiency of the Arms Act administration. We desire now to make two proposals which we think may have material effect in allaying whatever dissatisfaction may remain. In the first place, we recommend that the issue of all-India licenses should be as unrestricted as possible and should be generally encouraged, and that certainly every member of the entitled class to whom a license is not refused should get an all-India license if he desires it. Further, we see no sufficient reason why Assam and Burma should be excluded from the all-India license and would recommend their inclusion. In this connection we also recommend with reference to entry No. 1 in Schedule II that enquiry should be made from the Punjab, Burma, North-West Frontier Province and Delhi whether the retention of these provinces in column 1 is really required and whether the power given in column 3 is not sufficient to meet all reasonable requirements. Secondly we strongly advocate greater expedition in dealing with applications for licenses and renewals. We have dwelt already on the possible inconvenience caused to the public. With the object of remedying the existing state of affairs it has been proposed that in each district a special department or a local advisory board should be established to deal exclusively with matters connected with the administration of the Arms Act. We are not in favour of the establishment of such a department or board, as the result would probably be even greater delay than at present, but we recommend that local Governments should be asked to issue instructions to district officers that they should appoint additional staff when necessary to deal expeditiously with applications for licenses and renewals, when applications are received in such numbers that the District Magistrate is not able to deal with them promptly with his ordinary staff.

24. Points of detail.—We now come to a number of miscellaneous points of detail and we propose merely to give a brief record of our conclusions.

25. Restrictions on Revolvers.—It has been suggested by the military authorities that the restrictions on the possession of revolvers should be tightened up. We recognise that the unrestricted possession of revolvers might be a menace to the public tranquillity; nevertheless, we do not recommed any tightening up of the existing restrictions which seem to the adequate. At any rate they have not been shown to have failed. The existing restrictions should, however, remain.

26. Revolvers of ·303 and ·450 bore.—Enquiry has been made whether the import into India of ·303 bore revolvers should be prohibited. The military authorities see no necessity for the prohibition and we do not recommend it. There are, however, good reasons why the import of ·450 bore revolvers which take service ammunition should be prohibited, and we recommend that such prohibition should be included in the rules.

27. Rifles of prohibited bore.—In regard to rifles of prohibited bore, we recommend that no prohibition is necessary in the case of those rifles for which service ammunition cannot be used and the ammunition of which cannot be used for service rifles, but we make this recommendation subject to any objections which the military authorities may wish to place before the Government of India.

28. Import of Arms through Post.—It has been suggested that the import of arms should be permitted through the post office, but we think any general rule such as this would be dangerous, and accordingly we are opposed to the adoption of this practice.

29. Retainers.—The rules regarding retainers have been represented as inadequate, but no specific instances of hardship have been brought to our notice, and we are of opinion that no change is required.

30. Carrying of arms on journeys by female members of licensee's family.—A proposal was made to us that licenses granted to the head of a family should be held to cover the carrying of arms by dependent members of the family, particularly in the case of adult female members travelling alone. We are of opinion that the acceptance of this principle in such general terms might be dangerous. We think, however, that there is much to be said for the wife of a licensee being permitted to carry a weapon for purposes of protection on a railway journey, and we recommend that to this extent the proposal should be accepted.

31. Sale by Agents.—We agree that the practice hitherto followed by licensed dealers of employing assistants to conduct their business in their temporary absence should continue, and that it is unnecessary to take further steps to legalise it.

32. Reciprocity with Indian States.—As regards reciprocity with Indian States, it has been proposed that reciprocal arrangements should be made in all matters connected with arms administration. We recognise that unrestricted reciprocity is clearly impossible. Some States have no Arms Act or Rules, and in others the administration of their rules proceeds on different lines from those which obtain in British India. We could not with equanimity contemplate a large number of persons from Indian States coming into British India in possession of arms on the ground that they are exempted in their State. On the other hand our exemptions provide for the exemption in British India of a number of high officials belonging to Indian States, and we therefore recommend that the Government of India should endeavour to secure reciprocal arrangements with any State which can satisfy the Government of India that they have properly administered Arms Rules.

33. District Authorities, Karachi.—We recommend that the same power be given to the Commissioner in Sind and the District Magistrate, Karachi, in respect of the grant of licenses for the export of arms and ammunition to Indian States by dealers in Karachi as are at present possessed by particular officers named in Schedule VI in respect of arms exported from elsewhere in India.

34. Appointment of a Special Officer to revise the Arms Rules.—We have not considered a number of technical points and minor errors and omissions in the existing Rules to which reference has been made in the correspondence or the evidence we have examined. Our object has not been so much to revise the Arms Rules from the point of view of draftsmanship as to suggest improvements which will benefit the public. As regards the technical defects of draftsmanship we are not qualified to express an opinion nor is it our duty to do so. We recommend, however, that an officer might profitably be placed on special duty to redraft the Rules, in the light of the recommendations made in this report and that an expert from the trade should be invited to assist him. In our opinion it would enable the ordinary license holder to get a grasp of the Rules which are of importance to him, namely, those relating to the issue and renewal of licenses, the fees payable, and the restrictions imposed, if these Rules were issued in a self-contained section. The Rules as they stand are very confusing and are so comprehensive that the average licensee finds it difficult to disentangle those which concern him from those which are in the nature of technical instructions.

APPENDIX.

BOTHWELL LODGE,
Simla.
September 20th, 1922.

SIR,

As suggested by the Arms Rules Committee to elicit opinions of certain Provinces on Schedule I of the Arms, Rules, 1920, for which the Punjab Government have also been called upon to submit their view regarding clause (d), section 6, of Schedule I; in which connection I was also asked to suggest some definition which might be helpful to the Punjab Government in their this effort.

I may be permitted to submit the following few suggestions which might be taken into account both by the Punjab Government as well as the Government of India, before giving it a legal shape.

Although the Punjab Government has defined the Great Sardars and Jagirdars of the Punjab as those who are Provincial Durbaris, yet it seems to me that there is no well-defined criterion which governs the creating and selecting of Durbaris. It entirely rests with the arbitrary choice and recommendation of District Magistrates. Hence the definition is not for Great Sardars and Jagirdars.

There may be certain Provincial Durbaris who may be regarded as Great Sardars and Jagirdars and yet may not be paying such high revenues as are paid by, or bearing such traditional qualifications as are enjoyed by, those who are neither Provincial Durbaris nor regarded as Great Sardars and Jagirdars by the Punjab Government.

Therefore it has become imperative that a comprehensive definition should be provided for in the Law.

Not even to ignore the idea of the Punjab Government, let Provincial Durbaris be regarded as Great Sardars and Jagirdars.

But over and above that, it may be pointed out that although the evidence given by the non-official witnesses from the Punjab and also certain other Provinces presses Rs. 500 as annual land revevue as definition of Great Sardars and Jagirdars, yet to make it more restricted I beg to propose that a man whose land is assessed to land revenue of Rupees one thousand annually, or at the most Rs. 1,500, or is a Jagirdar of the same value, and is also from the Punjab Chiefs Family, in both cases, may also be regarded as a Great Sardar and Jagirdar within the meaning of the clause referred to above.

Might I here elucidate the matter : the Punjab Government itself has considered the highest value of the revenue tax-payer to be Rs. 1,000 as given in the Electoral Rules to qualify a person as an elector to Landholders' Constituency in the Punjab for the Legislative Assembly and that is the highest limit in the Punjab.

It is therefore obvious that such revenue payers in the Punjab are very limited in their number. The definition that I have given above will remove the trouble.

There seems no reason why the persons who come of high families of the Punjab Chiefs and are Jagirdars and still pay high revenues are excluded from this privilege and merely persons picked up by the sweet will of District Magistrates should alone be and are regarded as Great Sardars and Jagirdars.

I presume that I have made the point clear, and that it will invite the attention of the Government : and I may be informed at an early date of the decision which may be arrived at by them.

Yours sincerely,
BABA UJAGAR SINGH BEDI,
M. L. A.

To The President, Arms Rules Committee, Simla.

I think that in view of the fact that land-revenue in the Punjab is very low landlords paying Rs. 1,500 per annum as land-revenue in the Punjab may be exempted.

S. P. BAJPAI,
M. L. A.

While approving the view of my friend Mr. Bedi, I would also suggest to define the the word or expression 'Ancient zamindar' in Madras also.

M. K. REDDI,
M.L.A.

I agree with these views for Punjab.

H. A. J. GIDNEY.
ABUL KASEM.

For the reasons pointed out above I am of opinion that in the special circumstances of the Punjab landholders in the Punjab paying an annual land-revenue of Rs. 1,500 who are at the same time Punjab Chiefs should be exempted.

HARCHANDRAI.

Minute of dissent by Rai Bahadur S. P. Bajpai, M.L.A., Member, Arms Rules Committee.

Paragraph 7.

I do not agree with the majority of the Committee that my proposal to issue licenses to all applicants on the payment of the prescribed fee save in the case of undesirable persons specified in a list to be kept for the purpose is outside the range of practical politics. The policy of the Government of India in regard to the administration of Arms Rules has all along been a subject of hostile criticism in the country. It is urged that innumerable restrictions and limitations imposed on the possession of firearms have led to the emasculation of the Indian manhood. Those of us who were connected with the recruiting work during the Great War know with what difficulty recruits could be procured for combatant strength in the army. The reason is obvious. People in the interview who have seldom seen a breech-loading gun would hardly agree to become soldiers and fight in the trenches. I think it is not impossible to prepare a schedule of exclusions. The Police maintains a register of bad characters, and a list of persons convicted of heinous offences can be obtained from the office of the District Magistrate. Bad characters, persons convicted of heinous offences and members of criminal tribes may be excluded. I think the time has now come for the Government of India to take courage in both their hands and adopt my suggestion which, I believe, will not only disarm criticisms levelled in season and out of season against the Government but also prove a source of considerable strength to the British Empire in the hour of need.

Paragraph 3, entry 1 (a).

I think it is only fair that the members of the Provincial Legislatures should also be exempted. To me it appears an invidious distinction to exempt members of the Central Legislature and to deny the same privilege to Provincial Legislatures. After all a considerable body of both the Legislatures is drawn from the same class of citizens. This distinction, I am sure, will lead to considerable bitterness and heart-burning. I shall, therefore, recommend to the Government of India to exempt the members of Provincial Legislatures as well.

Entry 6 (g).

(a) In Oudh all Talukdars as such are exempt. Some of them pay nominal land revenue, while non-Taluqdar Zamindars to enjoy the privilege of exemption are required to pay twenty thousand rupees land revenue. I think with a view to feelings which are running very high with regard to the exemption of Zamindars in the Provinces of Agra and Oudh I shall suggest that all Zamindars who pay Rs. 3,000 or over as land revenue should be exempted. My recommendation coincides with the recommendation made by the United Provinces Landholders' Conference which met at Lucknow in July last.

(b) Heads of Joint Hindu families who pay Rs. 3,000 or upwards as land revenue should also be exempted and the adult male members on the analogy of the entitled class be considered as belonging to it.

Entries 11, 11 (a) and 11 (b).

I do not agree with the majority of the Committee in their recommendations to grant a life license to exemptees falling under these categories. I am not convinced that the removal of these entries from Schedule I will satisfy title-holders who received these distinctions after the year 1920. They will continue to feel that while their more fortunate brethren are exempt to all intents and purposes, they are called upon to apply for licenses. Most of the title-holders who received these decorations after 1920 feel that a rare privilege is denied to them.

Big landholders and a large number of title-holders have got large stakes in the country. I, therefore, see no reason why they should not be exempted. Consequently I recommend that entries 11, 11 (a) and 11 (b) should not only be retained but that all future title-holders, etc., should also be exempted.

Paragraph 4.

I do not agree with the majority of the Committee when they recommend that Magistrates, etc, should not be exempted. I think all Magistrates, stipendiary or honorary, honorary munsiffs and honorary Assistant Collectors should be exempted. Magistrates do need firearms to protect themselves when they are put in charge of processions, etc.

Paragraph 5.

I think it unnecessary to place restrictions on the number of fire-arms to be possessed by an exemptee. I shall, therefore, recommend that no restrictions be placed on the possession of firearms by exemptees who are almost always loyal and law-abiding citizens.

S. P. BAJPAI, M.L.A.,
Member, Arms Rules Committee.

SIMLA ;
The 27th September 1922.

Minute of dissent by Mr. Muhammad Faiyaz Khan, M.L.A., Member of the Arms Rules Committee.

I am sorry that I have disagreed on some points in the Arms Rules Revising Committee, which run as follows :—

(1) I do not agree on the ground of principle that the Members of the Imperial Legislature should be exempted from the operation of the Arms Act only so long as they continue to be the members. A person may not enjoy any concession, but if he does, he should not be deprived of it during his life-time, unless there is something to prove that he has become less trustworthy. A Member of the Imperial Legislature does not lose any part of his worth or his sense of responsibility by ceasing to be a member. Membership is only an apparent proof of a man's qualities, and his retirement does not involve any kind of turpitude at all. I therefore strongly hold that the Members of the Imperial Legislature should enjoy this privilege during their life-time.

(2) I fail to understand why the entitled class should only be based on money consideration. A person may not be a Government servant or may not be paying the prescribed sum to the Government as revenue or taxes, but still he may be as good or even a better citizen than many of the Government servants and those paying the prescribed sum to the Government as revenue or taxes. The Professor of a Communal College is an instance in point, who is neither a Government servant nor paying anything as tax. Again, the son or sons of a Zamindar may be thoroughly satisfactory men for keeping a weapon and still may not be paying any revenue or income tax in their name.

I really do not see why education be not also regarded as a sufficient qualification for coming under this class. Wealth may lead a man astray and may even bring him down to the position of a beast, but education alone is a sure agent for ennobling character. I would therefore suggest the inclusion of the following to the entitled class :—

(a) Barristers, Pleaders, Vakils of High Court of 5 years' standing ;

(b) Professors, Readers and Lecturers at Colleges affiliated to an Indian University;

(c) M. A.s ;

(d) B. A.s of seven years' standing ;

(3) It should be expressly provided in the Arms Act that the licenses will not be held back on the basis of the individual political views, and to those who come under entitled class will get their licences as a right and not as a favour. What justification was there for the forfeiture of licences and arms of such revered, noble and peace-loving citizens as Pandit Motilal Nehru, Lala Bhagwan Das, Khowaja Abdul Majid and S. Asif Ali, etc.? The refusal to issue or renew a licence to Indians of this position, though a proof of the "frame" being made of "steel", has the inevitable effect of lowering the prestige of the Government in the country. Big Zamindars and money-lenders paying a large revenue to the Government have been refused licences on the ground of their wearing "Khaddar."

On the refusal or the forfeiture of licences, I have received a good many letters from respectable people ; and the following are the copies of a few interesting letters in my possession which will reveal the methods sometimes adopted by some of the District Magistrates. A gentleman who is paying as much as rupees twenty-five thousand as Government revenue, who is also a Municipal Commissioner and the Secretary of an important orphanage and a girls' school, writes :

"The local officials are simply on account of the reason that I wear Khaddar in response to the country's call have forfeited my licence of arms. I do not know what justification there is, the licenses are being granted to my petty cultivators only if they say that they are the members of the Aman Sabha, but without giving any reason whatsoever they have done that against me, and together with me other very big and prominent Raises of........whose fathers and they themselves are held in great esteem for no reason apparent except to suit their own wishes.......... As far as I could ascertain and my knowledge goes the licences were introduced that undesirables should not get licences, and should not possess firearms, but every day experience will show that murders and dacoities are being committed every day and Budmashes never show in wanting, they always have it and people of my social status do not get a licence. We have to travel to go to our villages which are apart some 40 miles, and travel with that money unsafe absolutely at the mercy of robbers and all, and nothing to protect us. I hope you will do something to relieve the present situation in the country and save gentry from these Bureaucrats who are pleased with a few on flattery." In another letter the same gentleman, writes, "As regards myself, we are followers of Swadeshi and wear 'Khaddar,' I manage my estate, cases go to the courts, but certainly I am Congressman and so is my friend.......... But my friend........does not even wear Khaddar and still wears English suits though of course he has also committed the crime of being a Congressman."

But I will quote you a most important example that the licence of........had been forfeited, and the reason of this forfeiture I shall explain in full (instead of the explanation from the writer of this letter the very gentleman referred to in the above letter, wrote me the reason why his licence was forfeited, which runs as follows) : His name is.........

..., Rais and Talukdar of.........he is one of the very big landholders of the United Provinces and is a confirmed loyalist always dancing before the Collector and the Commissioner of...... so timid as afraid of wearing Khaddar because that displeases the officials, so he must wear Christy's cap.

Here is what he himself says about the reasons of the forfeiture of his licence. "The whole estate is in the name of my father who pays the revenue of about Rs. 5,000 to the Government, my father is supposed to be one of the big zamindars of this place, his name is........as he has practically retired from all worldly cares and anxieties, so I am carrying the whole business from the last six years, and hence the licences of firearms were in my name, which have been forfeited, and the forfeiture of arms has caused me very great inconvenience. I had to shift my residence from..............to............ permanently, as it was not quite safe at...........owing to the dacoities and robberies, though it is not quite safe over here too. I was never taking any part in politics, and why I was a prey of Bureaucrats. I shall explain to you in detail. The remote reasons of displeasure of the Bureaucrats was that when I was residing in...........a few Congress Volunteers came for subscriptions, and I also paid a sum but that was not the immediate cause of displeasure, I was serving as a Punch in the Tehsil of...........and I was called upon by the Collector to resign my seat from there, which as a gentleman I could not do so, as I had given my words that I will serve as a Punch for a month, this was the immediate cause of displeasure and he said that if you do not resign your seat from village "Panchayat" I shall forfeit your arms, and on my refusal the arms were forfeited. I at least was under the impression that Panchyats were no cause of displeasures to the Government, and on the other hand they were encouraged."

Another letter gives quite a different method adopted by a District Magistrate, which runs as follows :

"I have also a stubborn grievance against the licence regulations which seem to exist only in name. We are told that the reform scheme had given the honourable zamindars an opportunity to apply for licences for firearms such as rifles, revolvers, etc., but we have fully experienced the Reform Scheme to be dead letter. For this I may quote instances. I am a big landholder of......my father is paying a considerable Government revenue of Rs. 8,000. When I applied for the licence of a rifle in the Collectorate, the Collector disposed of the case to the Deputy Collector, and I was called and I appeared before him and he told me that if I gave Rs. 200 as a contribution to a Government fund I could be given the licence applied for. I plainly told him that I had already contributed a considerable amount and that this has no concern with the present matter, whereupon he said that if I were not ready to comply with his order, I should not insist for the said licence. Dismayed and embittered I left the court. Such measures I say can never compel us to co-operate. Leaving aloof my own case there are hundreds that will readily attract your attention. The whole district is seething with discontent on account of the severity in granting the licences. It is better that I do not quote more instances of the same nature." A cousin of the above writer also writes, "My case is a bit different because I have not been refused the licence of a pistol which I require, but I have every reason to preconclude that if I were to apply for it I should have been flatly refused. This statement of mine is not without foundation and validity, because my cousin who applied for the licence of a rifle was not given the licence he asked for. We are one of the greatest zamindars of our district, our family is paying Government revenue of Rs. 8,000 (the whole family jointly paying Rs. 25,000 Government revenue) and myself exclusively paying Rs. 2,000. We really regret that being supporters of British Raj we are not so much trusted as to allow us to keep firearms. These measures instead of creating amicable relations with the Government bring about the greatest breach of fair connection with the landholders."

The above are a few of the typical cases I have selected, and I would only like to give one more letter from a person holding a responsible Government post in judicial line, which will show how the other party thinks of the present arms rules. The letter runs as follows :

"As for the Arms Rules in my opinion either the exemptions should be totally abolished or Gazetted Officers of 1st class must be exempted. You can well imagine the anomaly that a common man who has been hanging at the coat-tails of a District Magistrate and thus becomes a Khan Bahadur prior to 1920 is exempted, whilst a sub-judge who is entrusted with the decision of the Rais cases of the value of crores is not........... In my opinion if enquiry is at all necessary it must be entrusted to a District Committee comprising of officials and non-officials and their decision should be binding."

Before I finish quoting examples let me quote one more recent amusing example of the decision of a queer District Magistrate. A leading practising Vakil in a District recently applied for a licence of a Double Barrel Breech Loading shot gun, and the licence was duly granted with the following note on the application :

"A licence for a Double Barrel Breech Loading gun for British India has been sanctioned in the name of the applicant, now he deposit the stamps for fee of the licence submitted for orders. The applicant is a pleader practising tn the District." After a month or so the gentleman happened to go and see the District Magistrate. No one knows what conversation was passed between them, but one can pretty accurately guess what conversation could have passed between these two, which led the District Magistrate to write the following amusing and entertaining remarks on his application. The remarks ran as follows: "Deposit meanwhile. I have seen the gentleman, who seems very uncertain whether he is an enemy of the established Government or not." Curiously one would like to know from the District Magistrate whether he himself is "the enemy of the established Government or not" because by forfeiting the licence of such a respectable gentleman, has he not sown the seed of hatred and discontent with the established Government? one who sows the seeds of discontent with the established Government, then who should be called the "enemy of the established Government, the Magistrate or the license?" There is one more and the last example of the misuse of the Arms Act by a District Magistrate which I would like to show, and I believe these examples to be enough to throw some light on the actual working of the Arms Act. A few months ago at Kashipore the shopkeepers observed Hartal on a particular day, the District Magistrate got enraged and issued an order of the forfeiture of the Arms of some of these shopkeepers who observed Hartal, and the order of the District Magistrate with the reply of the shopkeepers runs as follows:

Arms Act Rules.

A KASHIPUR CASE.

(From a Correspondent.)

True copies of the order of the Deputy Commissioner and the reply of nine gentlemen upon whom the order was served are sent herewith:

All these gentlemen are either zemindars or whole sale cloth merchants. They are men of respectable families. None of them is a non-co-operator. Even then the bureaucracy would force them to be so. Well, Sir, was it any sin to close the shops on 13th of April? Is that Hartal declared to be an illegal act? Can Government force a man to either become a co-operator or a non-co-operator? Is it not coercion, intimidation? Are the peace-loving citizens to be thus deprived of their lawful activities? It is rumoured that a gentleman is going to be deprived of his honorary magistrateship if he does not soon publicly do some work for the Aman Sabha.

DISTRICT MAGISTRATE'S ORDER.

On 13th April 1922, a Hartal was observed at Kashipur in pursuance of the non-co-operation movement. A number of those who closed their shops on that day are in possession of arms licenses. Some of these have apologised. Others have not. The names of the latter are given below.

By observing Hartal these persons showed their sympathy with the non-co-operation movement, and also showed themselves undeserving of holding arms licences granted by the Government.

I therefore hereby suspend the licences of the persons named below and a notice will be served on each of them accordingly to deposit his weapons in the police-station forthwith.

If within one month of service of the notice the licensee files a petition in my court expressing his regret and assuring me of his non-sympathy with the non-co-operation movement, the weapon will be restored. Otherwise the licence will be cancelled on the expiry of one month.

THE REPLY.

To

THE DEPUTY COMMISSIONER,

SIR,

In compliance with your order dated 7th June 1922, some of us have deposited our weapons in the police-station, Kashipur, and others with Sheikh Abdul Wahid, a local licensed dealer in arms. As under the law both the courses are open to us, those of us who have elected the latter have done so in the hope that it will facilitate the disposal of these arms and enable us to realise a part of their value in case you are not pleased to rescind the above mentioned order.

2. Under resolution No. 2125C. of the Government of India, Home Department, dated the 21st March 1919, payment of not less than Rs. 1,000 per annum as land revenue or payment of an income-tax of not less than Rs. 3,000 for a period of three years as well as under the United Provinces Government Resolution No. 5572-X-844, dated 10th November 1919, payment of the above sums as land revenue or income-tax, respectively, or being an honorary magistrate, etc., is to be regarded as a sufficient qualification for entitling a person to obtain licences for the possession of firearms, including rifles, smooth bores, etc. In accordance with these statutory rules every one of us is duly qualified and entitled to a licence and some of us are possessed of more than one qualification.

3. The law for the suspension and cancellation of licences is clearly laid down in the Arms Act. Under section 11 a licence is liable to be suspended or cancelled only if the licensee is convicted of an offence against the Arms Act or the Rules or if it is necessary to do so for the security of the public peace. None of us has been so far convicted of such an offence, nor has it been alleged by anybody and it is not stated or even suggested in your order that it is necessary to suspend or cancel our licences with a view to preserve public peace. So, we venture to submit that your order is quite illegal and ultra vires. We have, jointly as well as severally, a profound concern in the maintenance of public peace. Even if we were unmindful of the public weal, our own self-interest as well as self-regarding instinct would constrain us to discountenance everything that may tend to disturb the public peace even remotely or indirectly. We cannot help stating that we have a distinct stake in the land as each one of us is connected either with a zamindari or with a recent business concern, or with both, and as such we have everything to loose and nothing to gain by any breach of the public peace at any time. We beg leave to submit that the closing of the shops on the 13th of April last—whether all of us did so or not; and though some of us, namely, Lala Chedalal, Lala Brijkishore, and Lala Sukhdeb Prasad have no shop in any bazar and Lala Hazarilal none in Kashipur, so that it was not possible for them to close any—has no bearing in the matter of our licences and the suspension thereof on this account is not warranted by the law of the land.

4. As a condition precedent to the restoration of the weapons you want an assurance of non-sympathy with the non-co-operation movement from each of us. We are at a loss to understand the full import of these words. As we have stated above, we have to come in contact occasionally, if not frequently, with public servants for various purposes, such as the determination or payment of land revenue or income-tax, or for purposes of irrigation or settlement, and in connection with proceedings in courts, and the like. The very fact of our being in possession of these arms is significant enough. Besides we are rendering public services, however humble they may be, in various other spheres, e.g., in the municipality, in the furtherance of the co-operative credit movement, in the management and maintenance of the aided high school in our town, and one of us, Lala Sukhdev Prasad, also, as an honorary magistrate. Under these circumstances it would not be impertinent to enquire what we are required to undertake by giving an assurance of non-sympathy with the non-co-operation movement. Unity among all races and creeds, uplift of the depressed classes, encouragement of cottage industries and indigenous manufacture of cloth, revival of the purity and simplicity of oriental living, social and temperance reform, cultivation and development of the individual and national sense of self-respect, and above all, the realisation of the paramount necessity of the maintenance of public peace and order under all possible conditions and circumstances and an immutable determination to adhere to the above principles and to cultivate feelings of personal amity and good will among individuals are some and by far the main planks in the contemporaneous non-co-operation platform. Are we required to run in a counter direction and to turn our stiff backs against one and all of these and, if so, would our conduct be of public advantage and conducive to the progress of the State? Further, is any of these activities prohibited by law and, if not, is one to be deprived of his legal rights and privileges because of his legitimate actions and lawful actions if he cannot succeed in persuading his conscience to accept the executive view of the matter or to disregard its counsel?

5. There is a still graver aspect of this question, and we can only hope that it did not strike you at the time you passed the preliminary order suspending our licenses. As was well known to your predecessor in office, Kashipur subdivision and its vicinity is infested with dacoits as well as wild animals and their ravages have rendered serious havoc—villages have been deserted, land has gone waste and population is steadily dwindling—dacoities have never been scarce in these parts while during the last two or three years arson, pillage, assassination and inhuman outrages have been the order of the day and a reign of terror has been supreme for a considerable period, as even one having no local knowledge can easily gather from the Subdivisional Magistrate's judgment in a recent case (K. E. vs. Umraosingh of May 1922). The report of the land revenue administration in these provinces just published also bears testimony to this. 'Agriculture in the Naini Tal tarai was hampered by the prevalence of dacoity, and the Commissioner remarks that dacoity was disastrous and the police were helpless' (vide paragraph 60 of the report). It is reported that a public spirited citizen offered to lead the police in March last to the dacoits' camp in the neighbourhood of Kashipur town, and in response to this the superintendent of police did proceed to Kashipur and reached the railway station with a force of about a hundred strong one evening but,.........he retraced his steps and returned back to his headquarters with his party by the next train. Presumably he did this out of regard for public interests, and you will see from this how very irksome is our position, specially as some of us have already received threatening letters purporting to have been written to us by the members of the gang. In a case in which a person was convicted for being in possession of a pistol without a license at Kashipur, the High Court held in revision that a serious view should not be taken of the matter 'as the applicant was living in a part of the province where dacoities had been fairly numerous of late years' and there was a 'presumption that any person found in possession of such a weapon had obtained it for the purpose of self-protection' (Revision No. 680 of 1918).

Under these circumstances we beg leave to admit that possession of such weapons as we have surrendered in obedience to your orders is absolutely essential for purposes of self-defence for persons of our status, and we hope that on reconsideration you will be pleased to cancel your orders under reference so that our arms may be restored to us.

It is unfortunate indeed that sometimes the zamindars and other respectable people are deprived of the right of possessing firearms by license, while Anglo-Indians of the position of a railway-guard are being granted licenses, even for revolvers. The Government of India, whose vision is certainly broader than most of the District Magistrates may not perhaps like them to be so narrowminded, but their impetuosity has no limit. Let us, therefore, put a brake upon their rashness and local prejudices by an express provision of the Act.

(4) The present Arms Act requires, or it is at least a practice in some of the districts, to bring or send the arms, after having bought it, to the collectorate to have the number of the arms endorsed on the license, and I know a good many instances of a few Englishmen of higher service—District Judge and Joint Magistrate— who instead of sending or bringing their arms to the collectorate, they just send a letter or a chit to the collectorate and give the number of arms in it for endorsement. I am of opinion that nobody should be required to bring or send his arms for endorsement to the collectorate, he should just mention the number of the arms in a letter addressed to the authority concerned, or if it is necessary at all that the arms should be presented before the endorsement authority, then each and every one, whatever position he may hold, should be required to present his arms before the endorsement authority and no letter or chit should be permitted to any one.

(5) The limit of two hundred cartridges per rifle is one of the most important questions from the sportsman's point of view ; if this limit means 200 cartridges per rifle per year then certainly it will be most objectionable ; 200 cartridges will never be sufficient even for a month in a sporting district, but if it means that not more than 200 cartridges can be bought or kept at one time then there is not much objection. But why limit the number of ammunition at all ? When the Government relies on a person for an arm with a certain limited number of ammunition, then I fail to understand why the same person should not be relied upon for an unlimited number of ammunition. Why should the Government of India be responsible for this sort of an act and restriction, which is bound to create discontent in the country, or at least among the sportsmen, and make the Government unpopular ? I know of no country in the world putting such sort of restriction on the amount of ammunition to be possessed by a licensee.

(6) There is one more important point to which I would like to draw the attention of the Government, which is about the punishment meted out to the holders of unlicensed arms and ammunition. Cases have been known where an Anglo-Indian has been fined a few rupees, and his arm confiscated, for unlawfully possessing an arm, while an Indian had to undergo a few months' simple or rigorous imprisonment for even unlawfully possessing a sword. In the eye of law there is no such distinction between an Englishman, Anglo-Indian or an Indian, then why the distinction in the punishment ? There is no reason why should an Englishman or an Anglo-Indian escape by merely paying a few rupees as fine and a poor Indian has to undergo simple or rigorous imprisonment for the same offence. If I am right there is a provision in the Government Order No. 454-VI.-989, dated 14th March 1887, which clearly says that the offences against the Arms Act " would as a rule be sufficiently punished by fine ". I am afraid this order of the Government is never acted upon. There must be a uniformity in the punishment of an Englishman, Anglo-Indian or an Indian under this Act, and this will undoubtedly allay the bitter feeling of the racial distinction.

There is every probability that under the new rules, more applications for licenses will be coming in. If then, the reforms are in reality the first step on the road to self-government, then these applications should be dealt with in the spirit of real justice and right and not as a favour. There are no doubt several District Magistrates whose attitude towards such applicants has been reasonable, but unfortunately the majority of them are still too proud and not yet prepared to consider themselves as servants but always pose themselves as masters, and do not feel that a new era has set in. They ought to be told in plain words that the grant of a license to an entitled person is never a special favour or a privilege but they deserve it as a matter of right. Let me quote here a sentence from the speech of Mr. Iswar Saran, M.L.A., delivered in the Legislative Assembly on the 8th September 1922 at Simla, who in other words truly represents the public opinion and this applies in each and every case, he says, " We do not want the white man to be our perpetual ruler, our perpetual trustee, our perpetual guardian. We, have had enough of this everlasting trust. We extend to the white man, and I speak with absolute truth and sincerity, the hands of fellowship and good comradeship, but I do resent, and as long as there is the last breath of life left in me, I shall continue to resent, the perpetual domination of the Civil Service or any other service..........."

Unless the principle is accepted by the Government and faithfully acted upon by the District Magistrates any improvement upon the present arms rules will be a farce, I cannot emphasise upon this point too much. The entitled class should never be debarred from holding the license except on the only ground of moral turpitude. I must, however, make it clear that I do not regard any attempt on the part of an Indian to criticise the policy or the official of the Government or any desire on his part expressed in words or act to bring about a fundamental change in the policy of the Government, as amounting to moral turpitude. The District Magistrates must not allow themselves to be carried away by what they hear from the police or those unfortunate class of non-official people who are called the flatterers, official favour seekers, title and job hunters, and sycophants, who as a matter of fact have taken on themselves the duty to always misrepresent the true spirit and condition of the country and the individuals, simply to satisfy their personal aggrandizements, and those unfortunate officials who are misled by this class of people, not only ruin their own reputation and position but that of the Government too along with them. They should always coolly form their own opinion, and without the least fear of contradiction I can say, that this class of people,—who are never considered anybody in public eye, who always mislead the officials and hence the Government—are unfortunately the chief and the only root cause of all the present discontent and situation in the country. The personal considerations would defeat the ends of justice and fair play and bring a bad name to the Government.

With due respect to the President of the Arms Rules Revising Committee, I may say, that I do not for a moment accept the arguments sometimes put forward before the witnesses, that the presence of too many arms may prove dangerous to the public on such occasions as the Arrah or Katarpore riots. I wonder why no such riots ever take place or have ever taken place in any of the Indian States, although the use of arms there is almost freer than in British India. It entirely depends, if I may say so, on the temperament of the people and the way in which delicate situations are handled by the Government. In the Indian States, there are no such things as quarrels between the Hindus and the Musalmans, probably because their rulers do not seem to have yet adopted the unwise policy of "divide and rule."

If I remember it right the Committee had decided that the powers of fixing the number of licenses in any district, in the case of necessity, should still remain with the local Governments. May I just say a few words about this—and finish this minute of dissent with the hope that these new rules will be dealt with a new and broader vision—I do not think there is any harm if the local Governments be given such powers, but, before limiting or reducing the number of licenses in any particular district, I hope the local Government will kindly announce through their local gazettes—at least a month before—the name with the date of the district where this new order is to be enforced, and also the reasons for doing so, with the opinion, if possible, of some of the leading officials and non-officials of the district concerned, then and then alone should the local Governments be empowered to enforce this order.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It appears from the Report of the Accountant-General (vide page 173 of Appendix No. 30 to the Report of the Government Grant Committee appointed by the Senate) that the deficit of the Calcutta University amounted to Rs. 38,000 in 1918-19, Rs. 1,77,000 in 1919-20 and Rs. 2,08,000 in 1920-21. The Report further says at page 171: "It may be noted here that the credit balance of Rs. 76,654 in favour of the post-graduate teaching fund, is the result of book adjustments whereby funds have been transferred from the fee fund to the post-graduate teaching fee fund, when there was no balance available from the fee fund. Ordinarily the fee fund should not show a debit balance, as transfers from that fund to other funds can only be permitted to the extent of the surplus available. The book adjustments that have been made in the accounts have the effect of giving an erroneous impression of the financial position of the two funds." This discloses a state of things regarding the administration of the University finances which can very well be characterized as lamentable. Then again, at any rate for the last few years, the University though a public body, totally disregarded the extremely salutary practice of preparing the annual Budget. The said Report of the Accountant-General says (at page 180)—"In the case of all public bodies, such as Calcutta Corporation, Calcutta Port Trust, Calcutta Improvement Trust, it is the invariable standing practice to prepare a complete estimate of all classes of receipts and expenditure on different accounts and get it duly sanctioned by proper authority before the year, to which it appertains, commences. The authorities entrusted with the expenditure know fully well beforehand what grants are placed at their disposal, and regulate their expenditure accordingly. They also closely watch the receipts and advise their superiors to take early action if there is a falling off in them. The Calcutta University on the other hand allows the expenditure to go on for months against no grant sanctioned by the Senate, and does not prepare an estimate till the year sufficiently advances. Estimate for 1919-20 was passed by the Senate on 29th November 1919, 1920-21 on 4th December 1920 and 1921-22 on 4th March 1922. Thus the expenditure up to those dates was incurred without any sanctioned grant." These and various other serious defects in the administration of the financial affairs of the University appear in the said Report of the Accountant-General. One of the objects of this Bill is to improve the financial administration of the Calcutta University.

The other object of this Bill is to introduce more of the elective element in the constitution of the Senate with due and proper regard to academic interests.

Some of the other amendments proposed in this Bill are more or less consequential.

Provision has been made to empower the Local Government to frame rules according to which only the first elections after this Act comes into force, have got to be held.

First Forecast of the Wheat Crop of Bengal, 1922-23.

[NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1920-21, the area under wheat in Bengal has represented some 0·4 per cent of the total area under wheat in India. The ratio of the irrigated wheat acreage to total wheat acreage in (a) British India and (b) in the territory now reported on, has in the five years ending 1920-21, averaged (a) 48·8 and (b) 16·0 per cent, respectively.]

Explanatory.—Three forecasts of the wheat crop are published. This forecast deals only with the area sown and the general condition of the crop in its early stages.

Acreage.—According to the estimates of the District Officers, the total area sown amounts to 115,400 acres against 124,800 and 124,100 acres reported, respectively, in the corresponding and final forecasts of last year.

Character of the season.—The weather was generally favourable in September and October for the preparatory tillage. Sowings though generally commenced at the usual time were somewhat late in parts of the flood-affected tracts of North Bengal. Continuous day weather since sowing has to some extent retarded the development of the crop in some districts including the important district of Malda. The present condition is generally reported as fair.

CALCUTTA, THE 23RD JANUARY 1923.

RESOLUTION—No. 667Mis.

(1) A copy of the proceedings of the Conference of District Kanungos of Bengal held on the 26th December 1920.

(2) A copy of the proceedings of the Conference of District Kanungos of Bengal held on the 26th December 1921.

(3) A letter No. 11, dated the 28th July 1922, from the President of the Conference of District Kanungos of Bengal.

The question of revising the pay of the district kanungos employed in the Presidency of Bengal in view of modern economic conditions has for sometime past been engaging the attention of Government, who have now come to the conclusion that the changed conditions after the war render a readjustment of salaries necessary. In supersession, therefore, of the existing time-scale of pay (viz., Rs. 60—$\frac{4}{1}$0—120), which was introduced for the kanungos in the year 1914, Government are pleased to sanction, with effect from the 1st October 1922, a revised time-scale of pay of Rs. 80—4—160 (rupees eighty rising to rupees one hundred and sixty by annual increments of rupees four) with a probationary pay of Rs. 75 per mensem for two years prior to confirmation, and an efficiency bar at the stage of Rs. 120.

In the event of a material reduction in the cost of living the scale now introduced will come under further consideration and will be liable to such reduction as may appear necessary in the interest of economical administration.

2. The following principles should be observed in determining the initial pay of the present incumbents under the new time-scale :—

(a) The initial pay of a permanent kanungo will be determined by the following conversion table, in which the first column gives the present pay under the old time-scale and the second the corresponding initial pay under the new time-scale :—

Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
60 ...	... 80 if in 1st or 2nd year on	60.
	88 „ „ 3rd „ 4th „ „	60.
70 ...	... 96 if in 1st or 2nd year on	70.
	104 „ „ 3rd „ 4th „ „	70.
80 ...	... 112 if in 1st or 2nd year on	80.
	120 „ „ 3rd „ 4th „ „	80.
90 ...	... 124 if in 1st or 2nd year on	90.
	132 „ „ 3rd „ 4th „ „	90.
100 ...	... 140.
110 ...	... 144.
120 ...	... 156.

(Any kanungo on probation will be allowed to draw Rs. 75 a month.)

(b) Further increments should be allowed from the same day and month on which they would have accrued in the old scale, the year of the next increment under that scale being ignored.

(c) No kanungo should be allowed to draw more than Rs. 120, unless the Commissioner certifies that the kanungo has passed the efficiency bar.

ORDER.—The Resolution be published in the Calcutta Gazette, and a copy be forwarded to the Secretary to the Board of Revenue, the Commissioners of Divisions, and the Financial Department of this Government and the Accountant-General, Bengal, for information.

By order of the Governor in Council,

RESOLUTION ON THE WORKING OF THE CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES IN BENGAL FOR THE YEAR ENDING 30TH JUNE 1922.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE AND INDUSTRIES.

Co-operative Societies.

CALCUTTA, THE 20TH JANUARY 1923.

RESOLUTION—No. 328Co-op.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan Bahadur, C.I.E.

READ—

The Report on the Working of the Co-operative Societies in Bengal for the year ending 30th June 1922.

AFTER an absence of nearly five years Mr. J. M. Mitra has again returned as Registrar of Co-operative Societies, a post which he held previously for nearly five years. The Hon'ble Minister welcomes the return of an officer so long and intimately and successfully associated with the co-operative movement in Bengal and trusts that it will be found possible to retain his services in the department. The post of the Assistant Registrar of Co-operative Societies in charge of industrial societies was abolished with effect from the 13th July 1921, and a separate Assistant Registrar of Co-operative Societies was appointed for the Chittagong Division from the 22nd August 1921. Government have already recognised the necessity of dividing the combined charge of the Presidency and Burdwan divisions, but the actual appointment of another Assistant Registrar is being deferred until the report of the Retrenchment Committee is received and the financial position improves. For similar reasons the proposals for the reorganisation of the subordinate staff on a permanent basis have been deferred.

2. The total number of societies increased from 6,366 to 6,679, and that of members from 242,085 to 260,142. It is a gratifying feature that the increase in the number of members is 7·4 per cent., although the increase in the number of societies is only 4·9 per cent., for this is fresh proof that the older societies continue to attract new members, a fact which the Registrar has found it necessary to emphasise in reply to criticism which held that the contrary was the case. The actual increase in the number of societies is very small, but this is fully explained by the unsettled state of affairs prevailing throughout the Presidency, and in the circumstances the Hon'ble Minister agrees with the Registrar that the policy of very cautious expansion was more than justified. The working capital of the societies increased from 3·33 crores to 3·68 crores, showing an increase of 10·5 per cent. as against an increase of 17·9 per cent. in the previous year. Compared to the increase in the number of societies, the increase in the working capital this year is much larger than in the preceding year.

3. There is still a preponderance of agricultural co-operative societies of over 90 per cent. of the total. During the year the number of these societies reached 6,047, members 170,067 and working capital Rs. 1,30,80,811, as against 5,787, 1,62,287 and Rs. 1,22,62,188, respectively, in the preceding year. The share capital paid up by members rose during the year from 3·02 lakhs to 4·68 lakhs, deposits by members from 6·26 lakhs to 6·39 lakhs, and reserve fund from 15·73 lakhs to 18·32 lakhs. The increase in the amount of share capital paid up was over 50 per cent., a satisfactory and hopeful result.

4. Two new Central Banks were started during the year under report, bringing the total to 70, and the affiliated societies of these banks rose from 5,820 to 6,029, the working capital from Rs. 1,21,22,554 to Rs. 1,30,55,375, the deposits from non-members from Rs. 74,31,085 to Rs. 84,87,916, and the reserve and other funds from Rs. 5,81,936 to Rs. 7,57,328. These figures exclude the transactions of the Central Anti-malarial Society, Producers' Unions and the Federation. The proportion of share capital plus reserve fund to the working capital of the Central Banks continued to rise from 17·8 per cent. to 18·1 per cent. The paramount importance of having assets of a liquid nature is more fully recognised, and the Hon'ble Minister trusts that, by judicious use of the powers vested in him, the Registrar will encourage the Central Banks in this direction. It is a source of great satisfaction that public confidence in Central Banks continues unabated, as reflected in the deposits attracted by them. This public confidence, however, involves an increasing responsibility towards the public which it is hoped the Registrar and the Central Banks will not overlook. The Hon'ble Minister therefore accepts the opinion of the Registrar as to the necessity of the larger Central Banks employing paid secretaries who should, by their training, be familiar with the business methods of co-operation and, by frequent touring, with the internal administration and particular needs of the primary societies. The opinion of the Registrar that the expenditure involved in appointing these officers will be more than recouped by the improved working is one to which the Hon'ble Minister subscribes.

5. The progress of the Bengal Provincial Co-operative Federation, Limited, continued to be satisfactory. Membership rose from 72 to 77, working capital from Rs. 20,41,045 to Rs. 25,41,391, reserve funds from Rs. 12,642 to Rs. 37,167, and share capital from Rs. 2,97,500 to Rs. 3,14,925. Deposits during the year from the public were Rs. 38,30,130 as against only Rs. 5,27,160 in the previous year. While the Hon'ble Minister is pleased to notice the striking instance of public confidence in the Provincial Bank he invites the special attention of the Registrar to the necessity of great care lest the bank accept too large an amount as short-term deposits or competes in the market for deposits which may not be necessary for its purposes. The thanks of the Government are due to Raja Reshee Case Law, C.I.E., M.L.C., for accepting the honorary chairmanship of the Provincial Bank and giving of his valuable time and wide experience to the co-operative movement.

6. The number of agricultural purchase and purchase and sale societies rose from 11 to 15 during the year. Membership rose from 3,640 to 3,834, and working capital increased from Rs. 1,34,943 to Rs. 1,36,214. The difficulty of management—a difficulty which impedes the progress of these societies in their initial stages in all countries—is naturally felt very keenly in Bengal. As the Registrar points out, there is no reason for despondency in the slight loss shown. The greatest attention however must be devoted to the solution of the problem of management, and dishonesty and negligence at least must not be allowed to deprive members of the advantages which should accrue from these societies. The Sundarbans supply and sale society is an instance in point. This society is badly in want of an expert manager. Its progress has been retarded by the dishonesty of its employees and the negligence of some of the directors. It is however reassuring to know that in spite of these difficulties the business of the society is on sound lines, and the Hon'ble Minister shares the hope of the Registrar that a suitable management will eventually result in the expansion of the society to the increasing advantage of the members. That good management is possible is shown by the record of the Naogaon sale and supply society in which the number of members rose from 3,091 to 3,165, the quantity of goods handled was maintained, and the profits and general advantages of the society were increased.

7. While fully realizing the difficulties that attend the endeavour the Hon'ble Minister trusts that no effort will be spared in extending the activities of these societies in the direction of the co-operative sale of members' crops and other produce. Applications for the guarantees which the Registrar thinks necessary will receive due consideration from Government, but the Hon'ble Minister is not yet convinced that the propagation of these activities on sound lines would really result from the policy of Government guarantee.

8. The number of irrigation societies increased from 7 to 29, membership from 665 to 1,318, and working capital from Rs. 10,836 to

Rs. 42,625. The continued success of the Khelar irrigation society in Midnapore is proof of the utility of this type of society. As an agricultural engineer and an inspector with technical qualifications have now been appointed to advise irrigation societies in technical matters generally and in the preparation of plans and estimates in particular, it is to be hoped that the irrigation societies will take full advantage of the opportunity that is offered to them and develop rapidly from the initial stages to active operations.

9. The Hon'ble Minister has all along been anxious to co-ordinate the activities of the Co-operative and the Agriculture Departments, wherever possible, and he is glad to notice that a very practical step towards this end was taken during the year by the inauguration of co-operative agricultural associations in certain parts of the Presidency. These societies should supply improved seeds, manures, fodder, implements and other agricultural requisites to their members and undertake to sell agricultural produce at more advantageous rates. They should further, with the help of the Agricultural Department, approach such more complex problems as irrigation and the joint purchase and hiring of agricultural machinery, etc. Four such associations were formed during the year in the Pabna district, and two more have been registered since the close of the year. Government will watch with keen interest the working of these societies, which, if successful, should rapidly multiply and go a long way to meet the real requirements of the cultivating classes.

10. The Hon'ble Minister is particularly pleased to read of the recovery of the milk societies from their lapse of the previous year. The increase in the number of these societies from 40 to 47 and their membership from 2,130 to 2,468 is significant, but far more significant is the fact that their produce in the open market commands a better price than that of other suppliers, while the veterinary and hygienic problems which confront the societies are being successfully attacked. With perseverance it is to be hoped that the difficulties in the details of their management will be overcome and that their number and utility will largely increase.

11. The continued prosperity of the Naogaon Ganja Cultivators' Co-operative Societies, Limited, whose membership and share capital show slight increases with a very considerable increase of working capital and profits, is also matter for congratulation.

12. The number of non-agricultural societies increased from 438 to 453 during the year. The credit societies in this group, numbering 162 as against 148 in the previous year, had a share capital of Rs. 19,04,666, working capital of Rs. 66,97,166, deposits by members of Rs. 24,96,063, and reserve funds of Rs. 3,34,469, as against Rs. 16,32,702, Rs. 55,82,847, Rs. 18,43,543 and Rs. 2,81,236, respectively, in the previous year. Profits rose from Rs. 2,10,801 to Rs. 2,47,171 during the year. These credit societies fall under three distinct divisions, viz., salary-earners' societies, town banks and communal societies, and most of them still issue loans for unproductive purposes, such as domestic expenses, social ceremonies, etc. The Hon'ble Minister endorses the Registrar's view that there is scope, especially for town banks, to take up more of the business of lending for productive purposes and providing banking facilities for petty traders, small merchants, artisans and craftsmen.

13. Stores and supplies societies as a class did not prosper for the reasons enumerated in last year's report. In spite of attempts to remove them the faults could not be eradicated. The department should nevertheless continue its efforts to educate the public up to this useful type of co-operation.

14. The registration of the Dacca Conch Shell Workers' Society after several years of preparatory work is an achievement of the year under report. The Hon'ble Minister peruses with genuine pleasure the account of the successful working of this society within the short period of its existence and eagerly looks forward to the rescue by this society of the famous conch-shell industry of Dacca from the extinction with which it was threatened.

15. The number of weavers' societies rose from 117 to 120 during the year. The number of members increased from 1,531 to 1,677, and working capital from Rs. 51,161 to Rs. 54,629. The weaving societies in the district of Bankura rose in number from 46 to 48. The Hon'ble Minister notices with grave concern that some of the Bankura weavers succumbed to the temptations which the boom in Swadeshi cloth created. It is lamentable that after several years of co-operation the weavers still fail to recognise that not only in a time of depression but even more so in the period of a boom their strength and welfare lie in loyalty to their societies and their union. It is earnestly to be hoped that the peccant weavers will have learned from their experience and perhaps from a little disciplinary action by the union that their loyalty must not be merely opportunistic.

16. The Bengal Co-operative Organisation Society maintained its record of useful work during the year, and much credit is due to Professor P. Mukherjee, honorary secretary, for his work in the cause of this society. The "Bengal, Bihar and Orissa Co-operative Journal" published by the society was converted into a quarterly in the course of the year, and its vernacular monthly "Bhandar" continued to appear regularly. Arrangements were made for the delivery of lectures under the auspices of the society both in Calcutta and in the mufassal. Propaganda work was also carried on in the mufassal by means of magic lantern slides prepared by the Bengal Social Service League, depicting co-operative methods of combating disease, ignorance and poverty, and generally illustrating the benefits of co-operation. The information bureau attached to the department met all requests for the use of its exhibits at mufassal conferences. This society has even still wider possibilities, and the Hon'ble Minister hopes that the efforts of the committee and the Registrar to reorganise it will result in an expansion of its sphere of activities.

17. On the whole the Hon'ble Minister is of opinion that the report reveals real and satisfactory progress, which he hopes will be maintained in the future, and he takes this opportunity of recording his appreciation of the work done by Mr. Mitra and his predecessor. His acknowledgments are also due to Messrs. Stevens and Thorp and M. Hamidur Rahman, Khan Sahib Kabiruddin Ahmed, Khan Bahadur Asaduzzaman and Mr. T. C. Roy. The names of the other officials and non-officials mentioned for good work in the report are also noted with pleasure.

Secretary to the Government of Bengal (offg.).

DACCA, the 27th January 1923.

Monthly Weather and Crop Report of Bengal for December 1922.

I. Character of the season.—Excepting a few scattered showers in parts of the Presidency and Rajshahi Divisions there was practically no rain. The usual rainfall statement is appended.

II. Progress of agricultural operations.—The reaping of winter paddy was much advanced and the threshing operations well began. The sowings of spring crops were approaching completion during the month.

III. State of standing crops.—The spring crops were thriving well under favourable weather conditions, although a little more moisture would have facilitated the growth in the highland tracts.

IV. Prospects and probable outturn.—The prospects of spring crops were generally promising. A good yield of winter rice is expected.

V. Damage to standing crops.—No appreciable damage was caused to the standing crops by insect pests except in parts of Dacca and Rajshahi districts.

VI. Condition of agricultural stock.—Condition of live-stock was, on the whole fair. Sporadic cases of cattle disease were however reported from eleven districts.

VII. Failure of pasturage and fodder.—Scarcity of fodder was felt only in the flood affected tracts of Rajshahi and Pabna.

VIII. Prices of food-grains.—During the second-half of the month under review the price of common rice of the cheapest quality rose in three districts, fell in eleven and remained stationary in the rest of the province.

IX. Condition of agricultural people.—The condition of the agricultural population in the flood affected tracts has improved. Elsewhere the condition is generally reported to be fair.

* Selected candidates will be examined by the Civil Service Commissioners as to their ability to ride, and will be required to obtain either—

(a) a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners that they are sufficiently at home in the saddle for the efficient performance of all the duties of the Indian Public Works and State Railway Departments; or
(b) a certificate from the Civil Service Commissioners of minimum proficiency in riding.

In the latter case they will be subjected, on their arrival in India, to such further tests in riding as may be prescribed by the Government.

Candidates are warned that the certificate of minimum proficiency in riding, without which they will not be allowed to proceed to India, is only granted to those who can qualify in a series of tests, which includes jumping.

The chief tests will be saddling and bridling; mounting and dismounting; trotting and cantering; riding at a trot without stirrups; riding at a trot with stirrups but without reins; jumping a hedge hurdle about 3 feet in height.

Although the examination will, in the main, be confined to these points the examiner will not be debarred from applying any other tests which may appear desirable.

APPENDIX III.

Regulations as to the Physical Examination of Candidates for Appointment to the Public Works Department of the Government of India.

Note.—These Regulations are published for the convenience of candidates and in order to enable them to ascertain the probability of their coming up to the required physical standard. But it must be clearly understood that the Secretary of State reserves to himself an absolute discretion to reject as unfit any candidate whom he may consider, after hearing the opinion of his medical advisers, to be physically disqualified for the public service; and that his discretion is in no respect limited by these Regulations.

It is not the practice to communicate to candidates who may be reported as physically unfit for service in India the reasons for the Medical Board's opinion.

General Physical Requirements.

1. A candidate must be in good mental and bodily health, and free from any physical defect likely to interfere with efficient performance of duty.

2. In the examination of candidates the Medical Board will apply the following table of correlation of age, height, and chest girth :—

Age.	Height without shoes.	Chest.
		Girth when expanded.	Range of expansion.
	Inches.	Inches.	Inches.
21 and upwards ...	62½ and under 65 ...	35	2
	65 " 68 ...	35½	2
	68 " 70 ...	36	2
	70 " 72 ...	36½	2½
	72 and upwards ...	37	2½

3. Measurement of Height.—The candidate will be placed against the standard with his feet together, and the weight thrown on the heels, and not on the toes or outside of the feet. He will stand erect without rigidity, and with the heels, calves, buttocks and shoulders touching the standard; the chin will be depressed to bring the vertex of the head level under the horizontal bar, and the height will be noted in parts of an inch to eighths

4. Measurement of Chest.—The candidate will be made to stand erect with his feet together, and to raise his hands above his head. The tape will be carefully adjusted round the chest, with its posterior upper edge touching the inferior angles of the shoulder blades, and its interior lower edge the upper part of the nipples. The arms will then be lowered to hang loosely by the side, and care will be taken that the shoulders are not thrown upwards or backwards so as to displace the tape. The candidate will then be directed to empty his chest of air as much as is possible. This is best done by continuous whistling with the lips as long as sound can be produced. The tape is carefully gathered in during the process, and when the minimum measurement is reached it is recorded. The candidate will then be directed to inflate his chest to its utmost capacity. This maximum measurement will likewise be noted. The girth with the chest fully expanded and the range of expansion between the minimum and the maximum will then be recorded.

5. The hearing must be good.

6. The speech without impediment.

7. The teeth in good order, i.e., decayed or broken teeth must be properly stopped or crowned, and deficient teeth replaced by artificial teeth where necessary for effective mastication.

8. The chest must be well formed, the lungs and heart sound.

9. Rupture, hydrocele, varicocele, varicose veins in a severe degree, or other condition likely to cause inefficiency will disqualify a candidate, unless such condition is cured by operation.

10. The limbs, feet, and toes must be well formed and developed, with free and perfect motion of all the joints.

11. A candidate must have no congenital malformation or defect likely to interfere with efficiency.

12. A candidate must not be the subject of chronic skin disease.

13. Evidence of previous acute or chronic disease pointing to an impaired constitution will disqualify.

Candidates may, if they wish it, undergo a preliminary examination by the Medical Board, which meets at the India Office every Tuesday, under the following conditions :—

(a) Applications must be addressed to the Under-Secretary of State, India Office, Whitehall, London, accompanied by a fee of two guineas, and a statement as to the particular appointment which the candidate desires to obtain.

(c) Candidates considered to be unfit by the Medical Board at this preliminary examination are not bound to accept its opinion, but may, at their own risk, continue their studies, with the knowledge that they will have to submit themselves for a final medical examination by the Medical Board, prior to the examination, or to their appointment.

(d) On the other hand, it must be distinctly understood that the preliminary examination by the Medical Board is held solely for the candidate's information, and that, if after that examination he is reported to be apparently fit, he has not on that account any claim to be accepted as physically fit when he presents himself for the final Medical Examination, upon which alone his acceptance or rejection will depend. Candidates may be considered fit for the Service at the preliminary examination, but may be found at the final examination to be unfit, either on account of some physical defect which did not exist or passed undetected at the preliminary examination, or for other reasons.

REGULATIONS AS TO THE STANDARD OF VISION.

1. If myopia in one or both eyes exists, a candidate may be passed provided the ametropia does not exceed 3·5 D, and if, with correcting glasses not exceeding 3·5 D, the acuteness of vision in one eye equals $\frac{6}{9}$ and in the other $\frac{6}{6}$, there being normal range of accommodation with the glasses.

2. Myopic astigmatism does not disqualify a candidate, provided the lens, or the combined spherical and cylinderical lenses, required to correct the error of refraction, does not exceed 3·5 D; the acuteness of vision in one eye, when corrected, being equal to $\frac{6}{9}$, and in the other $\frac{6}{6}$, together with normal range of accommodation with the correcting glasses, there being no evidence of progressive disease in the choroid or retina.

3. A candidate having total hypermetropia not exceeding 4 D, is not disqualified, provided the sight in one eye (when under the influence of atropine) equals $\frac{6}{9}$, and in the other eye equals $\frac{6}{6}$, with +4 D glasses, or any lower power.

4. Hypermetropic astigmatism does not disqualify, provided the lens or combined lenses required to cover the error of refraction do not exceed 4 D, and that the sight of one eye equals $\frac{6}{9}$, and the other $\frac{6}{6}$, with or without such lens or lenses.

5. A candidate having a defect of vision arising from nebula of the cornea is disqualified if the sight of one eye be less than $\frac{6}{12}$. In such a case the better eye must be emmetropic. Defects of vision arising from pathological or other changes in the deeper structures of either eye, which are not referred to in these rules, may exclude a candidate.

6. Squint or any morbid condition, subject to the risk of aggravation or recurrence, in either eye, may cause the rejection of a candidate. Any imperfection of the colour sense is a disqualification for appointment to the Engineering branch of the Railway Department. In other cases the existence of imperfection of colour sense will be noted on the candidate's papers.

For all Appointments under the Indian Government a Declaration, as follows, is required from Candidates.

1. I ____ declare upon honour that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, I am not at present suffering or affected with any form of disease or bodily infirmity, such as—

(c) Fits.
(g) Malformation.
(j) Loss of teeth.

2. That I have not to my knowledge any hereditary tendency or predisposition to mental or constitutional disease, such as—

(c) Consumption or scrofula.

3. That I will fully reveal to the Medical Board all circumstances within my knowledge that concern my health and fitness for the appointment for which I am a candidate.

4. That I have   previously been examined by a Medical Board for the public service and was declared   on the

APPENDIX V.

(See paragraph 17 of the Regulations.)

NOTE.—This Appendix is merely intended to show the principal leave rules in the Fundamental Rules and the Pension Rules in the Civil Service Regulations at present applicable to Engineers appointed to the Indian Services from the United Kingdom without going into minute details, and does not profess to deal with every case that may arise. The rules are subject to alteration, and any disputed question must be decided with reference to the authorised text of the Fundamental Rules or Civil Service Regulations for the time being.

Leave.

1. Leave is calculated in terms of "leave on average pay," and the amount of "leave on average pay" for which an officer is eligible is five-twenty-seconds of the period spent on duty.

2. Subject to certain maxima and minima, an officer may draw, at his option, leave salary equal to the average pay of the last twelve months of completed duty or to half such average pay. All leave on average pay and half the period on half average pay is counted against the leave earned. An officer may take his leave on average pay, on half average pay, or on a combination of the two provided that his continuous absence from duty does not exceed 28 months, and that the amount of leave taken on average pay does not exeeed eight months at any one time. The maximum amount of leave admissible during an officer's career is the equivaient of leave on average pay for three years plus one-eleventh of the period spent on duty, of which not more than one year plus one-eleventh of the period spent on duty may actually consist of leave on average pay. Leave not due and carrying half average pay may be granted on medical certificate, and, within certain limits, for other reasons, but an officer will not again commence to earn leave until the expiration of a fresh period of duty sufficient to earn a credit of leave equal to the leave he has taken before it was due. After 28 month's absence from duty an officer draws quarter average salary, subject to certain maxima and minima.

3. Leave salary is ordinarily payable in rupees if the officer spends his leave in India or Ceylon, and in sterling if he spends it elsewhere. The rate of exchange for the conversion of leave salary is prescribed from time to time by the Secretary of State.

4. It should be noted that leave can never be claimed as of right, but is given or refused at the discretion of Government.

Pensions.

5. The following is a summary of the pension rules applicable to Engineers appointed to the Indian Services by the Secretary of State from the United Kingdom.

Ordinary Pensions.

6. An officer is entitled, on his resignation being accepted, to a retiring pension after completing qualifying service of not less than 20 years.

7. Retirement is ordinarily required at the age of 55 years, but for special reasons an officer is sometimes retained after attaining that age.

8. An officer becomes eligible for full retiring pension in completing 30 years' qualifying service.

9. If before completing this period of service an officer is permitted to retire voluntarily after completion of 20 or more years' qualifying seavice (paragraph 6) or is compelled to retire on attaining the age of 55 (paragraph 7), he will be eligible for pension on the following scale:—

Years of Completed Service.	Maximum Limit of Pension. Per annum. Rs.	Years of Completed Service.	Maximum Limit of Pension. Per annum. Rs.
20	4,000	28	5,600
25	5,000	29	5,800
26	5,200	30	6,000
27	5,400

10. Government may retire any officer after he has completed 25 years' service without giving reasons, and without any claim for compensation in addition to pension, and in that event the pension admissible to him will ordinarily be regulated on a scale not exceeding that laid down above. Government also reserves the general power to reduce the pension ordinarily admissible in all cases where an officer's service has been

11. An officer who is compelled to retire through ill-health not occasioned by irregular or intemperate habits will be eligible for gratuity or pension as follows :—

(a) After a service of less than 10 years a gratuity not exceeding (except in special cases and under the orders of the Government of India, up to a maximum of 12 months' emoluments) one month's emoluments for each completed year of service. If the emoluments of the officer have been reduced during the last three years of his service, otherwise than as a penalty, average emoluments may, at the discretion of the authority which has power to sanction the gratuity, be substituted for emoluments.

(b) After a service of not less than 10 years, a pension not exceeding the following amounts :—

Additional Pensions.

12. The Government of India have classified certain high appointments into two grades, the lower comprising those posts which involve high but intermediate responsibility, the higher consisting of those which require a marked degree of independent administrative and professional capacity. Officers who have held appointments listed in the lower grade will be entitled to an additional pension at the rate of Rs. 300 per year for each completed year of effective service in any appointment included in that grade, provided that no officer may draw an additional pension in excess of Rs. 1,500 in respect of service classed in the lower grade. Officers who have held appointments listed in the upper grade will be entitled to an additional pension at the rate of Rs. 500 for each completed year of effective service rendered in any appointment included in that grade, provided that no officer may draw an additional pension in excess of Rs. 2,500 in respect of service rendered in the lower and upper grades combined or in the upper grade alone.

13. These additional pensions will be awarded only to officers who have given proof of special energy and efficiency, and will be subject to the condition that an officer must not retire voluntarily before the age of 55 with less than 28 years' service.

The upper grade includes the Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, the Inspector-General of Irrigation, Chief Engineers of the Indian Service of Engineers, Agents of State Railways (if in pensionable service) and Chief Engineers, Railways.

The lower grade includes Superintending Engineers, Indian Service of Engineers, Deputy Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department, Deputy Agents of State Railways (if in pensionable service) and the Secretary, Railway Board (if in pensionable service).

PROVIDENT FUND.

14. A general provident fund, to which contribution is compulsory, has also been established on the following basis :—

(1) The contribution is compulsory up to 6¼ per cent. on salaries, with voluntary contributions of not more than a further 9⅜ per cent. Subscriptions on leave of any kind are optional.

(2) Compound interest on such payments is annually credited by Government to each officer subscribing.

(3) The sum which thus accumulates to the credit of an officer is his absolute property, subject to the rules of the Fund, and is handed over to him, unconditionally, on quitting the service ; or, in the event of his death before retirement, to his legal representatives or such other person or persons as, under and subject to the rules of the Fund for the time being in force, may be entitled thereto.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 371L., dated the 2nd February, 1923.—The following Bill was introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council on the 25th January, 1923, and is hereby published for general information, together with Statement of Objects and Reasons annexed thereto :—

THE BENGAL VILLAGE-CHAUKIDARI (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1923.

A

further to amend the Village-chaukidari Act, 1870.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Village-chaukidari Act, 1870, in the manner hereinafter appearing : Ben. Act VI of 1870.

It is hereby enacted as follows :—

Short title. 1. This Act may be called the Bengal Village-chaukidari (Amendment) Act, 1923.

New section substituted for section 11 of Bengal Act VI of 1870.

2. For section 11 of the Village-chaukidari Act, 1870, the following shall be substituted, namely:—

"11. The panchayet of a village shall determine the number of chaukidars to be appointed for that village, subject to the approval of the District Magistrate.

Number of chaukidars.

Notwithstanding anything contained in this section, the number of chaukidars, employed on the day on which the Bengal Village-chaukidari (Amendment) Act, 1923, comes into operation, shall continue to be the same until altered under the provisions of this section."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

As section 12 of the Village-chaukidari Act has been amended by this Council, removing the maximum limit of the pay of the chaukidars, and vesting the panchayet with the right of determining the salary of the chaukidars, subject to the approval of the District Magistrate, it is necessarily desirable that the panchayet should also have the right of determining the number of chaukidars to be appointed. The object of this Bill is, therefore, to effect an amendment of section 11 of the Chaukidari Act on the same lines as that of section 12, which was carried out in the August session of the Legislative Council.

Amendment of Schedule III.

14. In the second column of item 1 in Schedule III to the said Act the words "or circle officer" shall be omitted.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It seems desirable that the amendments in the Bengal Village Self-Government Act, 1919, proposed in the Bill should be made as soon as possible.

Clauses 2 and 10.—It is most desirable to be Chairman, District Board, with the consultation of District Magistrate or a person authorised in place of District Magistrate in section 6 of the Act.

This has been provided for in clause 2 of the Bill, and also the Chairman, District Board, will be more better than the District Magistrate about the power which is written in section 40 of the Act, and clause 10 of the Bill contains also a small amendment of section 40 of the Act providing that before the District Magistrate passes orders under that section he should consider the report of the union board.

Clause 3.—It is desirable that an opportunity should be given to the President or the Vice-President of a union board who is removed from office under section 16 of the Act and it is necessary to give beforehand an opportunity to explain the charges preferred against him and to meet any charges that may have been brought against President that he should have a right of appeal and that the Local Board and if the Local Board be dissolved in future, then District Board should have the power to remove a Vice-President instead of the union board. This has been provided for in clause 3 of the Bill.

Clause 4.—In dealing with matters under section 21 of the Act, the power of union board should be increased more. An advanced provision has been made for the Bengal Village-Chaukidari (Amendment) Act, 1922. Such provision should be made for this more advanced Act as Chaukidari Act.

Clause 5.—It is considered that section 27 should include the removal of the plague of the water-hyacinth, and that this should be specifically mentioned in the Act.

Clause 6.—An amendment of section 32 has been suggested in order to provide for the engagement of the services of medical practitioners, by union board. This seems very desirable.

Clause 7.—Provides for the removal of officers and servants by union boards and gives such officers and servants the right of appeal to the District Board.

Clause 8.—If there is no holding in the union but there is estate or portion of the lands, this can be assessed according to the income derived therefrom. This kind of amendment has been added in section 37 of the Act. This has been provided for in clause 8 of the Bill.

Clause 9.—Provision has been made that a person who has lands in two or three unions his assessment should not exceed rupees 42 for each union and whose lands in four or more unions his assessment should not exceed rupees 32 for each union, and the insertion of the words "who possesses less than one and one-fourth acre of land" in sub-section (2) of section 38 is most desirable.

Clause 11.—Provision has been made that one-fifth of the road cess collected from each union shall be made over to the union board for works of sanitation, irrigation or education or improvement of public health.

Clause 12.—The intention of the small verbal amendment in section 58 of the Act is to make the meaning of that section more clear.

Clause 13.—This clause provides an appeal against an order by the Commissioner under section 56 or 59.

CALCUTTA, THE 3RD FEBRUARY 1923.

RESOLUTION—No. 1095L.R.

IN paragraph 14 of the report of the Committee appointed to consider the amendment of the Bengal Tenancy Act, they dealt with the law relating to utbandi tenancies in the following words :—

"We appointed a sub-committee to enquire into the question of modifying the law relating to utbandi tenancies, and we agree generally with the proposals which they have made for the purpose of enabling such tenancies to be converted into ordinary raiyati holdings. The utbandi problem, however, is a local one affecting portions of a few districts only and having little connection with the main principles underlying the general amendment Bill. We think that it will be more convenient to deal with this matter by separate legislation, and we have therefore inserted no provision relating to it in this Bill."

The proposal therefore of the Committee is simply separate legislation dealing with the utbandi problem, such legislation to be for the purpose of enabling utbandi tenancies to be converted into ordinary raiyati holdings. A Bill has accordingly been drafted on the proposed lines with some modifications, and it is now published as annexure hereto for information and criticism, together with a statement of objects and reasons and notes on the different clauses.

2. It will be observed that the Committee's recommendation is limited to legislation for the purpose of enabling utbandi tenancies to be converted into ordinary raiyati holdings. It does not deal with the status or incidents of utbandi tenancies. Except in respect of certain minor points to which a reference will be made later, the sub-committee also made no recommendations disturbing either the status or incidents of the tenancy as given in section 180 of the Bengal Tenancy Act. In these respects the draft Bill leaves the Bengal Tenancy Act intact. The question of utbandi has been a vexed one ever since the Bengal Tenancy Act was passed in 1885 by the Government of India containing provision for the separate treatment of such lands. At that time the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal opposed the insertion of special legislative measures towards the conservation of the utbandi tenancy in the Act; and a body of opinion exists opposed to the retention of such measures. On the other hand, another proposal has been made to the Government which will have the effect of strengthening such measures for the conservation of the tenancy. This proposal is that the present law regarding the status and incidents of the utbandi tenancy should be amplified and that a definition of utbandi and the incidents of the tenancy should be categorically stated in the proposed legislation. In the opinion of the Governor in Council it must therefore now be decided, if legislation is undertaken, which of the following three alternatives should be adopted :—

(i) to define utbandi and its legal incidents in greater particular in the Act and thus conserve certain definite privileges attaching to the tenancy in the Act, or

(ii) to eliminate any special privileges attaching to the utbandi tenancy from the Act, or

(iii) to leave the Act practically alone in this respect.

Whichever alternative is adopted, an Act on the lines now proposed, with necessary modifications, would probably be necessary for the conversion of utbandi rents into ordinary rents, for Government are advised that utbandi rents can in any case remain legal, however the status and other incidents of the tenancy are treated. This distinction between the rent of an utbandi tenancy and its other incidents is of considerable importance and has not always been sufficiently appreciated.

3. The following particular proposals have been made to Government for insertion in the law in respect of the definition and incidents of the utbandi tenancy :—

(1) Utbandi is a kind of fluctuating tenancy in which the area of the tenancy as well as the rent payable for it varies from year to year according to the quantity of land actually cultivated and the crops grown in that year.

(2) An utbandi tenant may be either—

(i) a tenant with occupancy right, or

(3) An utbandi tenant shall not acquire occupancy right in respect of any land until he has cultivated it for twelve continuous years.

(4) When an utbandi tenant has acquired an occupancy right in any land in accordance with the above, he shall be deemed to be a raiyat with occupancy right in respect of the same, and all the provisions of Chapter V of the Bengal Tenancy Act shall thereafter apply, provided that until an order is passed under the Bill which is now published for criticism, determining a uniform annual rent, the average of the rent which was payable during the six years immediately preceding or any shorter period for which evidence may be available, shall be considered as the rent payable for the land, irrespective of whether it is cultivated or not :

Provided also that as occupancy rights accrue in utbandi lands, all the lands held under the same landlord by the same raiyat in which occupancy rights have accrued and for which no uniform annual rent has been fixed may be deemed to be amalgamated into a single holding.

(5) Nothing contained in Chapter VI of the Bengal Tenancy Act shall apply to an utbandi tenant without occupancy right.

(6) An utbandi tenant without occupancy right shall be liable to pay rent for the land he actually cultivates and at such rate or rates as may be agreed upon between him and his landlord.

(7) Any land in respect of which an utbandi tenant has not acquired occupancy rights and which is not actually cultivated in any year shall be deemed to have reverted to the landlord.

(8) An utbandi tenant who has not acquired occupancy right in respect of any land shall not have any right to continue the cultivation of that land or otherwise keep it in his possession after the expiry of the period for which the lands may have been taken, and where there has been no such agreement, after the expiry of three agricultural years commencing with the agricultural year in which the tenant began to cultivate the land.

The proposals of the sub-committee, other than those embodied in the draft Bill, which touch on the status or legal incidents of the tenancy are as follows :—

(1) When an utbandi tenant has acquired occupancy rights in any fields by twelve years' continuous possession, he shall be deemed to hold those fields as an occupancy holding to which all the provisions of Chapter V apply.

(2) For the purposes of section 27 of the Bengal Tenancy Act the rent paid or assessed for such fields in the agricultural year 1329 or any other year which the Local Government may notify in the gazette for any area shall be presumed to be the fair and equitable rent, pending the fixing of a uniform annual rent under the proposed Bill, i. e., that the utbandi rates in force in any particular year should continue.

(3) No char, homestead, udbastu, bamboo or orchard lands should be deemed to be utbandi lands within the meaning of section 180 of the Bengal Tenancy Act.

4. The Governor in Council, before deciding to legislate or introducing any Bill in Council on the subject of utbandi, would be glad of the opinions of any persons interested therein on—

(1) the draft Bill annexed,

(2) the alternative proposals or any modification thereof given in paragraph 2 of this resolution, and

(3) the proposals detailed in paragraph 3 of this resolution.

All opinions should reach Government by the 1st April 1923.

By order of the Governor in Council,

M. C. McALPIN,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

THE BENGAL TENANCY (UTBANDI AMENDMENT) BILL, 1923.

to supplement and amend the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, in order to provide means whereby a uniform annual money rent may be fixed for lands held under the custom of Utbandi and to make further provision in respect of such lands.

Preamble. WHEREAS it is expedient to supplement and amend the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, in order to provide means whereby a uniform annual money-rent may be fixed for lands held under the custom of utbandi, and to make such other provisions as hereinafter appear in respect of lands for which a uniform annual rent has been so fixed;

5 & 6 Geo. V., c. 61; 6 & 7 Geo. V., c. 37; 9 & 10 Geo V., c. 101.

And whereas the previous sanction of the Governor General under sub-section (3) of section 80A of the Government of India Act has been obtained to the passing of this Act;

It is hereby enacted as follows:—

Short title and extent. 1. (1) This Act may be called the Bengal Tenancy (Utbandi Amendment) Act, 1923.

Insertion of new sections 180A and 180B in Act VIII of 1885. 2. After section 180 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

"180A. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in section 180 when a raiyat holds or has held land under the custom of utbandi, either the landlord or the raiyat may apply to have a uniform annual rent determined for the land.

Fixing of uniform annual rent in respect of utbandi lands.

(2) The application shall include at the discretion of the applicant either—

(a) all the lands held under the custom of utbandi by the same tenant under the same landlord in which the tenant has acquired a right of occupancy whether under the provisions of section 183A or otherwise, or

(b) all the lands held under the same landlord by the tenant which the tenant has cultivated under the custom of utbandi at any time during the preceding period of six years if he is the last person to have cultivated the land and has not acquired occupancy rights therein, or

(Clause 2.)

(3) The application may be made to the Collector or to a Subdivisional Officer or to a Revenue Officer appointed by the Local Government under the designation of Settlement Officer or Assistant Settlement Officer for the purpose of making a survey and record-of-rights under Chapter X or to any other officer specially authorised by the Local Government.

(4) The case may be determined by the officer who receives the application, or the Collector or the Settlement Officer may transfer it for disposal to some other officer competent under sub-section (3) to receive applications.

(5) The officer receiving the application or the officer to whom the case is transferred as the case may be shall cause notice to be given in the prescribed manner to the opposite party, and shall fix a date for the determination of the case.

(6) If the application refers to lands in which the tenant has not acquired occupancy rights, the officer may reject it in whole or in part in respect of such lands, if he is satisfied in view of all the circumstances of the case that it is unreasonable to grant it:

Provided that a refusal shall be no bar to proceedings being again taken under this section after five years from the date of refusal if circumstances have in the meantime changed.

(7) If the application is not wholly rejected, the officer shall then determine the sum to be paid as a uniform annual rent, and also in the case of lands in which the tenant has not acquired occupancy rights, a premium to be paid to the landlord, and he shall order that the tenant shall, in lieu of paying the rent under custom of utbandi, pay the sum so determined and the premium, if any.

(8) In making the determination of the sum to be paid as rent, the officer shall have regard to—

(a) the average money rent payable by occupancy raiyats for land of a similar description and with similar advantages in the vicinity;

(b) the average of the rents actually paid or payable to the landlord on account of the lands during the previous six years or during any shorter period for which evidence may be available;

(c) the rates for lands of a similar description and with similar advantages in the vicinity held under the custom of utbandi;

(Clause 2.)

(d) the rent payable for lands of a similar description and with similar advantages in the vicinity by raiyats who formerly paid their rent for those lands under the custom of utbandi but whose rents have been converted into uniform annual rents whether under this section or by agreement or otherwise;

(e) the charges incurred by the landlord in respect of irrigation under the custom of utbandi and the arrangements made on settlement of the uniform annual rent for continuing those charges;

(f) the rules laid down in this Act for the guidance of the Civil Courts in enhancing or reducing rents on account of the holdings of occupancy raiyats;

(g) any sum agreed to by the parties to be paid as money rent:

Provided that the officer shall in no case determine a rent which is unfair or inequitable.

(9) The premium to be paid to the landlord in the case of lands in which the tenant has not acquired occupancy rights shall be three times the rent, or if the application is made under sub-clause (c) of sub-section (2), three times the portion of the rent determined under sub-section (7) on account of such lands:

Provided that the determining officer may, on the application of the tenant, if he considers that it is a hardship to the tenant to pay a premium, commute the same by ordering that, in lieu of the payment of a premium, the uniform annual rent or portion of the rent, as the case may be, on account of the lands in respect of which the premium was so payable, be increased by a sum equal to 20 per cent. of such rent or portion of rent.

(10) The order shall be in writing, shall state the grounds on which it is made, and shall, in the absence of any special reasons to the contrary recorded in writing, take effect from the beginning of the agricultural year next after the date on which it is made.

(11) The officer may, on the application of the tenant, order that the premium shall be paid by instalments not exceeding three in number, that the first instalment shall be paid at the beginning of the agricultural year in which the rent settled under sub-section (7) takes effect and that one of remaining instalments shall be paid at the beginning of each of the succeeding agricultural years until the premium is paid in full.

(12) The premium or the instalments thereof shall be payable and recoverable as rent, but interest shall only be awarded in respect of such instalments as are not paid by the date fixed under sub-section (11).

(13) The order shall be subject to appeal in the manner provided in section 109A, unless the application has been made in the course of proceedings under Part II of Chapter X, in which case the provisions of sections 104G and 104H shall apply.

(14) Notwithstanding anything contained elsewhere in this Act or in any other law, no suit shall be brought or application made in any court in respect of any order passed under this section, save as is provided in this section.

Lands in respect of which a uniform annual rent has been fixed under section 180A to cease to be utbandi lands.

"180B. Whenever an order under section 180A is passed determining a uniform annual rent for any lands, such lands shall cease to be deemed to be held under the custom of utbandi with effect from the date from which the new rent takes effect, and the tenant shall hold them as an occupancy raiyat from the date of the order.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

The utbandi tenancy is a peculiar tenancy, mainly confined to the districts of Nadia and Murshidabad. It is not governed by the ordinary law of landlord and tenant but by section 180 of the Bengal Tenancy Act, which retards the acquisition of occupancy rights and restricts the application of ordinary raiyati rights, in any part of the country where the custom of utbandi prevails, in lands ordinarily let out under that custom and for the time being let out under that custom. The tenancy has been described as follows: "The holding is not fixed either in area or in position but consists of a variable parcel or parcels of lands ascertained by a measurement or inspection made at least once a year. The rent is fixed for each year or season in respect of the parcel or parcels of land which has been ascertained by the said measurement or inspection to have been during the year or season in question in the cultivation of the raiyat". The system has, however, now largely developed in practice into a species of settled cultivation, in which it is undesirable to restrict the acquisition of ordinary raiyati rights or to retard the acquisition of occupancy rights. A change in the law is therefore called for, and the Committee who were appointed by Government in 1921 to consider the amendment of the Bengal Tenancy Act, 1885, recommended that the law should be so modified as to enable utbandi tenancies to be converted into ordinary raiyati holdings by the commutation of utbandi rents into ordinary raiyati rents somewhat on the lines of section 40 of the Bengal Tenancy Act. In view also of the fact that the utbandi problem is a local one, affecting portions of a few districts only and having little connection with the main principles underlying the general Amendment Bill proposed by them, they recommended that the matter should be dealt with by separate legislation. The present Bill has accordingly been drafted separately on the basis of section 40 of the Bengal Tenancy Act. The notes on clause 2 explain any material departure from that section.

Notes on clause 2.

Section 180A(2).—This deals with the lands which can or must be included in the application for conversion of the utbandi rents. It makes provision for the inclusion of lands in which occupancy rights have accrued separately from those in which they have not accrued, because in the second case it may not be equitable to determine any ordinary uniform rent at all, whilst there is no reason in the first case why any application for conversion should be refused. It has also been provided that, in the case of lands in which the raiyat has not acquired occupancy rights, all those lands which the raiyat has cultivated under the same landlord under the custom of utbandi at any time during the preceding period of six years, if he is the last person to have cultivated the lands, must be included in the application. This is intended to save the landlord from having the worst lands thrown on his hands by the tenant making a selection only of the best lands he has cultivated during a cycle of cultivation.

Section 180A(4).—This provides for the transfer of the application to another officer for disposal.

Section 180A(5).—This provides for the initial procedure in dealing with the application. It is expected that most applications will be heard locally.

Section 180A(6).—This proposed sub-section provides for the differential treatment of applications relating to lands in which the raiyat has not acquired occupancy rights referred to in the note under proposed sub-section 180A(2).

Section 180A(7).—This proposed sub-section introduces the payment of a premium for conversion in the case of lands in which the raiyat has not acquired occupancy rights. This is warranted by the proposal that under section 180B he should obtain occupancy rights in such lands.

Section 180A (8).—This sub-section deals with the considerations to which the officer determining the sum to be paid as rent shall have regard on the lines of section 40 of the Act. It is also proposed under section 180A (8) (d) that other rents which have been converted into uniform annual rents should be taken into consideration. Further, in view of the fact that utbandi rents are money-rents, and not the produce-rents contemplated by section 40, it is proposed in sub-section 180A (8) (f) that regard should be had to the rules laid down in this Act for the guidance of the civil courts in enhancing or reducing rents on account of the holdings of occupancy raiyats. Proposed sub-section 180A (8) (g) provides that any sum agreed to by the parties to be paid as money-rent should be taken into consideration.

Section 180A (9).—It is proposed, in order to simplify the procedure, that the premium should be a fixed multiple of the rent. For the present three times the rent has been inserted in the Bill. As, however, the compulsory payment of a premium might prevent raiyats applying for conversion, it is proposed, where it would be a hardship on the tenant to pay a premium, that he should in lieu thereof pay an additional sum of 20 per cent. to be added to the rent determined for the land in which he has not acquired occupancy rights.

Section 180A (11).—For similar reasons it is proposed that the premium should be made payable in instalments not exceeding three.

Section 180A (12).—This sub-section makes the premium payable and recoverable as rent.

Section 180A (13).—This sub-section provides for appeals.

Section 180A (14).—This prevents the proceedings under this section being upset in any way, except as provided by the section.

Section 180B.—It is proposed that when an utbandi rent has been converted into a uniform annual rent for any lands, such lands should cease to be deemed to be held under the custom of utbandi, and the raiyat should hold them as an occupancy raiyat.

required to leave their official headquarters or usual places of residence for the purpose of attending meetings of the Council or transacting business connected with their duties as members of the Council.

RULES.

1. In these rules—

(1) "Session" means the whole period of a legislative session from the time when the Council is assembled to the time when it is prorogued.

(2) "Meeting" means a meeting of the Council, or of a committee during the session or out of the session (or a meeting to which a member is summoned out of session for the transaction of business connected with his duties as a member of Council).

(3) "Usual place of residence" means the place where a member ordinarily resides for at least six months in the year.

(4) "Mufassal member" means a member whose usual place of residence is outside a radius of 25 miles from Government House or in the case of a meeting held outside Calcutta, 25 miles from the place at which such meeting is held.

2. The following are the different kinds of allowances which may be drawn in different circumstances by a member of the Legislative Council:—

(a) Mileage allowance which includes—

(i) Mileage allowance for journeys by road. The rate admissible is eight annas per mile;

(ii) Mileage allowance for journeys by railway or by sea or river in a steamer. The rate admissible is two single fares of the class by which the member actually travels.

(b) Daily allowance, Rs. 10.

3. No member may draw mileage allowance and daily allowance for the same day.

4. No member who arrives at and leaves the place of meeting on the same day may draw daily allowance for that day.

5. No member may draw daily allowance for any day after—

(a) the close of the session;

6. No member whose usual place of residence is within a radius of five miles from Government House and no member who ordinarily carries on his professional business within a radius of five miles from Government House may draw mileage allowance or daily allowance for attending meetings in Calcutta.

7. No member who usually resides or has his official headquarters within a radius of 25 miles from Government House may draw daily allowance for attending meetings in Calcutta.

8. Subject to rules 3 to 7, a member who has to leave his official headquarters or usual place of residence for the purpose of attending meetings or transacting business connected with his duties as a member of Council may draw mileage allowance and daily allowance.

NOTE.—Mileage allowance to a member will be paid to and from his usual place of residence, if within the province, or to and from the headquarters of his constituency, if his usual place of residence is outside the province.

9. If a member attends the first meeting of a session of the Council and stays throughout the session, he may draw the daily allowance for the whole session:

Provided that such member has attended all meetings of the Council during such session, or in the case of absence from any meeting, has explained such absence to the satisfaction of the President.

10. If a member does not arrive or leave on the day of the meeting, he will be considered to arrive on the day before the meeting and to leave the day after the meeting even if, as a matter of fact, he arrives some days before or leaves some days after. He will, therefore, be entitled to mileage allowance for the day before and the day after the meeting, and to daily allowance for the day of the meeting only, and not for any other days during which he may reside in the place where the Council or committee is sitting, before or after the meeting.

11. (a) In the case of adjournments or intervals between meetings of seven days or less a mufassal member who stays at the place of meeting for the intervening period may draw daily allowance for that period. A mufassal member who returns to his usual place of residence may draw mileage allowance, but the amount drawn shall in no case exceed the amount which would have been admissible if he had elected to stay at the meeting place, and daily allowance.

(b) In the case of adjournments or intervals between meetings of more than seven days a mufassal member may return to his usual place of residence in the intervening period and may charge mileage allowance, but in this event no daily allowance for the intervening period shall be admissible to him.

12. Where a meeting lasts over the week-end mileage allowance is not admissible to a member who leaves the place of meeting during the week-end, but he may draw daily allowance for the week-end provided he is present at the opening meeting after the week-end; otherwise he may draw daily allowance only for the days on which he actually attended meetings.

13. In the case of protracted sittings of three weeks' duration or over, a mufassal member may return to his usual place of residence once during that period at the public expense, and in such case he may draw one single fare of the class by which he actually travelled and mileage allowance by road at eight annas per mile. But any member who stays away from the place of meeting for such a length of time as necessitates his being absent for more than six consecutive meetings shall forfeit his right to this concession.

ORDER.—Ordered that the above resolution be communicated to the several departments of this Government including the Legislative Department, and to the Accountant-General, Bengal, and be published in the Calcutta Gazette for general information.

NEW HOWRAH BRIDGE.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

RESOLUTION—No. 334Marine.

IN November 1921, the Government of Bengal appointed a Committee of Engineers to advise them in regard to the type of the proposed new bridge between Calcutta and Howrah. That Committee submitted a report in February 1922, in which they favoured the construction of a bridge of the cantilever type, and recommended that steps be immediately taken without waiting for a decision on the financial aspect of the proposal to obtain specifications and tenders for a bridge of this type on the lines recommended in the report.

The Bengal Chamber of Commerce in submitting their opinion on the Committee's report remarked that no useful purpose would be served by discussing the importance of any particular type of bridge until its cost was known, and at the same time emphasised the need for obtaining a precise estimate as quickly as possible. Agreeing with this view, the Government of Bengal at once placed themselves in communication with the High Commissioner for India, with a view to the preparation of the necessary specifications by a competent engineer, and the matter has since been receiving the attention of the Consulting Engineer to the India Office.

2. The Governor in Council is now advised that it will not be possible to obtain an accurate estimate of the cost of a bridge of the type contemplated, without the preparation of specifications and plans which would involve a delay of some months and the expenditure of a considerable sum of money. He has, however, obtained particulars, in consultation with the Consulting Engineer who has recently visited Calcutta, which are sufficient to enable him to frame an approximate estimate of the cost of the bridge, and proposals have been worked out for financing the outlay by means of a cess on passengers and goods coming into and leaving Calcutta. The cost involved in these proposals is considerable, the methods of assessment and collection may present difficulties, and the Governor in Council considers it advisable that they should be considered by a Committee representative of the chief interests concerned. His Excellency in Council desires the assistance of this Committee in drafting definite proposals to meet the cost of the new bridge. He would be glad to have their views on the proposals for the levy of a cess and in particular on the ability of the trade and people of Calcutta and neighbourhood to bear the charges incidental to the construction and maintenance of a bridge of the proposed cantilever type. He does not desire, however, to limit the deliberations of the Committee to these specific suggestions and he will welcome any definite and practicable proposals from the Committee for other methods of meeting the cost of the bridge.

3. The Committee will consist of—

Chairman.

The Hon'ble Mr. J. Donald, C.I.E., I.C.S., Finance Member of the Executive Council of the Government of Bengal.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE, BENGAL.

Final Forecast of the Sugarcane Crop of Bengal, 1922-23.

[NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1920-21, the area under sugarcane in Bengal has represented some 8·2 per cent. of the total area under sugarcane in British India.]

Character of the season.—As indicated in the second forecast the weather was exceptionally dry at the outset and at the time of growth. The crop which suffered most during the period is in the deltaic tracts where it is grown mainly on irrigation. In the beginning of the monsoon period, the crop recovered from the evil effects of drought, but subsequently heavy rainfall and floods caused damage especially in North Bengal; also in Faridpur, Bakarganj, Bankura, Midnapore, Hooghly and Howrah.

Acreage.—The total area planted with sugarcane for the province is estimated at 200,600 acres this year against 220,900 acres last year.

Outturn.—From the Appendix I attached to the report, it will be seen that five districts (namely, Burdwan, Rangpur, Chittagong, Tippera and Noakhali) report a normal crop; fourteen districts a crop varying from 74 to 88 per cent.; and five districts a crop as 67 per cent. each. Three districts report a crop as low as between 38 to 58 per cent.

According to the above estimates, the average outturn of the crop for the province works out at 79 per cent. of the normal against 82 per cent. last year.

Taking 36½ maunds as the normal rate of cane-gur per acre the gross outturn for the province is estimated at 212,500 tons this year against 239,500 tons last year.

Other sources of gur.—The total quantity of gur likely to be obtained from date-palm juice is estimated at 131,900 tons this year against 119,500 tons (now revised) last year.

The total quantity of gur for the province from all sources is thus estimated at 344,400 tons against 359,000 tons last year.

RESOLUTION ON THE PUBLIC HEALTH AND VACCINATION REPORTS.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

LOCAL SELF-GOVERNMENT DEPARTMENT.

Public Health.

CALCUTTA, THE 27TH JANUARY 1923.

RESOLUTION—No. 154P.H.

Minister in charge : The Hon'ble Sir S. N. Banarji, Kt.

READ—

The Reports of the Director of Public Health, the Sanitary Board, and the Chief Engineer, Public Health Department, for the years 1920 and 1921.

READ also—

The annual statistical returns and short notes on vaccination for the years 1920-21 and 1921-22.

I. Public Health.

(Statistical, Epidemiological and General Public Health Administration.)

Population.—It is at the outset to be premised that for the purposes of this review, the total population of Bengal, excluding the Chittagong Hill Tracts, was taken in 1920 as 45,329,247 (1911 Census) and in 1921 as 46,522,293 (1921 Census). The increase in the last ten years has not been uniform throughout Bengal.

The Chittagong Division shows an increase of 11·9 per cent., while the Burdwan Division has an alarming decrease of 4·9 per cent. The Presidency Division gave an increase of only 0·2 per cent., while there were increases of 2·0 and 6·6 per cent. in the Rajshahi and Dacca Divisions. Five districts in the Burdwan, three in the Presidency and two in the Rajshahi Divisions have lost from 0·5 to 10·5 per cent. of their population. Recorded deaths and births during the decennium 1911—1920 were 14,101,677 and 14,860,257 against 13,728,296 deaths and 15,797,344 births in the decennium 1901—1911. The natural increase of the population was checked by the ravages of the great influenza epidemic, which tock a toll of roughly 750,000 lives.

2. Birth-rate and death-rate.—In 1920 and 1921, the number of recorded deaths in Bengal was 1,481,612 and 1,403,030, while 1,359,913 and 1,301,001 births were recorded.

The provincial birth-rates in the two years under review were 30·0 and 28·0 per mille as compared with the quinquennial average of 30·8. In 1920. Madras and the North-West Frontier Province returned lower birth-rates than Bengal, while in 1921 all provinces except Assam and (again) the North-West Frontier Province recorded higher rates than this province.

The Bengal death-rates in 1920 and 1921 were 32·7 and 30·1 per mille. In 1920, two provinces and in 1921 four provinces returned lower death-rates than Bengal, but the Director of Public Health points out that it is the rate of natural increase (births compared with deaths) which afford the best evidence of a country's health. Judged by this criterion, Bengal was the most unhealthy province in the whole of India in 1920, and seventh on the list of 1921. He attributes Bengal's unhappy position in the scale to its unsatisfactory economic condition.

"The country was not in 1920 providing subsistence for its population * * * * For the explanation of the declining birth-rate of 1921, we must study the economic conditions of 1920 and the beginning of 1921. At first sight the report of the Director of Agriculture on the harvest of 1920 seems to suggest that the economic conditions of the agricultural population at the end of 1920 and beginning of 1921 were at least as good as, if not better than, in the 12 months previously. But the prosperity of an agricultural population is governed by two main factors,—the yield of the harvest and the market prices realized."

The harvest of 1920 was comparatively favourable and the easier conditions as regards good supply gave in 1921 a reduced mortality, but the relative fall in the prices of agricultural produce, including rice, jute and oil seeds, caused a reduction in the normal surplus wealth of the cultivator. It is this surplus wealth which, "spent almost exclusively in the maintenance of large and frequent families," promotes a higher conception and birth-rate.

The statistics of vital occurrences in many towns are extraordinarily misleading. The machinery of registration differs fundamentally from that of rural areas. Registration in towns is compulsory, but until municipal boards appreciate more clearly the essential need of an accurate record, little will be done to compel parents, guardians and relatives to discharge this obligation to the State. In 1920, 36, and 1921, 28 towns out of 117 reported death-rates of less than 20 per mille. Manicktala however reported the high rate of 54·0 per mille in 1920, while Chandrakona in 1921 attained a similar pre-eminence with a mortality of 52·1 per mille. These figures are doubtless fairly accurate, but rates of 8·7 and 8·9 per mille in 1920 (Garulia and Kanchrapara) and 5·3 and 6·6 per mille in 1921 (Suri and Garulia) can only be greeted with blank incredulity.

The condition of birth registration is equally discouraging. In 1920 only 38 towns and in 1921 only 36 recorded birth-rates exceeding 20 per mille, while in 14 towns (1921) the rate was less than 10 per mille. The town of Jessore returned the absurd figure of 3·6 per mille.

"These low birth-rates do not reflect the real condition of affairs, but are due to sheer neglect to administer the law."

For seven years in succession, this flagrant neglect of the most elementary principle of public health administration has been strongly criticised by the Director of Public Health. Dr. Bentley proposes that proper registrars should be appointed, under certain statutory conditions, to undertake this important work. The Minister for Local Self-Government agrees that an improvement in the registration of vital statistics is a most urgent sanitary reform, since it is on these figures that the sanitarian must ultimately rely in gauging the effects of a public health measure.

3. Infant mortality.—In 1920 and 1921, 282,090 and 268,162 infants died under the age of one year. The ratios in these two years were thus 207 and 206 per mille. But the figures are almost certainly inaccurate, and actuarial calculations lead the Director of Public Health to place the probable mean infant death-rate for Bengal at some figure between 190 and 250 per mille. Exact observations extending over 5 years among a population of 15,000 in the Murshidabad district gave an infantile death-rate ranging from 201 in 1917 and 1921 to 282 in 1918, with a quinquennial average of 237. In one small circle, however, of 5,000 people in the Murshidabad district, exact intensive registration gave the appalling figure of 700 infantile deaths per thousand births. Fifty per cent. of the deaths were due to debility at birth and 11·4 per cent. to tetanus. If this latter figure holds good throughout the province, it means that over 30,000 infants perished from tetanus during 1921. The Director of Public Health remarks that—"these infants are needlessly sacrificed to the ignorance of the village dais".

It is also estimated that maternal causes (pre-natal, natal, and post-natal conditions) were responsible for the death of roughly 60,000 mothers in 1921.

The Minister is glad to learn that the trained midwives and lady health visitors employed by the Calcutta Corporation have done excellent work, that good results have been obtained at the infant welfare centres established by voluntary agencies under the auspices of the Red Cross League, and that a similar centre in Dacca has done fine service.

4. Cholera.—The mortality from cholera rose to 124,949 in 1919, fell to only 54,199 in 1920, and in 1921 was 80,547. The Director of Public Health observes that "in Bengal cholera appears to be on the decline". As compared with the decade 1901—1911 deaths from cholera during the past ten years show a reduction of 309,546 or nearly 27 per cent. The greatest reduction has occurred since 1915, since when the annual average has been 75,473 deaths or 34·3 per cent. below the average of the decade of 1901—1910. To some extent this striking decrease may be due to improved sanitary administration and educative propaganda, but a vast amount remains to be done in securing the early notification of the disease and in providing for adequate disinfection and water-sterilization. Cholera is an easily preventable disease, and no more effective measure for raising the science of public health in the estimation of the public could be devised than the mobilization of sanitary forces against this disease. The Minister for Local Self-Government is pleased to find that the Howrah and Khulna District Boards have recognized the need for organizing measures to eradicate this scourge. District Boards generally show a tendency to approach this question of cholera control in a more business-like manner than municipalities.

5. Small-pox.—The heavy mortality of 1919 (37,010 deaths) and 1920 (36,190 deaths) was followed by the usual periodic decline : in 1921, only 8,157 deaths from small-pox were reported. Here also a vigorous public health administration might immediately achieve momentous results. The seasonal incidence of small-pox and its tendency to be mainly localized in certain centres—such as Calcutta, Howrah, and the 24-Parganas—from which in epidemic years infection is spread, have been carefully studied, and there can be little doubt that a vigorous vaccination policy in these and certain other mufassal danger-spots, whence infection is diffused, would, within a short time, considerably mitigate the ravages of this disease.

6. Vaccination.—The total number of vaccinations reported in the Presidency in 1920-21 was 2,326,497 against 3,186,642 in 1919-20. These figures represent a decrease of 226,062 primary vaccinations and 634,088 re-vaccinations. Only 301,168 infants, or 290·4 per mille of 1,037,089 infants who required vaccination, were successfully vaccinated. The protection afforded was obviously most inadequate. The chief cause of the decrease was the fact that small-pox was less prevalent. The mortality was 21,950 against 41,200 in 1919-20, when people eagerly accepted vaccination. The Rangpur, Chittagong and Tippera boards made a notable advance by introducing free vaccination, which eight district boards had already provided. The Minister is glad to find that in the Dacca district some of the union boards undertook to provide free vaccination, while some district boards appointed a few paid vaccinators for this purpose in areas where small-pox was epidemic. The Compulsory Vaccination Acts (V of 1880 and II of 1911) were extended to all rural areas except in the districts of Darjeeling and the Chittagong Hill Tracts, where free vaccination has been in force for many years. It is naturally difficult to induce people to submit to vaccination in rural areas, when they are enjoying a comparative, though temporary, immunity from small-pox, but local bodies should remember that a vigorous vaccination policy during a period of quiescence will restrict the foci of infection and thereby the extension of the disease, when small-pox again, in accordance with its usual periodicity, blazes up with fresh force.

7. Fever.—The mortality in 1920 and 1921 was 1,144,421 and 1,070,368 giving ratios of 25·2 and 23·0 per mille against a quinquennial average of 23·7. Of febrile diseases, malaria is undoubtedly the most important, but tuberculosis, pneumonia, enteric, Kala-azar and febrile respiratory affections help to swell the returns under the head of " fever."

The Director of Public Health points out that the total death-rate is a safer guide to the relative prevalence of malaria than the death-rate under "fever" with its necessarily inaccurate classification. It is found that in those areas, such as the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions, where a decline in population occurs as the result of adverse economic conditions, malaria is most prevalent. And, by a vicious circle, as population declines, the proportion of anopheles per head grows and causes the static malaria ratio to rise.

In the Dacca and Chittagong Divisions, where malaria is least prevalent, the mean fever indices show a serious increase, and this phenomenon is traced to the restriction of normal inundation, which the multiplication of embankments tends to cause. The abatement of malaria is perhaps the most outstanding public health problem in Bengal.

Experiments have been carried on in the colliery area (Singaron-Toposi) and at Meenglas in the Duars regarding the feasibility of reducing malaria, where infection is very intense, by removing the anopheles breeding places within a very limited area. The results were in 1920 largely negative, as showing that mosquito control to be effective in any locality must be extended over a large surrounding area, but in 1921 a very satisfactory reduction of the total death-rate and of infant and malarial mortality became evident.

The Banka Valley scheme has admittedly improved local agricultural conditions, which are intimately connected with, the problem of malaria.

It is certain that Government, apart from the narrow limits of its resources, can do little to reach a solution of the problem without the willing and energetic co-operation of the people. The Minister accepts Dr. Bentley's main thesis that since anti-mosquito measures by drainage are impossible in a province like Bengal, the restrictions on natural inundation, which destroys the anopheles and at the same time improves agriculture, must so far as practicable be removed or mitigated. Co-operative irrigation societies are springing up and these in small areas, while aiming at economic improvement, will directly influence malaria; local bodies have moreover, shown their anxiety to restore silted up khals and dying rivers and to bring bheel areas under cultivation. There is widespread recognition of the toll which malaria exacts in Bengal, and though the lines of advance are not easily laid down, the Minister believes that in encouraging local bodies to undertake projects (such as the Bhairab scheme now under preparation) carefully framed so as to provide for the irrigation and inundation of affected areas, the abatement of malaria and the improvement of economic conditions in rural areas will be secured, and as a result of the latter the persons benefited will find no difficulty in paying the improvement cess, by means of which the local bodies recover their expenditure.

8. Kala-azar.—Investigations have been made in 12 districts, and infection has been discovered in 639 villages or 22·7 per cent. of 2,807 villages, which were surveyed. This dangerous infection is undoubtedly widespread, though in a village the number of cases is, generally speaking, still small. But here and there nests of intense infection are present, as for example in parts of the 24-Parganas, Jessore, Nadia, Burdwan and certain other districts. Such foci are reported to be extremely numerous near Baraset and around the town of Kalna. The Director of Public Health states that there are at least 50,000 cases of Kala-azar in Bengal, and that in 1921 the deaths from this cause cannot have fallen far short of 10,000, although only 1,552 were actually reported.

9. Asansol Mines Board of Health.—The District Magistrate of Burdwan is ex officio Chairman of the Board, while the Subdivisional Officer, Asansol, was elected as Vice-Chairman. In their report of 1920-21, the Board pointed out that with the rapid growth of non-mining industries, the Mining Settlements Act was no longer an adequate instrument for the sanitary administration of the area within their control, and Government have been asked to replace the Act by one on wider lines dealing with industrial settlements generally. Government have been fully occupied during the past year with much important legislation, but it is intended to take up the question of new legislation for Asansol at a very early date.

Dr. J. W. Tomb, Chief Sanitary Officer, on the expiry of his original agreement was reappointed for a term of five years. Owing to the increase of work, six inspection circles were formed out of the five original circles, and an additional sanitary inspector was appointed. Under these inspectors are 13 assistants on small pay, who act also as registrars of births and deaths. The outdoor staff includes also two midwives and six "anti-malarial investigators," an engineering overseer and 18 domes, who are posted to the burning ghats recognized by the Board.

The respective responsibilities of the board and the district board in rural areas falling within the limits of the Mining Settlement are not clearly defined, and the Mines Board of Health claims that the district board should undertake or subsidize medical and sanitary measures in these rural areas, which, if neglected, are a menace to the area directly administered by the former. The district board, however, contributed Rs. 1,000 to be spent through the agency of the Mines Board of Health in combating epidemic disease in the villages immediately outside the Mining Settlement. The Mines Board of Health has also undertaken the work of suppressing epidemic disease within the Asansol and Raniganj Municipalities, since the municipal boards under their present Act possess inadequate powers.

The Raniganj Municipality has made a grant of Rs. 125 to the Board for this work. The Minister for Local Self-Government is glad to find that the Board's system for the prompt notification of epidemic disease has worked well, and that such notification has been followed up by vigorous measures to check the spread of the disease. There were 1,200 cases of cholera, giving an incidence of 3·64 on the total population, 583 cases ended fatally. The sterilisation of water supplied and the disinfection of houses and of persons attending patients received special attention. The incidence rate of vaccination on population was ·225. There were 93 cases with 10 deaths. It is gratifying to find that the number of primary vaccinations show a substantial increase on the figures of the previous year; the decrease in secondary vaccinations is attributed to the fact that the number of persons requiring re-vaccination in a well-protected area continually diminishes. The infantile mortality rate (163 per mille) is high, but nevertheless considerably less than the provincial rate (over 200 per mille).

The Board has paid considerable attention to the investigation of conditions conducive to malaria, and—an important corollary—the utility of its measures for the destruction of the larvæ of malaria-bearing mosquitoes, has been accompanied and tested by elaborate enquiries regarding the splenic index of the settlement; the index is said to have been appreciably reduced. The Board has induced the Asansol local board to press on with the construction of six-feet diameter wells in the settlement villages; the collieries are said to be fairly well-founded in the matter of water-supply.

The Minister is glad to find that the sanitary staff of the Board has done useful publicity and educational work on the subject of hygiene in the primary schools and in the settlement collieries and villages. The Board has done much valuable work in its difficult campaign against disease. A superficial examination of its statistics might suggest that in an area enjoying the services of a comparatively large public health organization, the incidence of epidemic disease might compare more favourably with the rates for the province, where work on so intensive a scale is still impossible. Such a criticism would be erroneous in its failure to observe that in an area, where an enormous industrial population with unhygienic customs and habits is congregated, it is an admirable achievement which enables the infantile mortality to be kept at a rate much below the provincial figure and the incidence of the more common epidemic diseases to be kept approximatety at the same level as obtains in Bengal as a whole.

10. Local bodies and public health.—The attitude of local bodies towards public health problems is dealt with in the general review of their administration. It may, however, be mentioned that much has been done in the past two years to induce both district boards and municipalities to employ sanitary officers, and a skeleton public health organization has at length been created for rural areas. The appointment of health officers has enabled more effective measures to be taken for the suppression of cholera and the sanitation of melas and fairs. The Khulna district health officer has already won the confidence of his board by the high quality of his work, and he has done valuable service in testing and checking the correctness of the vital statistics. The Minister is aware that the health officer, both in municipalities and rural areas, is frequently regarded as an unnecessary burden on the local fund. But sanitary administration is the major part of local self-government, and prima facie, it would be surprising if expert supervision in matters of public health were a mere luxury. This condemnation of the public health expert is no new thing Dr. Bentley points out that even in the eighties, Sir Lyon Playfair, himself a medical man, in criticising English public health administration in Parliament, stated that a large proportion of the health officers then employed by the local authorities were paid to do nothing. But in England, the attitude of the public has changed. To a large extent the fall in the death-rate by 40 per cent. since the employment of an expert public health agency was made obligatory (1872) may be attributed to the scientific application of the principles of public health to the towns and country-side of England, and the Minister sees no reason why the health officers of Bengal should not do as good work as those of any other country, if they are given a fair chance.

Some will be idle and inefficient and lacking the enthusiasm which, amid a general apathy, such an officer requires ; some may be timorous lest in their zeal they offend their employers ; but it is unreasonable to expect that an efficient organization of this kind should be built up in a day.

II. Sanitary Engineering.

Several important municipal water-supply and sewerage and drainage projects were prepared by the Chief Engineer, Public Health Department, in 1920 and 1921. Eight major water-supply projects were under construction in 1920. Two were completed and six, with three schemes, were under execution in 1921. The total capital expenditure on water-supply in 1920 and 1921 was Rs. 7,79,538 and Rs. 7,31,443. Considerable progress was made with the important Dacca sewerage scheme, and the Kurseong scheme was practically completed. The total expenditure on municipal drainage works in 1920 was Rs. 2,14,004, and in 1921 was Rs. 3¾ lakhs. Sanitary works were also carried out at institutions such as the Bengal Engineering College, Dacca University, etc. The out-turn of the department has suffered from the general financial stringency. Local bodies have found it difficult to execute schemes which they have adopted, and it has been impossible in many cases for Government to find the grants-in-aid by which local enterprise is encouraged. It is worthy of mention that the important Titaghar sewerage scheme, for which the Jute Mill companies generously contributed nearly Rs 7 lakhs, has now received the approval of the Legislative Council which was necessary, since the scheme commits Government after about two years to a capital expenditure of Rs. 3½ lakhs. Sanitation in the towns of Bengal is in most cases deplorably backward : few of the 117 municipalities possess a suitable water-supply, and the system of drainage is rarely efficient. Most of them with their present resources are unable to finance costly projects to make good these defects, and for them some cheaper form of water-supply, with a limited system of distribution based perhaps on sub-artesian borings, must be devised. There are, however, many other municipalities which desire more complete and elaborate distribution system ; if the schemes which have been prepared at their request are to be carried through, some increase in local taxation seems inevitable.

Personal.—The thanks of the Minister for Local Self-Government are due to the Director of Public Health. Dr. Bentley's untiring research into the problem of malaria has added materially to our knowledge of its prevalence in Bengal and the primary and subsidiary conditions of its incidence, while his scientific treatment of the facts of public health illustrate what is apt to be overlooked, that progress on proper lines must be based on vital statistics. There is a tendency to regard the central department of public health as primarily an executive agency, and to place at its door the failure to banish within a short time the notorious unhealthiness of Bengal. But research and supervision are among the chief functions of this department,

No. 37.—The following Statute is published for general information :—

[13 GEO. 5, CH. 4.]

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS.

Sections.

CHAPTER 4.

AN ACT TO AMEND SECTION ONE OF THE TRADE FACILITIES ACT, 1921, AND THE OVERSEAS TRADE ACTS, 1920 AND 1921, AND TO AUTHORISE THE TREASURY TO GUARANTEE CERTAIN LOANS TO BE RAISED BY THE GOVERNMENT OF THE FEDERAL REPUBLIC OF AUSTRIA AND THE GOVERNMENT OF THE SOUDAN RESPECTIVELY.

[15th December, 1922.]

Be it enacted by the King's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows :—

Amendment of s. 1 of 11 & 12 Geo. 5, c. 65.

1.—(1) The maximum limit on the aggregate capital amount of the loans the principal or interest of which may be guaranteed under subsection (1) of section 1 of the Trade Facilities Act, 1921, shall be increased from twenty-five million pounds to fifty million pounds.

(2) The period within which guarantees may be given under the said section 1 as amended by this section shall be extended by one year, and accordingly for the words "the year" in sub-section (5) of the said section 1 there shall be substituted the words "each year."

(3) For the purpose of meeting the costs and expenses incurred by the Treasury in administering the said section 1, there shall be charged in connection with applications for and the giving of guarantees under the said section, and other matters arising thereunder, such fees as the Treasury may from time to time prescribe.

(4) This section shall be construed as one with section 1 of the Trade Facilities Act, 1921, and that section and this section may be cited together as the Trade Facilities Acts, 1921 and 1922.

Guarantee of Austrian loan.

2. Whereas with the object of assisting Austria in the work of her economic and financial restoration His Majesty's Government, in conjunction with certain other Governments, has undertaken to guarantee to the extent set out in the Protocol known as Protocol No. II and signed at Geneva on the fourth day of October nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and the Annexes thereto, a loan to be raised by the Government of the Federal Republic of Austria (in this Act referred to as "the Austrian Government") of such an amount as after payment of the expenses of issue will produce the equivalent of a sum not exceeding six hundred and fifty million gold crowns:

And whereas it is provided by the said Protocol No. II, that the loan so to be raised by the Austrian Government (in this Act referred to as "the Austrian loan") is to be employed under the authority of a Commissioner-General to be appointed by the Council of the League of Nations, and in accordance with certain obligations undertaken by the Austrian Government as set out in a Protocol known as Protocol No. III, and signed at Geneva on the third day of October nineteen hundred and twenty-two:

And whereas it is provided by the said Protocols that the payment of the amount required in each year to meet the interest on and the sinking fund for the Austrian loan (in this section referred to as "the annual charge") shall be secured by a charge on the gross receipts of the Austrian Customs and of the Austrian Tobacco Monopoly, and the Austrian Government have obtained the necessary powers for securing the said payment by such a charge:

Now, therefore—

(1) The Treasury may guarantee the payment of—

(a) a sum not exceeding the amount of the annual charge in respect of one-fifth of so much of the Austrian loan as is required to produce the equivalent of a sum not exceeding five hundred and twenty million gold crowns;

(b) a sum not exceeding the amount of the annual charge in respect of one-third of so much of the Austrian loan as is required to produce the equivalent of a sum not exceeding one hundred and thirty million gold crowns;

(c) the principal of and interest on any short-term securities which may be issued after the commencement of this Act by the Austrian Government with the consent of the said Commissioner-General in anticipation of the raising of the Austrian loan;

(2) For the purpose of rendering more readily effective any guarantee which may be given by the Treasury in respect of the Austrian loan or of any such securities as aforesaid, the Treasury may, if they think fit, issue for deposit with a person to be agreed upon between the Governments of the several States by whom the Austrian loan is guaranteed securities up to an amount representing, in the case of a guarantee given in respect of the Austrian loan, either the principal of that part of the loan in respect of which the guarantee is given or the liability of the Treasury under the guarantee in respect of the annual charge, and in the case of a guarantee given in respect of any such securities as aforesaid the principal of the securities:

(3) Any securities so issued in connection with any such guarantee shall be in such form and expressed in terms of such currency as the Treasury think proper, and shall bear interest at the same rate as the interest payable on the loan or securities guaranteed:

(4) The Treasury may, if the terms on which the Austrian loan is issued provide for the redemption thereof by means of annual drawings, make similar arrangements with respect to any securities issued by the Treasury under this section, and may make regulations with respect to the drawing of the securities and for determining the date on which any securities so drawn are to be redeemed.

Guarantee of Soudan loan.

3.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the Treasury may guarantee, in such manner as they think fit, the payment of the principal of and the interest on any loan raised by the Government of the Soudan for or in connection with works for the purpose of irrigating the Gezireh Plain (in this Act referred to as "the Soudan loan"), not exceeding in the aggregate an amount sufficient to raise three million five hundred thousand pounds.

(2) A guarantee shall not be given under this section until the Government of the Soudan have provided to the satisfaction of the Treasury and the Secretary of State—

(a) For raising, appropriating and duly applying the Soudan loan for or in connection with the purpose aforesaid :

(b) For the establishment and regulation of a sinking fund for the purpose of the repayment of the principal of the Soudan loan or any instalment thereof within a period not exceeding fifty years from the date on which the loan or the instalment is actually raised :

(c) For charging on the general revenues and assets of the Soudan or on any other revenues or assets which may be made available for the purpose, with priority over any charges not existing at the date of the passing of this Act, the principal of and the interest on the Soudan loan and any sinking fund payments for the repayment of the principal :

(d) For charging on the general revenues and assets of the Soudan immediately after the last-mentioned charge the repayment to the Treasury of any sum issued out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom under this Act on account of the guarantee given under this section, with interest thereon at such rate as the Treasury may fix :

(e) For raising or securing the raising of sufficient money to meet the above charges.

Period for which guarantees under the Overseas Trade Acts may remain in force.
10 & 11 Geo. 5, c. 29.
11 & 12 Geo. 5, c. 26.

4.—(1) For the purpose of the provisions of the Overseas Trade Acts, 1920 and 1921, relating to the period within which the powers of the Board of Trade with respect to the giving of guarantees in connection with export transactions may be exercised under those Acts, the date on which the Board enter into an agreement to give guarantees shall be deemed to be the date on which the guarantees are given, whether the agreement provides for the giving of guarantees in respect of specific transactions or for the giving of guarantees generally in respect of transactions up to a specified amount.

(2) This section shall be construed as one with the Overseas Trade Acts, 1920 and 1921, and those Acts and this section may be cited together as the Overseas Trade Acts, 1920 to 1922.

Charge on the Consolidated Fund of sums required for fulfilling guarantees, and presentation of annual statement to Parliament.

5.—(1) Any sums required by the Treasury for fulfilling a guarantee given under this Act in respect of the Austrian loan or any securities issued by the Austrian Government, or in respect of the Soudan loan, or required by the Treasury for meeting the principal of or the interest on any securities issued by the Treasury under this Act, shall be charged on and issued out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom or the growing produce thereof, and any sums received by way of repayment of any amount so issued out of the Consolidated Fund shall be paid into the Exchequer.

(2) The Treasury shall lay before both Houses of Parliament a statement of any guarantee given under this Act in respect of the Austrian loan, in respect of any securities issued by the Austrian Government, or in respect of the Soudan loan, and of any securities issued by the Treasury under this Act, and an account of any sums issued out of the Consolidated Fund of the United Kingdom for the purpose of any such guarantee or for meeting the principal of or the interest on any securities so issued by the Treasury, in each case as soon as may be after the guarantee is given or the securities or sums are issued.

6. (1) This Act may be cited as the Trade Facilities and Loans Guarantee Act, 1922 (Session 2).

(2) For the purpose of citation the provisions of this Act relating to the Soudan loan shall be deemed to be included among the Acts which may be cited together as the Soudan Loan Acts, 1919 and 1922.

ESTABLISHMENTS.

Simla, the 23rd January 1923.

RESOLUTION.

It has been brought to the notice of the Government of India that, under the orders contained in paragraph (2) (a) of the Home Department resolution No. 1260, dated the 24th June 1920, as amended by paragraph 1 of the resolution No. 1053, dated the 5th May 1921, a P. C. S. officer appointed to officiate in a listed post for the second or third time can sometimes earn increments on the Indian Civil Service time-scale without completing one year's service in each stage. As this result, which was never contemplated by them, is directly opposed to the fundamental rules regarding increments, they have now, with the approval of the Secretary of State, decided to amend the orders in question by the insertion of the words "in that stage" before the words "in a listed post" in the penultimate sentence of paragraph (2) (a), and by the omission of sub-paragraph (b) which is no longer necessary.

2. These amendments will have effect from the 1st January 1923, and the emoluments of officers holding listed posts permanently on that date will not be affected. Officers who will have officiated in such posts prior to that date will also be protected to the extent that their stage in the superior time scale on the next occasion of holding these posts will not be lower than it was on the previous occasion.

ORDERED.—Ordered that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to all local Governments and Administrations, the several Departments of the Government of India (including the Financial Adviser, Military Finance) and the offices subordinate to this Department, for information and guidance.

Ordered also that it be published in the Supplement to the Gazette of India for general information.

SENATE HOUSE, the 14th February 1923.

The Calcutta Gazette

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1923.

PART IV.

Bills introduced in the Bengal Legislative Council, Report of Select Committees presented or to be presented in that Council, and Bills published before introduction in that Council.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 404L., dated Calcutta, the 8th February, 1923.—With reference to the foot-notes to the Report of the Select Committee on the Calcutta Municipal Bill, 1921 (A Bill to amend and consolidate the law relating to the Municipal Affairs of the Town and suburbs of Calcutta), published in the Calcutta Gazette, Extraordinary, dated the 20th January, 1923, and in continuation of this office notification No. 173L., dated the 15th January, 1923, it is notified that Mr. Syed Nasim Ali, M.L.C., has appended the following note of Dissent to the report :—

THE CALCUTTA MUNICIPAL BILL, 1921.

Note of Dissent by Mr. Syed Nasim Ali, M.L.C.

Clauses 1 and 3.—I am against the inclusion of any further area in the Calcutta Municipality in view of the financial difficulties of the Corporation as well as in the interest of the rate-payers.

Clause 5, sub-clause (c).—I suggest that at least two of the five Aldermen to be elected by the Committee must be Muhammadans.

Clauses 7 and 20 and Schedule III.—This provision is against the principle of communal representation of the Muhammadan community by a separate electorate. The principle of a separate electorate was accepted by the Congress-League scheme and has been incorporated in the Government of India Act. There is absolutely no reason why this principle should be given a go-by now. It is an admitted fact that the Muhammadan rate-payers need separate representation by Muhammadan Councillors. This proceeds on the assumption that Muhammadans have some special interest to be protected in the Corporation. How can a Muhammadan Councillor returned from a mixed electorate represent the Muhammadan interest in the Corporation? Separate representation by a mixed electorate is a contradiction in terms. It is said that representation by a separate electorate is inconsistent with the ideal of self-government. But it must be remembered that the analogy of other countries is not applicable to India on account of its special circumstances. India is not England or America. It is the only country in the world where there are people of different races and religions, having sharply divided religious, social and political interests. An Indian nation cannot be built in a day. We will have to proceed slowly and cautiously. So whatever may be the condition elsewhere, there can be no doubt that the separate electorate system must continue in the local self-governing bodies for years to come. Then the idea of communal representation by a mixed electorate is also against the principle of self-government, but the same has been accepted in view of the special circumstances of India. The principle of special representation by a separate electorate has been accepted so far as the European community is concerned. Again, the strongest point in favour of a separate Muhammadan electorate is that the provincial Moslem League has all along urged that the Muhammadans should have communal representation by a separate electorate in all local self-governing bodies. That the Moslem League is the only association which really represents the views of the Muhammadan community cannot be gainsaid, in view of the fact that the Congress accepts the League as the only Muhammadan association with which there should be a pact for reforms in India.

Again, the number of seats for Muhammadan Councillors is inadequate. It is very difficult to understand on what basis the number of seats has been allotted to the Muhammadans. In order that the representation of the Muhammadans may be adequate and effective the number should be increased at least to 33 per cent. of the elected members. In this connection I may be permitted to mention that for the United Provinces the Legislature has sanctioned a similar principle.

Clause 388, sub-clause (2)—should be altogether omitted. The Corporation cannot have such wide powers. It affects the religion and religious rites of the Muhammadans and unless the Governor-General has given his consent such a provision cannot be inserted. As regards the economic aspect of the question it is known to everybody that the number of cattle is not decreasing. It is the quality that has deteriorated. Further the provision, if passed into law, will defeat its object.

Secretary to the Government of Bengal and Secretary to the Bengal Legislative Council.

In section 10 of the same Act, after the words "one hundred rupees," the words "or with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three months, or with both," shall be inserted and after the words "the same punishment" the words "and the animal in respect of which the offence has been committed may also be confiscated" shall be inserted.

9. To section 12 of the same Act, the following shall be added, namely :—

"and the animal in respect of which the offence has been committed or its dead body may also be confiscated."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

It is very desirable that the powers of Magistrates dealing with cases of cruelty to animals should be increased to the extent indicated in the Bill.

Some of the powers which the Bill proposes to confer are already included in the Bengal Cruelty to Animals Act, 1920 (Bengal Act I of 1920). In particular, in connection with the operation of phooka, reference may be made to section 6 of the Act of 1920.

The Act of 1920, however, has not yet been brought into operation. When it is brought into operation, the Bengal Cruelty to Animals Act, 1869 (Bengal Act I of 1869), will stand repealed. But meanwhile the latter Act remains in force. It is proposed, therefore, that both Acts should be amended.

RESOLUTION APPOINTING A COMMITTEE FOR NORTHERN BENGAL FLOOD.

IRRIGATION DEPARTMENT.

CALCUTTA, THE 6TH FEBRUARY 1923.

READ—

(1) The Press communiqué issued by the Revenue Department of this Government, on the 10th November 1922, on the subject of the recent floods in Northern Bengal.

(2) The speech delivered by the Hon'ble Member in charge of Irrigation and Revenue Departments of this Government at the meeting of the Bengal Legislative Council, held on the 21st November 1922, in connection with the various resolutions moved at the meeting relating to these floods.

IN August 1918 extraordinary floods occurred in Northern Bengal owing to abnormal rainfall in the districts of Malda, Dinajpur, Rangpur, Bogra and Rajshahi.

Again in October 1922 there was a recurrence of the floods which affected a fairly compact area in the districts of Rajshahi and Bogra on both sides of the Eastern Bengal Railway line. Government therefore have accepted a resolution in the Bengal Legislative Council recommending the appointment of a Committee of experts and of official and non-official members to enquire into and report on the causes of these floods and to suggest remedies.

Accordingly the Governor in Council is now pleased to appoint such a Committee. They should enquire into and report generally on the causes of the frequent floods in the Rajshahi Division and suggest possible remedies. In particular they should—

(1) ascertain the catchment area of the recent flood of this year,

(2) estimate its quantity, as far as this may be possible, and find the path of the flood water, and also whether it was obstructed so as to cause damage, by embankments, whether roads, railways or otherwise, and

(3) determine the best path for the passage of flood water and the openings in embankments necessary to pass it without undue delay. In this connection the effects of floods occurring simultaneously in the Ganges and Brahmaputra should be considered.

2. The personnel of the Committee will be as follows, with powers to co-opt :—

PRESIDENT.

1. Mr. G. T. Huntingford, Chief Engineer, Irrigation Department, Government of Bengal.

MEMBERS.

Final Report on the Cotton Crops of Bengal, 1922-23.

[NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1920-21, the area under the cotton crops in Bengal has represented some 0·2 per cent. of the total area under cotton in India.]

THERE are two crops—early and late. The "early" crop is chiefly grown in the Chittagong Hill Tracts and in the Tripura State and to a small extent in other districts. The "late" crop is grown in Bankura and Midnapore.

Character of the season.—The early crop though suffered at the outset through prolonged drought recovered somewhat by the subsequent favourable weather. A fair outturn was obtained except in the Tripura State, where the yield was much affected by the excessive rain at the flowering time in October last.

The prospects of the late crop are not good owing to the stunted growth of the crop caused by the heavy rain and floods in July and August.

Area sown.—The total area sown with the early crop is returned at 70,298 acres and that with the late crop 1,500 acres against 64,143 acres and 1,013 acres (revised), respectively, in the corresponding forecast of last year.

Outturn.—The estimated outturn of the early crop is returned at 17,036 bales this year against 14,244 bales in the corresponding forecast of last year. The outturn of the late crop is estimated at 450 bales this year against 452 bales (revised) in the corresponding forecast of last year.

(1) The weather and general condition of the crops were not favourable owing to heavy rain in July and August and flood which caused some damage. The plants were stunted and could not recover.

(2) The weather and general condition of the crops were not good.

(3) The weather and general condition of the crop have been fair. The date of harvesting is normal.

(4) Continuous drought after sowing hampered the growth of the plants. Since then the effects of the weather were favourable. The date of harvesting is normal.

(5) Want of rain at sowing time affected the condition of the plants. Subsequent weather proved somewhat favourable, for some time but unfavourable weather condition in October and November caused the failure of the crop at the last moment. The date of harvesting is a little late.

(6) The weather was not favourable. The condition of the crop is fair and the date of harvesting is normal.

Third and Final Report on the Winter Rice Crop of Bengal, 1922-23.

(NOTE.—On an average of the five years ending 1920-21, the area under winter rice in Bengal has represented some 19·7 per cent. of the total area under rice in British India.)

Character of the season.—When issuing the second forecast in December last, the crop was expected to be a good one for the transplanted, and a satisfactory one for the broadcast, rice crops. Since then the weather has been dry and the conditions generally favourable for harvesting.

Acreage.—According to District Officers' estimates, the total area under winter rice amounts to 16,209, 900 acres as against 15,850,200 acres in the corresponding forecast of last year.

Outturn.—From the district returns appended it will be seen that four districts report a bumper crop, viz., Burdwan and Tippera 133 per cent. each ; Bankura 117 per cent., and Midnapore 116 per cent., Bakarganj and Chittagong each report a crop just above the normal (i.e., 108 per cent.). Eight districts, viz., the 24-Parganas, Khulna, Birbhum, Hooghly, Darjeeling, Rangpur, Noakhali and the Chittagong Hill Tracts, report a normal crop ; seven districts a crop between 96 and 83 per cent. The remaining six districts report the outturn as follows :—Jessore and Nadia 7[illegible] per cent. each, Howrah 71 per cent., Bogra 70 per cent., Faridpur and Rajshahi report a crop as low as 67 and 58 per cent., respectively.

As compared with the second forecast, a better crop has been harvested in the districts of the 24-Parganas, Nadia, Jessore, Khulna, Dacca, Faridpur, Bakarganj, Chittagong and Tippera, but in the district of Howrah the outturn has fallen somewhat below the previous estimate. In the remaining districts, there has been no change since the second forecast.

According to District Officers' estimates, the provincial outturn works out to 97 per cent. of the normal as against 100 per cent. last year. But in consideration of the favourable weather conditions prevailing during the harvesting period it is probable that a 98 per cent. crop has been reaped this year.

Accepting 98 per cent. as the provincial outturn, the gross yield of the cleaned grain from the winter rice crop, on the basis of a normal yield of 12½ maunds per acre, amounts to 7,294,500 tons this year, as against 7,278,200 tons in the corresponding forecast of last year.

RESOLUTION ON THE REPORT OF THE DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE BENGAL, FOR THE YEAR 1921-22.

Agriculture.

CALCUTTA, THE 10TH FEBRUARY 1923.

RESOLUTION—No. 677Agri.

Minister in charge: The Hon'ble Nawab Saiyid Nawab Ali Chaudhuri, Khan-Bahadur, C.I.E.

READ—

The Report of the Department of Agriculture, Bengal, for the year 1921-22.

MR. G. EVANS, C.I.E., held charge of the department throughout the year. Mr. K. McLean proceeded on combined leave for one year from the 18th October 1921, and Mr. J. N. Sarkar of the Bengal Agricultural Service continued to act as a Deputy Director of Agriculture. Mr. R. S. Finlow, the Fibre Expert, who went on leave in April 1921, returned in February last. Mr. McLean acted as Fibre Expert till he went on leave in October 1921, and Babu Nirmal Chandra Basu, Assistant Fibre Expert, acted in the post during the remaining period of Mr. Finlow's leave. Five new posts were created during the year in the cadre of the Bengal Agricultural Service, viz., one for the Superintendent of the Chinsura farm, one for the Superintendent of the Darjeeling district, and three for the head assistants of the Fibre Expert, Agricultural Chemist and the Economic Botanist, respectively. Mr. N. Gupta, Superintendent of Agriculture, was placed on special duty in connection with agricultural education. Mr. P. C. Chaudhuri, Superintendent of Sericulture, was appointed to the Indian Agricultural Service as probationary Deputy Director of Sericulture in October 1921. Babu Surendra Nath Bose was confirmed in his appointment as first Superintendent of Sericulture, and Maulvi Shaik Abdullah, Sub-Deputy Collector, was appointed on probation as the second Superintendent of Sericulture.

2. During the session 1921-22, the number of Bengal students at Sabour was 35. Of these 12 passed the final examination, and 18 were promoted from the first to the second year class. The Sabour College will close at the end of the session 1922-23, and consequently the necessity for establishing a suitable institution for imparting higher agricultural education within the presidency of Bengal has now increased. Meanwhile, the Bengal students will have to seek admission into other provincial agricultural colleges. The scheme for the establishment of the Agricultural Institute at Dacca could not be pushed forward for want of funds, and consideration of the Retrenchment Committee's report may cause further delay. The two experimental agricultural vernacular schools at the Dacca and Chinsura farms continued to show good progress. The original aim of these schools was to train the sons of bona fide cultivators in up-to-date methods of scientific agriculture and to combine with this little general education. But as the result of a discussion at the provincial Board of Agriculture in 1921, these two schools have now been converted into secondary agricultural schools with the object of giving a higher form of training to older boys who are also sons of cultivators, or of those who have a direct interest in the land. The curriculum has been so framed as to provide for training the students (a) in farming their own lands, or (b) as demonstrators in the department, or (c) as teachers in the proposed farm schools (elementary agricultural schools). There are now 12 stipendiaries in the first year class, besides four others who study at their own expense, while the second year class consists of 15 students including nine apprentices recruited from men under temporary training on the farm. At Chinsura there are 11 new recruits in the first year class, and 10 students in the second year class.

Since he has taken office the Hon'ble Minister has devoted special attention to the question of agricultural education. After a full consultation with the departmental officers he formulated a comprehensive scheme which was published with Government resolution No. 798 Agri., dated the 17th February 1922, inviting public opinion thereon. The criticisms received were discussed at a meeting of the provincial Board of Agriculture after the close of the year, and the original scheme with certain modifications were finally adopted. Under this scheme agricultural institutions are divided into three grades, viz., (1) higher, (2) secondary, and (3) lower, according to the class of instruction which they impart. The proposed Agricultural Institute at Dacca is meant to provide higher education in agriculture, while the schools on the lines of those at Dacca and Chinsura fall into the second category of secondary agricultural schools. The third class of the farm (elementary agricultural) schools are meant to be cheaper institutions, the number of which should be gradually increased. It was in contemplation to start two more secondary agricultural schools (at Rajshahi and Rangpur) and a number of farm (elementary agricultural) schools during the current financial year, but financial stringency has unfortunately stood in the way. The detailed schemes in regard to these schools are, however, being scrutinised and prepared so that they may be ready when the financial resources of the province admit of their being undertaken.

3. It is satisfactory to note that the research work of the department maintained good progress in all its three sections, viz., Fibre, Botanical and Chemical.

As usual, jute received the special attention of the Fibre Expert, though minor investigations were also carried out in hemp, flax and other fibres. Out of 559 single plant cultures of C. Capsularies and a number of hybrid races under observation only ten have shown favourable indications. But the standard new races R 85 and D 154 which were expected to prove superior even to the well-known "Kakya Bombai" have kept up their reputation in this competition as being excellent yielders, besides being immune from the attack of Chlorosis. With regard to Chlorosis in jute, investigations in collaboration with the Economic Botanist were continued, and it is reported that there is possibly a connection between the development of the surface root system and the incidence of the disease, and that the liability to or immunity from the disease is hereditary in character. Experiments were continued at Pusa on a new machine designed for extracting fibre from sunn hemp. With regard to flax, samples of the crop grown at Cawnpore were well reported on in London. Investigations were also made with sida (Sida rhombipolia) and sisal (Agavi sisalana).

In pursuance of a resolution passed at the meeting of the Bengal Legislative Council held on the 22nd February 1921, a committee was appointed in the following June to devise ways and means to eradicate the scourge of water hyacinth which with its abnormally rapid growth has become a menace to the public. The Committee's report, received after the close of the year, is now under the consideration of Government.

4. In the Botanical section three recent selections of Aman paddy were tested at Dacca against the much reputed Indrasail and proved to be very heavy yielders. At Chinsura the new variety Dudsar mentioned in the last report beat the local Nagra of old fame by 14 per cent. This variety is earlier in ripening than Indrasail, but otherwise similar and it is expected to prove very suitable to Western Bengal.

The high prices of cloth during the recent years and other connected reasons have led the public to devote an unusual amount of attention to the subject of cotton cultivation. The question has been discussed in the press as well as in the Legislative Council, and enquiries have been made as to the steps taken by Government to extend the cultivation of this special crop in Bengal. Fortunately the head of the department at the time, Mr. Evans, happened to be a specialist in cotton. His pamphlet on the subject entitled "A Brief History of Experimental Cotton Cultivation in the Plains of Bengal" abundantly illustrates that he has spared no pains to make a thorough investigation into the possibilities of cotton cultivation in this province' But his main conclusion, as repeated in the report under review, has been that climatic conditions stand in the way of successful cultivation of this crop in Bengal. Besides, the question is an economic one ; the cultivators are not likely to give up jute at its present price in favour of cotton. This was conclusively proved by the fact that there is little. if any, real demand from genuine cultivators for cotton seed distributed by the department. Government, have, however, decided that the question of cotton cultivation must now be settled once for all, and experimental cultivation of the crop at Government farms will be continued until this end is achieved. A Cotton Committee has been formed to advise Government on its policy with regard to this work, and a cotton survey of the province is being conducted by the second Economic Botanist. Experimental work on the cotton crop continued mainly at Chinsura, Dacca and Mymensingh. As promised in the preceding report, cotton was also tried as a winter crop at Dacca and Mymensingh, but as it did not do well owing to unfavourable weather conditions, the experiments are being repeated in the current year.

5. The activity of the Chemical section has been great in the year under review. Soil investigation including numerous analyses as well as a study of the action of bone phosphate on acid soils, cane sugar, date sugar and tobacco are all items in the varied programme of this section.

The Indian Sugar Committee's report was considered during the year. The main conclusion of the Committee is that in Bengal there is at present little prospect for expansion of the sugarcane area. The climatic and soil conditions of the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions, however, offer some ultimate possibilities in this direction. The work in connection with the date sugar industry has been in abeyance since Mr. Annet left the province, and the Committee recommended that it should be revived and prosecuted to a conclusion. Government notice with pleasure that the work has been resumed by Mr. Carbery.

With regard to tobacco a number of analyses have been made, and the manuring requirements of the crop are being carefully studied. Experiments were also made with flue-curing of the leaf.

6. The programme of starting a few more district farms during the year, in pursuance of the general policy of having an agricultural farm in every district, could not be fully carried out for want of funds, with the result that the major half of the presidency is yet without district farms. The thanks of Government are due to the Hon'ble Maharajadhiraja Bahadur of Burdwan for having made over to the Agricultural Department the Burdwan farm which is now being conducted as a district farm.

7. Although it is very encouraging to note that the system of distributing improved seeds through private agencies, described in the previous report, has worked successfully and offers scope for further expansion, it is evident that these new agencies require strict supervision, as already several cases of supplying inferior seeds have been detected and the agencies concerned had to be struck off the list of recognized suppliers. There are at present 62 private seed farms, the enterprise mainly of private zamindars, agricultural co-operative associations, khas mahal estates and Court of Wards estates. The Hon'ble Minister acknowledges with thanks the services rendered by these private agencies. The work done by the khas mahal farm at Jessore and the wards' estates farms at Paikar (Bogra), Brahmanbaria (Tippera) and Bhowal (Dacca) deserves special mention. The cultivators are now convinced that departmental jute seed yields 25 per cent. more than the local kinds, and the demand for the former has consequently been much greater than the supply. The seeds of Indrasail variety of Aman and Kataktara variety of Aus paddy were also in considerable requisition, and the demand for the yellow Tanna variety of sugarcane was too great to be fully met.

8. During the year under review the provincial Board of Agriculture has been reconstituted on a more popular and representative basis so as to include both official and non-official members with the Director of Agriculture as president. The scheme for organising agricultural associations on a co-operative basis, referred to in the preceding resolution, has made a good beginning in the Pabna district. Government will watch with interest the working of these pioneer societies which seem to be so full of promise Co-operative irrigation societies have been started in Bankura, Midnapore and Birbhum districts, and an Irrigation officer has temporarily been appointed with the object of helping these societies in the selection of suitable sites, also in preparing plans and estimates and in advising them generally.

9. The investigations at the Government cattle-breeding station at Rangpur continue. They include cross-breeding between Hissar bulls and local cows and selective breeding of local cattle. The object of the investigations is to provide a dual purpose animal in which the male will prove a good draught bullock and the female a good milk yielder. Gratifying progress is being made. Only three years ago, in carrying out the first selection process, it was necessary to lay down a minimum standard milk yield as low as 500 lbs. of milk per lactation period of 300 days. Even this meant the weeding out of many animals from the herd, and when this has been done, it was immediately obvious, from a comparison between the rejected animals and those which had passed the test, that many cows do not give enough milk even to feed their young. To-day the best cows at Rangpur are giving over 3,000 lbs. of milk per lactation period and, as the similar but further advanced work at Pusa has shewn that the milking strain is prepotent in the sire, there is every reason to hope that Bengal is, as far as the improvement in the animal is concerned, making real progress towards a solution of its very acute cattle problem. The policy to be followed is the distribution and sale of pedigree bulls in all parts of the province and a commencement has already been made at some of the Government farms. It has however to be remembered that the question of fodder is just as important as that of the animal. The cow, however well-bred, cannot give large quantities of milk if she is improperly fed, any more than an under-fed bullock can do good work. The plant breeding section of the department has already attacked the fodder problem, and encouraging results have been obtained. Irrigation will undoubtedly greatly help the production of fodder crops in many parts of the presidency.

Apart from the cattle-breeding experiments at Rangpur, small herds of red Scindi and Montgomery cattle have been established at Dacca and Chinsura respectively, but it is too early as yet to comment on their possibilities under Bengal conditions. That there is a shortage of milk and other dairy produce in the province is well known, and the public have naturally shown great interest in the question of improvement of cattle in this presidency. Government fully share the Director of Agriculture's views that as a preliminary step in formulating a comprehensive cattle-breeding policy to be followed in Bengal the appointment of a cattle-breeding expert is a matter of urgency. This appointment was also recommended by the Board of Agriculture, India, at their meeting held in February 1922. The Legislative Council has hitherto refused to vote the necessary funds, but Government hope that an improvement in the financial situation will hasten ratification of the appointment.

10. The Sericultural Department came under a thorough review during the year. The policy hitherto followed has been to produce pure seed at the Government nurseries for sale to private rearers at the best rates obtainable. Obviously Government cannot expect to supply all the seeds required, and as a matter of fact the seeds produced at Government farms are only about 18 or 20 per cent. of the demand. The policy, therefore, called for re-examination. With this object in view, the Hon'ble Minister in charge visited the chief sericultural centres of the province and held a conference in March last to discuss the question at which not only the members of the Bengal Silk Committee, but other gentlemen interested in the industry, were invited. It was decided at the conference that the future policy in regard to this matter should be to organise the private seed producing system so as to act as an intermediate agency between the Government nurseries on the one hand and the commercial concoon growers on the other. It was also decided that Government nurseries should not be conducted on commercial lines, but that they should be regarded mainly as demonstration centres and as a means of educating the professional rearer class. Steps are being taken to give effect to the several resolutions passed by the conference.

The total receipts from the nurseries amounted to Rs. 79,381 as against Rs. 77,286 during the previous year. The demand for sericultural education continued to be on the increase.

11. The Hon'ble Minister would take this opportunity of placing on record his high appreciation of the work done by Mr. G. Evans, C.I.E. He joined his post as the Director of Agriculture, Bengal, shortly before the introduction of the Reforms scheme, and the Hon'ble Minister is grateful to him for his loyal co-operation in all matters in which his advice and assistance was sought. In his departure since the close of the year the province has suffered a distinct loss. The acknowledgments of Government are also due to the other officers of the department mentioned in the report, and particularly to Messrs. Hector, Carbery. Finlow, N. Gupta and P. C. Chaudhuri.

By order of the Government of Bengal
(Ministry of Agriculture and Public Works),

Secretary to the Government of Bengal (offg.).

NOTIFICATION.

No. 1730For.—The 19th February 1923.—The following regulations are republished for general information.

M. C. MCALPIN,
Secretary to the Government of Bengal.

Regulations for the appointment, in India, of probationers for the Imperial Forest Service in 1923.

Applications are invited from natives* of India and Burma for probationerships for the Imperial Forest Service. Candidates of European or Anglo-Indian descent must be unmarried and, if appointed as probationers, must remain unmarried until completion of the prescribed course of training and their return to India.

2. Applicants, who should not be more than 23, nor less than 19, years of age on 30th June 1923, must possess an Honours, or a first class, degree in Science of a University incorporated by law in British India.

3. Any attempt on the part of a candidate to enlist support for his application through persons of influence will disqualify him for appointment. Testimonials or other recommendations should not be attached to the applications.

4. Applications from officers already in the public service, whether as probationers or on a permanent establishment, will not be entertained.

5. Applications from residents in Ajmer, Baluchistan, Coorg, Delhi and North West Frontier Province should be addressed to the Secretary to the Government of India, Department of Revenue and Agriculture, through the Chief Commissioners of those Administrations, and from residents in Indian States through the Political Officer or Agent in time to reach the Government of India not later than the 1st May 1923. Applications from residents in other territories should be addressed to the Revenue Secretary of the local Government concerned in time to reach him not later than the 1st May 1923. The applications must be in the form attached to these regulations. Copies of the regulations and of the forms of application may be obtained from the Secretary to the Government of India, Revenue and Agriculture Department; the Revenue Secretaries to the Governments of Bombay, Madras, Assam, Bengal, Bihar and Orissa, Burma, Central Provinces, the Punjab, the United Provinces; the Chief Commissioners of Ajmer, Coorg and Delhi; the Chief Commissioner and Agent to the Governor-General in the North-West Frontier Province; the Agent to the Governor-General and Chief Commissioner in Baluchistan and Political Officers of Indian States.

6. Applications must be accompanied by a preliminary medical certificate of fitness for service in the Forest Department, signed by a Presidency Surgeon or the Civil Surgeon of the district or agency in which the applicant resides. This certificate is intended to prevent applications from candidates who are obviously physically unsuited for the Forest Service and will not exempt candidates from appearance before the final Medical Board.

7. Candidates who from their applications and from any further enquiries that may be considered necessary appear to the Government of India or to the local Government concerned to be primâ facie suitable will be summoned to appear before a Medical Board to undergo a strict medical examination in which particular stress will be laid on good vision and hearing. If passed as fit for the work of the Forest Department, they will then be interviewed by a Selection Board appointed by the Government of India or by the local Government concerned as the case may be.

8. Candidates summoned by the Government of India to appear for the medical examination and interview referred to in paragraph 7 will not be paid any travelling allowance.

Candidates summoned by local Governments for similar purposes may be paid travelling allowance under such conditions and at such rates as the local Government concerned may specify.

No allowance for board and lodging will be made in connection with journeys mentioned above and candidates must make their own arrangements in this respect.

9. Those finally selected as a result of the interview prescribed in paragraph 7 will be appointed as probationers for the Indian Forest Service; they will be required to leave for England early in September and, subject to their undergoing satisfactorily, as described below, a course in Forestry and allied subjects in England, will be appointed finally as Assistant Conservators of Forests. Candidates selected for training will be provided with second class passages to England, but the cost of travelling to the port of embarkation will not be paid.

* "Native of India" means any person born and domiciled within the dominions of His Majesty in India or within the territory of the Indian Princes tributary to, or in alliance with, His Majesty of parents habitually resident in India and not established there for temporary purposes only.

10. Period of probation.—Before appointment to the Imperial Forest Service a probationer will be required—

(1) to have undergone and qualified in, to an extent to be prescribed by His Majesty's Secretary of State for India, the course of Forestry at such University as the Secretary of State may prescribe ;

(2) to have undergone a special course of instruction in Forestry under the direction and supervision of the Director of Indian Forest Studies ;

(3) to have passed an examination in forest engineering and, if required in certain other special subjects, namely, systematic Botany of Indian trees, Indian Geology, Forest Law and Indian Working Plans ;

(4) to have undergone a final competitive examination in Forestry ;

(5) to have satisfied the Secretary of State, in such manner as may be determined, of his ability to ride.

The period of probation is, in ordinary cases, two years. The Director of Indian Forest Studies instructs probationers in each case as to the order and manner in which they should fulfil these various requirements.

11. Charges.—Probationers will be required to defray all expenses of lodging, board, tuition and excursions to forest centres in the United Kingdom while at the University and on practical instruction.

12. Allowances.—The Secretary of State for India in Council makes payment to each probationer at the rate of £ 350* per annum, not exceeding a total of £700.

These payments are ordinarily made on the following dates :—

First year—		Second year—
on the 15th October ...	75	on the 15th December ...	100
on the 15th December ...	100	on the 15th March ...	75
on the 15th March ...	75	on the 1st July ...	100
on the 1st July ...	100	on the 15th October ...	75
	350		350

The cases of probationers whose probation does not extend over the full period of two years will be specially considered.

For tours made on the Continent, under the instructions of the Director of Forest Studies, subsistence and travelling allowance will be paid by the Secretary of State for India in Council at such rates as he may from time to time fix. The fees of the local forest officials, at the centres visited will also be paid by the Secretary of State.

The grant of allowances is subject to the following conditions :—

(a) that the progress of the probationer in his studies is satisfactory ;

(b) that the probationer gives security† to refund the payments in the event of his failing to qualify for an appointment in the Indian Forest Service, or not signing the articles of agreement as specified in paragraph 15 or failing to join the Indian Forest Service at the end of the period of probation.

(c) that the probationer undertakes to refund in proportions fixed under the terms of his agreement, the payments, together with the cost of his first-class passage to India, in the event of his leaving the Service during the first 5 years from the date of his appointment.

13. Conduct.—Every probationer is required to conduct himself during the period of probation in a manner satisfactory to the Secretary of State and to give evidence of satisfactory progress in his studies in such a manner as may be required, failing which, or in the event of serious misconduct, he is liable to have his name removed from the list of probationers.

14. Appointment and seniority.—Probationers who comply with the requirements of paragraph 10 within the sanctioned period of time, and also satisfy such other tests as may be prescribed, are appointed Assistant Conservators in the Indian Forest Department, provided they are of sound constitution and free from physical defects which would render them unsuitable for employment in the Indian Forest Service. No probationers will be confirmed as a member of the Imperial Forest Service who fails to profit by the course of training, or who appears, in the light of the experience acquired as to his capacity and qualifications during the probationary period, to be unsuited for the work of a forest officer.

* The Secretary of State for India gives notice that the amount of these allowances will be reconsidered in 1923 with a view to possible reduction with effect from the instalment payable in October 1924.

† Probationers will be required to give security to the Local Government or Political Officer, through whom they submitted their applications. If this condition is not satisfied, they will not be permitted to leave for England.

The position of the Assistant Conservators in the Provincial Forest Lists is determined by the Secretary of State for India in Council on the report of the Director of Indian Forest Studies. Officers promoted from the Provincial to the Imperial Service will take rank according to their pay in the latter service. Probationers recruited under these regulations must consequently be prepared to find their names placed below those of officers promoted from the Provincial Service.

Probationers are allowed at the end of the period of probation to state their preference in respect to the province to which they desire to be allotted; but the distribution is made to the several provinces according to the needs of the public service, at the discretion of the Secretary of State for India in Council and no guarantee can be given that probationers will, on appointment, be posted to their own provinces. Indians will not, however, be required to serve in Burma and Burmans will not be required to serve in India.

Officers are at all times liable to be transferred from one province to another at the pleasure of the Government of India.

15. Articles of agreement.—A probationer is required, on qualifying for appointment as Assistant Conservator, to sign articles of agreement; setting forth the terms and conditions of his appointment; he must embark for India when required to do so by the Secretary of State. Failure to embark at the stated time will, in the absence of satisfactory explanation, lead to forfeiture of appointment.

16. Passage to India.—Each probationer on appointment to the Indian Forest Service is provided with a free first-class passage to India.

17. Salary.—The scale of pay and allowances in force for officers of Indian domicile is given in Appendix II to these regulations.

18. Promotion and pension.—Promotion and pension are governed by the regulations laid down by the Secretary of State for India in Council, and applicable to forest officers, such regulations being subject to any modifications or alterations which may be made in them from time to time by him and their interpretation in case of any doubt arising being left to that authority.

Certain information regarding appointments in the upper controlling staff of the Indian Forest Service will be found in Appendix II, and a summary of information regarding pensions is contained in Appendix III.

APPENDICES.

APPENDIX I.

2. A list of the probationers in order of merit is prepared by adding together (a) the marks obtained at the final examination, and (b) the marks obtained during the course of practical training in forestry under the control of the Director of Indian Forest Studies. ADMINISTRATION REPORT OF THE EXCISE DEPARTMENT, BENGAL, FOR THE YEAR 1921-22.

No. 732Ex.—The 15th February 1923.—The following extracts from the report of the Commissioner of Excise and Salt on the Administration of the Excise Department in Bengal, during the year 1921-22, are published for general information.

J. T. DONOVAN,

Secretary to the Government of Bengal (offg.).

No. 6108E., dated Calcutta, the 25th November 1922.

From—S. C. MUKERJEE, ESQ., I.C.S., Commissioner of Excise and Salt, Bengal,

To—The Secretary to the Government of Bengal, Department of Agriculture and Industries.

I HAVE the honour to submit the following report on the administration of the Excise Department in the Presidency of Bengal for the year 1921-22.

I was in charge of the department from the 1st April 1921 to the 27th July 1921, when I went away on leave. Rai S. K. Raha Bahadur, Deputy Commissioner of Excise and Salt, officiated during my absence and held charge during the remainder of the year.

4. Administrative changes and reforms.—(1) Under Government notifications Nos. 1509 Ex., dated the 25th April 1921, 2259 Ex., dated the 22nd June 1921, and 457 Ex., dated the 30th January 1922, certain medicinal preparations containing morphia and opium to a very small quantity have been exempted from the restrictions imposed by the rules under section 5 of the Opium Act (I of 1878), as they are intended for use purely for medicinal purposes.

(2) Under Government notification No. 2292 Ex., dated the 25th June 1921, brandy (vinum gallicii), upon which the full tariff or excise duty has been paid, when sold by a chemist, druggist or doctor in any quantity not exceeding four ounces on the prescription of a qualified medical practitioner, or for a bonâ fide medicinal purpose in a case of emergency involving risk to life, has been exempted from the provisions of the Excise Act relating to possession and sale.

*   *   *   *   *

(5) The Bengal fixed-fee system of settlement of excise and opium shops, which was in force in eleven of the districts of Bengal in the previous year, was introduced in the remaining sixteen districts of Birbhum, Bankura, Nadia, Murshidabad, Jessore, Khulna, Faridpur, Bakarganj, Chittagong, Noakhali, Tippera, Rajshahi, Dinajpur, Bogra, Pabna and Malda, with effect from the 1st October 1921. The following statutory changes were made on this occasion, namely :—

(i) Under Government notifications Nos. 3806 Ex., dated the 27th September 1921, and 3864 Ex., dated the 29th September 1921, the rates of duty on country spirit were enhanced throughout the Presidency.

(ii) Under Government notifications Nos. 3808 Ex. and 3807 Ex., dated the 27th September 1921, the rates of prices for the retail sale of country spirit, ganja, bhang, charas and opium have been fixed in those districts in which such fixed prices were not in force previously and enhanced in those districts in which they were already in force.

(iii) Under Government notification No. 3737 Ex., dated the 24th September 1921, the rates of minimum prices for the retail sale of foreign liquor have been enhanced to prevent undue competition of cheap brands of foreign liquor with country spirit the fixed retail prices whereof have been increased.

(6) For the better control of the consumption of foreign liquor, the following administrative changes were made during the year :—

(i) Under Government notification No. 3738 Ex., dated the 24th September 1921, passes have been prescribed—

(a) for the import or export of duty-paid foreign liquors into or from Bengal by licensed dealers, and

(ii) Under Government notification No. 3739 Ex., dated the 24th September 1921, the provision in the Statutory Rules exempting hotels, restaurants and bars from keeping accounts in the prescribed form has been withdrawn.

(iii) Under Government notification No. 3740 Ex., dated the 24th September 1921, the Excise Commissioner has been empowered to fix the fee for a wholesale license for the vend of foreign liquor not to be drunk on the premises in the Calcutta district instead of the statutory fixed-fee that was in force before.

(iv) A fixed-fee system of settlement of foreign liquor shops has been introduced from the 1st April 1922. Under this system the noticeable points are—

(a) The abolition of the previous classifications of "Wholesale," "Combined" and "Retail" foreign liquor licenses and the substitution in their place of a "License for sale to the trade" and a "License for sale to the public." The licenses for hotels, restaurants, bars and railway refreshment rooms are to be treated as "Licenses for sale to the public."

(b) All transactions between licensed dealers of foreign liquor, either of Bengal or of any other province, would have to be covered by a pass.

(c) The license fee or license tax "for sale to the trade" is to be an annual fixed fee of Rs. 200 payable in advance and "for sale to the public" is to be the amount assessed every month at certain fixed rates on the quantity of liquor sold to the public during the month.

* * * * *

(8) Under Government notification No. 4238 Ex., dated the 7th November 1921, the limit of ganja allowable for transport from Chittagong Hill Tracts for private consumption has been reduced from five tolas to three tolas, as the latter limit was fixed for private possession in Bengal.

(9) Under Government notification No. 82 Ex., dated the 5th January 1922, the treasury price of excise opium in all districts in the Presidency of Bengal has been raised, with effect from the 1st April 1922, from Rs. 60 to Rs. 63 per seer owing to the rise in its cost price.

(10) Under Government notification No. 1030 Ex., dated the 1st March 1922, the rates of duty imposed on foreign liquors under section 27 of the Bengal Excise Act, 1909 (Bengal Act V of 1909), were raised with the rise of the tariff rates of duty on imported liquors.

5. Temperance teaching in schools.—Lessons on temperance are incorporated in books on hygiene for use in the middle and upper primary stages of the English and vernacular schools. The revised curriculum for primary schools, which will come into operation from January 1923, does not provide for these lessons.

6. Temperance movements.—Important temperance movements marked the year under report. Two resolutions were moved in the Bengal Legislative Council—one for the application of the principle of local option to municipal areas as one of the measures for restriction of consumption of intoxicating liquor and drugs, and the other aiming at the total prohibition of drink in Bengal. The former resolution was adopted by the Council, and the latter was rejected. The question of taking steps to give effect to the resolution adopted is under consideration.

The orders of Government passed in March 1921 on the recommendations of the Calcutta Temperance Federation reducing the limit of retail sale of country spirit and curtailing the hours of sale of excisable articles and opium, came into effect during the year under report. After the adoption of the local option resolution by the Council, the Federation came up with proposals for some more changes in the system of administration—one of which was for the reconstitution of the Calcutta Licensing Board, for which a proposal has been submitted to Government.

The temperance movement organised in 1915 at Teknaaf in the district of Chittagong, mentioned in previous years' reports, continued during the year as before. The result was that opium was consumed in moderation.

Besides the above, reports have been received from most of the districts in the Presidency regarding the anti-drink agitation in connection with the non-co-operation movement. In addition to the ordinary picketing of excise and opium shops, reports of intimidation, coercion, social persecution and other forms of interference with the freedom of both the sellers and the purchasers of excisable articles have been received from many districts. No doubt the Government revenue was for the time being affected by this agitation, but on the whole it does not appear to have left any permanent change for the better as regards the habitual consumers of these articles. From the district reports it appears that in some cases the habitual consumers, when they found that the liquor shops which they used to resort to were picketed, had recourse to ganja or opium or went to other shops at a distance. At the close of the year, this condition of affairs seems to have stopped and normal conditions appear to have generally returned.

As stated in previous reports, this department will heartily co-operate with all reasonable temperance movements, and several proofs of such co-operation have already been given.

7. Excise Licensing Boards.—In the Calcutta district, the Licensing Boards held their usual meetings to decide, after consideration of objections, the number and location of shops for the retail sale of excisable articles and to discuss other cognate matters.

The Calcutta Licensing Board held five meetings during the year, and the Cossipore-Chitpur, Maniktala, Howrah and Bally Licensing Boards held two meetings each. The Calcutta Licensing Board changed the sites of two combined foreign liquor "off" licenses, two restaurant licenses and one tari license and abolished one foreign liquor "off" license with effect from the 1st April 1922 and sanctioned hotel licenses to two of the restaurants with effect from the same date. This Board also discussed the present time-limit of temporary bar licenses granted on occasions of social gatherings and other entertainments and the desirability of granting such licenses to the same person frequently without any restriction. The Board held that such licenses might on extraordinary occasions be granted up to 1-30 A.M., but the present time-limit of 11 P.M. should not be exceeded as an ordinary rule and held that so long as the dances were properly conducted and the license was not granted beyond 11 P.M. there was no need to restrict the frequency of licenses granted to any one person.

The Cossipore-Chitpur Licensing Board disapproved the existing site of a tari shop, which has since been removed to a better site.

The Howrah Licensing Board sanctioned the abolition, with effect from the 1st July 1922, of one country spirit shop against which there was some strong local objection.

The Maniktala and Bally Licensing Boards, after consideration of all objections and opinions, did not propose any change in the number and location of shops in their jurisdictions.

8. Excise Advisory Committees.—In areas outside the Calcutta district, local Excise Advisory Committees were convened to advise the Collectors as regards the number and location of the excise and opium shops. All their recommendations were carefully considered and mostly given effect to. Twenty-two country spirit shops, three tari shops, one pachwai shop, nineteen ganja shops and three opium shops were abolished ; the sites of twenty-three country spirit shops, eight tari shops, four pachwai shops, eight ganja shops and four opium shops were changed ; and one pachwai shop, one ganja shop and one opium shop were newly opened in accordance with their advice.

9. Total revenue and charges * * * * * * —The Excise revenue and charges of the Presidency for the last five years are shown below :—

Period.	Revenue.	Charges.	Net revenue.	Percentage of charges.
	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.	Rs.
1917-18	1,56,25,391	10,32,941	1,45,92,450	6·61
1918-19	1,76,38,246	10,57,674	1,65,80,572	5·99
1919-20	1,81,08,448	11,58,629	1,69,49,819	6·39
1920-21	1,96,33,317	12,00,702	1,84,32,615	6·11

Difference of the past two years.	−12,82,421	+2,51,427	−15,33,848	+1·80

11. Actual receipts.—Deducting the advance collections (Rs. 95,758) for 1922-23 and adding the revenue (Rs. 4,77,772) which was collected in advance in 1920-21, the actual receipts on account of 1921-22 were Rs. 1,87,32,910 against Rs. 1,96,93,824 (after similar adjustment) of the preceding year, showing a decrease of Rs. 9,60,914 or 4·87 per cent.

12. Excise charges * * * —The total expenditure of the Excise and Salt Department, excluding refunds, shows an increase of Rs. 2,24,141 as compared with 1920-21. The principal increases occurred under the heads of "salaries and establishments" (Rs. 2,09,762) and "contingencies and special charges" (Rs. 73,007). The increase under the former head was mainly due to revision of pay of Deputy Commissioners, Superintendents, Inspectors, Sub-Inspectors and menials on the new time-scale sanctioned; whilst that of the latter was due to the thorough repairs which had to be carried out to the steam-launches "Emily" and "Maud Evelyn."

13. Revenue under different heads * * * * * —Revenue decreased under all the heads except "receipts from commercial spirits", "pachwai", "beer" and "miscellaneous". The largest decrease of revenue (Rs. 4,77,801) occurred under the head "country spirit", "total receipts from hemp drugs" come next with a decrease of Rs. 3,47,182, followed by "wines and spirits" (foreign liquors other than beer, medicated wines and commercial spirits) Rs. 2,58,508, opium (Rs. 1,84,983) and tari (Rs. 1,32,010). The largest increase (Rs. 1,06,938) occurred under "commercial spirits including medicated wines."

14. Demand and collection * * * * —Of the gross demand of Rs. 1,84,21,398 a sum of Rs. 1,83,50,896 or 99·61 per cent. was realised. Rupees 27,501 was remitted as irrecoverable. Taking the population of the Presidency of Bengal, according to the census of 1911, to be 45,329,247, the incidence of excise revenue (exclusive of revenue derived from issues of excisable articles to other provinces, Native States and foreign countries) was 6 annas 5 pies against 6 annas 10 pies in the previous year. The population according to the last (1921) census is 46,522,293, and the incidence of excise revenue comes to 6 annas 3 pies.

15. Results of Settlements for the current year up to 31st May 1922.— * * * * * *

The settlements for the current year 1922-23 show a net decrease of Rs. 8,38,304. The results under the different heads are as follows :—

	Rs.
Country spirit	- 5,42,827
Foreign liquor	- 20,387
Fermented tari	- 94,179
Pachwai retail	+ 20,027
Opium	- 1,39,675
Hemp drugs	- 61,263

There was a general decrease in license fees under all the heads except pachwai. The decrease is mainly due to the introduction of the fixed-fee system throughout the Presidency with effect from 1st October 1921, under which advance fees were not realized in the same proportion as in the previous years and to some extent to the non-co-operation movement.

* * * * *

SECTION II.—COUNTRY LIQUOR.

* * * * *

COUNTRY SPIRIT.

17. System.—There was no change in the system of supply.

18. Country spirit licenses.—The number of licenses for the sale of country spirit was 1,032 as compared with 1,120 in 1920-21. After the introduction of the Bengal fixed-fee system in the remaining 16 districts of the Presidency with effect from the 1st October 1921, ten shops in Jessore, nine in Khulna. eight in Nadia, seven in Bankura, six each in Faridpur, Bakarganj, Chittagong and Dinajpur, four each in Rajshahi and Bogra, three each in Murshidabad, Tippera and Noakhali, and two each in Dacca, Pabna and Malda were closed as the demand in those shops was small, and it was considered unnecessary to maintain them. One shop in the district of Bankura and two in Midnapore remained unsettled. The Advisory Committees recommended the abolition of one shop in the district of Nadia and three in Tippera, and their recommendations were carried out.

19. The Fixed-Fee system in Calcutta.—The system worked well. The revenue derived from license fees decreased on account of the fall in consumption, while that from duty increased owing to the enhancement of the rate of duty from the 1st October 1921. It is satisfactory to note that instead of a heavy fall which was expected the total revenue of the year under report exceeded that of the preceding year by Rs. 1,41,782 or 3·2 per cent. In the first week of November 1921, there was a revival of the anti-drink movement attended with the picketing of liquor shops. It was, however, not continued for more than three weeks, and by the end of the month the movement seems to have subsided. The conduct of the licensees was on the whole satisfactory. The limit of retail sale was reduced from one to half imperial gallon with effect from the 1st April 1921.

20. The Fixed-Fee system in other districts.—The Bengal fixed-fee system which was already in force in 12 districts of the province, as mentioned in paragraph 20 of last year's report, was extended to the remaining 16 districts of the Presidency, viz., Bankura, Birbhum, Nadia, Murshidabad, Jessore, Khulna, Faridpur, Bakarganj, Chittagong, Tippera, Noakhali, Rajshahi, Bogra, Pabna, Dinajpur and Malda, with effect from the 1st October 1921. The extension of the system was followed by an appreciable decrease in consumption due to the increased rates of duty and retail price, to the higher price of the stuff itself, and to the temperance movement. It is hoped, however, that illicit practices have not increased.

21. Consumption.—The total consumption of country spirit in the Presidency amounted to 5,99,415 proof gallons as compared with 766,572 proof gallons in the preceding year, a decrease of 167,157 proof gallons.

Consumption increased in two districts and decreased in 25. Outside Calcutta the decrease in consumption in Malda (10,768 proof gallons or 58·8 per cent.) was due to the non-co-operation movement and the picketing of shops, in Dinajpur (7,841 proof gallons or 50·2 per cent.) due almost entirely to the picketing of shops, in Bankura (18,264 proof gallons or 46·4 per cent.) due to the increased rates of duty and the retail prices, combined with the slump in the lac business, in Bakarganj (2,561 proof gallons or 45·8 per cent.) due to the economic difficulties of the people, in Jalpaiguri (9,181 proof gallons or 45·06 per cent.) due to the decreased earnings of the tea garden coolies, in Tippera (3,531 proof gallons or 42·3 per cent.) due to the general inclination of the consumers to avoid drinking as an effect of the temperance movement, in Pabna (3,386 proof gallons or 39·7 per cent.) due to the enhancement of the retail prices of liquor, in Bogra (3,575 proof gallons or 38·3 per cent.) due to the temperance movement and the guarding of shops by picketers, in Rangpur (4,245 proof gallons or 37·7 per cent.) due to the picketing of shops by the non-co-operation volunteers as well as to the smuggling of outstill liquor from the shops in Cooch Behar and distillery liquor from Goalpara border shops at a cheaper price, in Murshidabad (4,994 proof gallons or 30·9 per cent.) due to the higher price of the stuff and the temperance movement, in Rajshahi (3,005 proof gallons or 29·2 per cent.) due to the increase in sale price and the temperance movement in connection with the non-co-operation agitation, in Darjeeling (8,018 proof gallons or 28·04 per cent.) due to the slump in work in tea gardens, in Birbhum (2,377 proof gallons or 27·05 per cent.) due to the prevailing high prices of the necessaries of life, in 24-Parganas (18,115 proof gallons or 25·8 per cent.) due to the pressure of the temperance movement.

The only increase occurred in the districts of Burdwan and Nadia during the year. In Burdwan the increase (6,355 proof gallons or 16·04 per cent.) was due to higher rates of wages paid to miners and labourers of all classes and to the development of new industries in the Asansol subdivision. In Nadia the increase (1,266 proof gallons or 12·01 per cent.) is ascribed to the better supervision by the inspecting staff over the licensees.

22. Total revenue from country spirit.—The total revenue—license and distillery fees and duty—from country spirit was Rs. 85,19,512 against Rs. 89,97,313, a decrease of Rs. 4,77,801. The revenue derived from duty and distillery fees increased by Rs. 3,011, and that from license fees decreased by Rs. 4,80,812.

23. Convictions for drunkenness and action taken against licensees for permitting it.— * * * * * * * * * * * * * * In Calcutta 5,599 persons were convicted of drunkenness as compared with 7,836 persons in the previous year, but no statistics were taken to show what proportions of these cases were due to country spirit, tari and foreign liquor respectively. The Commissioner of Police, Calcutta, attributes the cause of the decrease in the drunkenness in the town and suburbs to the reduced sale of liquor owing to the activities of the non-co-operators. Four cases were reported, one from each of the districts of Nadia, Faridpur, Bakarganj and Bogra, in which the vendors of country spirit had permitted drunkenness and disorderly conduct in or near their licensed premises. All these cases were dealt with under section 65 of the Bengal Excise Act. One pachwai vendor in Midnapore and one tari vendor in Calcutta were similarly dealt with.

24. Distilleries and warehouses.—There was no change in the number of contract distillers. Under Government order No. 440, dated 26th January 1922, the contractors, Messrs. Haji Ismail Sait and Sons and Messrs. Carew & Co., were allowed to recoup themselves by the addition of seven annas per L. P. gallon to their cost price of country spirit with effect from the 1st February 1922 until the losses alleged to have been incurred by them during the years 1919-20 and 1920-21, are wiped off. A pure yeast culture apparatus of Hansen's pattern is being set up at the Union distillery with a view to obtaining a better yield per maund of materials used. On the recommendation of the Sanitary Department the spent wash discharged from the Russa distillery into Tolly's Nullah is being treated with lime, and the colloidal matter allowed to settle in specially made tanks before the wash is run into the Nullah pending the connection of the distillery with the Calcutta main sewerage drain in course of the current year. The water used in the Pabna warehouse is not reported to be of good quality.

On several occasions the supplies from distilleries to the bonded warehouses fell short of the prescribed minimum, and in some cases the position threatened to be serious. There was, however, no actual difficulty in supplying the retail vendors, and no shop had to remain closed for want of supply.

TARI.

* * * * *

26. The tree tax system in Hooghly and Howrah.—The tree tax system which was introduced in the Sadar and Serampur subdivisions of the Hooghly district and the whole of the Howrah district (with the exception of the areas included in the Calcutta district) in the year 1918-19, continued in the same areas during the year under report.

In Hooghly there was no difficulty in settling the shops. As explained last year, the manufacture of gur or molasses is said to have declined considerably in this district owing to the restrictions under the tree tax system, but this system undoubtedly keeps a control over the consumption of fermented tari. It is reported that the system is not very popular with the vendors who have resorted to the practice of watering the tari in order to save their expenses on the tree tax and the increased rents of the trees demanded by the owners. The total number of tree-tapping licenses issued were :—

(1) Number issued on application of vendors ...	1,048	854
(2) Number issued to tappers on their own application	Nil	Nil
(3) Number issued to tree owners for domestic consumption	1,617	6,823

The fermented tari revenue of the district decreased by Rs. 935 owing to considerable reductions allowed in license fees on account of reduced sales brought about by the anti-drink movement.

In Howrah also there was no difficulty in settling the shops, and as the Collector states, the general public are gradually getting accustomed to the system; but as in the last year, the tree owners were demanding increased rent for their trees. The number of tree-tapping licenses issued were :—

	1920-21.	1921-22.
(1) Number issued on application of vendors ...	1,760	1,363
(2) Number issued to tappers on their own application	2	Nil
(3) Number issued to tree owners for domestic consumption	2,715	5,736

The tari revenue of the district shows an increase of Rs. 5,988, though there was a decrease under the head "License fees" owing to the shops being settled at lower rates than in the previous year. But the receipt under the head "Tree-tax" was Rs. 45,283 against Rs. 29,907 during the last year. Out of this amount, Rs. 20,508 were paid by tree owners for domestic consumption against Rs. 8,678 paid in the previous year. The Collector considers the system to have been a financial success.

27. Statistics.—The total number of licenses issued for the sale of fermented and fresh tari decreased from 2,114 to 1,032, and the total receipts from Rs. 5,36,403 to Rs. 4,04,393.

28. Fermented tari.—The number of fermented tari licenses decreased from 620 to 586. The chief decreases occurred in Hooghly, Howrah, 24-Parganas and Calcutta, by 5, 3, 15 and 5 licenses respectively. The bulk of the fermented tari revenue was derived from the Burdwan and Presidency Divisions which contributed Rs. 3,74,371 out of a total revenue under this head of Rs. 4,02,235. This amount includes Rs. 20,946 and Rs. 17,112 as license fees, and Rs. 41,495 and Rs. 45,283 on account of tree tax for the districts of Hooghly and Howrah respectively. License fees including the tree tax fees decreased by Rs. 1,29,360 due to considerable remissions granted of license fees for decreased sales brought about by the anti-drink propaganda in connection with the non-co-operation agitation. The decrease was most marked in Burdwan (Rs. 2,522), Midnapore (Rs. 1,788), 24-Parganas (Rs. 40,609), Calcutta (Rs. 53,040), Dacca (Rs. 3,097), Mymensingh (Rs. 1,043), Dinajpur (Rs. 6,199), and Malda (Rs. 23,866), while there was an increase of Rs. 5,988 in Howrah.

29. Fresh tari licenses.—The number of fresh tari licenses decreased from 1,494 to 446, and the revenue from Rs. 4,808 to Rs. 2,158. The decrease in the number of licenses and revenue is due to the withdrawal of excise restrictions on unfermented date juice as an experimental measure in the districts of Dacca, Mymensingh, Faridpur, Bakarganj, Chittagong, Noakhali, Tippera, Hooghly, Howrah, 24-Parganas, Jessore and Murshidabad. The concession has ultimately been extended to all the districts in this Presidency with certain conditions for the tree tax area, viz., fresh date juice will not be drawn except in vessels coated with lime under Government order No. 115 T. A. I., dated 13th June 1922.

PACHWAI.

30. Licenses.—The total number of licenses issued for retail sale, home-brewing (annual) and manufacture on special occasions was 17,304 as compared with 36,222 in 1920-21.

	1920-21.	1921-22.
Retail sale	1,239	1,229
Home-brewing (annual)	34,538	15,624
Manufacture on special occasions ...	445	451

Owing to the enhanced retail price of the lower strength of country spirit, some of the lower classes in the districts of Bankura, Midnapore and Hooghly who cannot afford to pay for country spirits have taken to pachwai.

31. Fixed-fee System.—The Bengal fixed-fee system has been working very satisfactorily in the Asansol subdivision of the district of Burdwan since its introduction in the latter part of the year 1919-20. Out of Rs. 6,46,041, the total pachwai revenue of the district, Rs. 5,40,272. was derived exclusively from the Asansol subdivision.

From 1st April 1922 the system has also been introduced in the remaining portions of the Burdwan district and in the districts of Birbhum, Bankura, Midnapore, Hooghly, Murshidabad and Darjeeling for shops as noted in paragraph 2 (7) of this Report.

32. Revenue.—The revenue from retail license fees increased from Rs. 9,60,834 to Rs. 10,08,912. Pachwai occupies the first place in respect of excise revenue in the districts of Burdwan and Birbhum. There was an increase in the former district (Rs. 63,729), which was mainly due to the successful working of the pachwai shops in the Asansol subdivision as well as to larger consumption by miners and labourers of other classes, whose wages have gone up. The decrease was heavy in the districts of Bankura, Midnapore, 24-Parganas, Murshidabad, Rajshahi, Dinajpur, Jalpaiguri, Rangpur, Bogra, Malda and Darjeeling which was mainly due to the prevalence of the anti-drink agitation of the non-co-operation movement.

The revenue from home-brewing licenses decreased from Rs. 57,827 to Rs. 28,673 due to the anti-drink movement.

The Collector of Customs, Calcutta, explains the statistics for the Port of Calcutta in 1921-22 as follows :—

"Ale, beer and porter.—With a great increase in importations from Germany from 8,934 to 75,961 gallons and some revival in the Japanese trade, from 106,150 to 135,555 gallons, there has been a decline by 42,559 gallons to 517,027 gallons in imports from the United Kingdom, the total for all countries showing an advance of 46,982 gallons or 6 per cent. to 778,283 gallons.

Spirits.—Several causes—the increased duty, the picketing of liquor shops by non-co-operators and the restriction of credits granted to Indian merchants by French export houses—have conspired to reduce the trade in brandy by more than half to 43,071 liquid gallons ; as usual, nine-tenths came from France. Higher duty and leaner purses reduced the consumption of whisky, and dealers began the year with too large stocks ; imports fell from 229,131 to 196,115 gallons, though clearances direct and from bond fell by some 13,000 gallons only. Imports from other countries than the United Kingdom were negligible. Stocks of rum in bond at the beginning of the year were 147,426 gallons, and during the year 97,530 gallons were added : out of these quantities 85,447 gallons were cleared after denaturing in bond and 25,920 gallons as potable spirit. As the table shows, a further quantity of 116,671 gallons was denatured on importation.

Wines.—A period of trade depression has had a very adverse effect on this trade in all wines except vermouth. imports of which showed some advance from 17,679 gallons to 22,416 gallons."

The Customs Department have kindly furnished the following statistics of imports and issues on payment of duty of potable foreign spirits at the Calcutta Custom House :—

Year.	Imported (L. P. gallons).				Issued on payment of duty (L. P. gallons).

WINES AND SPIRITS (OTHER THAN MEDICATED WINES AND COMMERCIAL SPIRITS) AND BEER.

36. Licenses and Revenue.—The total number of licenses issued for wholesale and retail vend was 810 against 727 in the preceding year. There were increases under heads "Restaurant" (1), "Bars" (2), "Temporary bars" (53), "Late closing" (36) and "Dining cars" (1) and decreases under heads "Wholesale" (3), "Retail off" (3) and "Steamers" (4). Large increases under heads "Temporary bars" and "Late closing" occurred in Calcutta and were due to the festivities in connection with the visit of His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to the City in December last.

The total receipts from license fees amounted to Rs. 3,24,159 against Rs. 3,22,358 in the previous year.

The receipts from duty were Rs. 7,74,768 against Rs. 10,35,077 in the preceding year. The heavy fall in duty was mainly due to the abnormal fall in the consumption of Indian-made foriegn liquors on account of the enhancement in the rate of duty.

37. Rum and other potable foreign liquors manufactured in India.—The following quantities of rum and other potable foreign liquors manufactured in India were issued during the year from distilleries and excise warehouses in Bengal :—

Place of manufacture.	Issued on payment of duty.	Issued at the concession rate of duty.	Issued duty free.

Asansol rum was issued at the concession rate of duty to the Canteen President, 2nd Battalion, Assam Rifles.

Duty-free issues of rum were made to the Medical College Hospital and to the Campbell Medical School, Calcutta.

38. Locally-manufactured beer.—The two breweries licensed in the preceding year took out licenses also during the year under report, but only the brewery at Sonada manufactured beer during the year. Owing to the difficulty of obtaining barley, the brewery at St. Mary's Seminary, Kurseong, remained closed throughout the year, though a license was taken by the Curator.

Duty was charged on 15,766 gallons against 11,?01 gallons in the preceding year. Of this quantity, 7,884 gallons was sold to the military authorities and 7,882 gallons to the licensed vendors of foreign liquors and to the public.

Receipts from license fees and duty amounted to Rs. 6,405 against Rs. 3,400 in the previous year.

MEDICATED WINES AND RECTIFIED SPIRITS.

39. Licenses and Revenue.—The number of licenses for the retail sale of medicated wines and rectified spirits were 148 and 36, respectively, against 158 and 34 in the previous year. The revenue from license fees was Rs. 9,300 against Rs. 9,000 in the preceding year.

40. Manufacture and issue of rectified spirits.—Rectified spirits were manufactured in the distilleries at Asansol, Konnagore, Russa and Bahir-Mirzapur Road, Calcutta.

The following quantities of rectified spirits were issued during the year for medicinal, industrial and scientific purposes from distilleries and excise warehouses in Bengal:—

Place of manufacture.	On payment of duty.	Duty-free.	For manufacture of tinctures and absolute alcohol in bonded laboratories.
	L. P. gallons.	L. P. gallons.	L. P. gallons.
Konnagore	6,444	2,788	4,349
Russa	7,335	32	...
Bahir-Mirzapur Road ...	1,729	176	11,703

Out of the above quantities issued on payment of duty, 4,063 gallons of Asansol spirit, 425 gallons of Russa spirit and 6 gallons of Bahir-Mirzapur spirit were issued at the concession rate of Rs. 5 per L. P. gallon. The introduction of the reduced rate of duty for medicinal purposes in March 1921 gave a great impetus to this branch of industry. This concession was granted not only to some Allopathic firms but also to Homeopathic firms and Kabirajes. Duty-free issues of Asansol spirit were made to the Director, Botanical Survey of India, to the Director, Zoological Survey of India, to the Superintendent, Ammunition Factory, Dum-Dum, to the Officer in charge, Mathematical Survey of India, and to the Chemical Examiner for Customs and Excise, Calcutta; of Konnagore spirit to the Officer in charge, Medical Store Depôt, to the Superintendent, Dum-Dum Ammunition Factory, to the Principal, St. Joseph's College, and to the Photo-Zinco Office, Poona; of Russa spirit, to the Agricultural Chemist, Dacca, to the Fibre Expert, Dacca, to the Controller of Printing and Stamps, Calcutta, and to the Ammunition Factory, Dum-Dum; and of Bahir-Mirzapur spirit, to the Presidency College, Calcutta, to the Calcutta Corporation, to the Dacca University, to the Botanical Laboratory, University College of Science, Calcutta, to the Campbell Hospital and to the Principal, Bethune College, Calcutta.

Duty-free issues were also made through Messrs. Smith. Stanistreet & Co., Messrs. B. K. Pal & Co., and Dr. K. C. Bose from the warehouses attached to their bonded laboratories to charitable dispensaries in Bengal, Bihar and Orissa, and Assam.

41. Manufacture of tinctures, etc., in bonded laboratories.—Five bonded laboratories manufactured tinctures, etc., during the year under report. Duty was paid on 41,333 proof gallons of spirit contained in tinctures and medicinal preparations issued from the five laboratories, whilst medicinal preparations containing 11,383 proof gallons of spirit were issued duty free to charitable dispensaries in the various provinces.

SECTION IV.—Hemp drugs.

* * * * *

GANJA.

47. Retail Licenses.—The total number of licenses issued in the Presidency for the retail sale of ganja was 1,206 as compared with 1,267 in 1920-21. Seventeen shops were abolished in Khulna, nine in Nadia, eight in Jessore, six in Dinajpur, four in each of the districts of Faridpur and Bakarganj, three in each of the districts of Bankura, Murshidabad, Tippera, Bogra and Pabna, two in Malda, and one in each of the districts of Noakhali and Rajshahi as being unnecessary. Two new shops were opened in each of the districts of Hooghly and Dacca, and one in each of the districts of Burdwan and the 24-Parganas, with the approval of the Advisory Committees, to meet logitimate demands. The revenue from license fees amounted to Rs. 20,05,216 against Rs. 22,09,171 in the previous year.

48. Consumption of ganja.—The total quantity of ganja consumed in the Presidency amounted to 1,638 maunds 7 seers as compared with 1,840 maunds 26 seers in 1920-21, a decrease of 202 maunds 19 seers. Consumption decreased in twenty-two districts and increased in five. The greater part of the decrease occurred in the Dacca, Chittagong and Rajshahi Divisions. The decrease exceeded 10 per cent. in seven districts, viz., Murshidabad, Khulna, Mymensingh, Bakarganj, Chittagong, Pabna and Darjeeling, and 20 per cent. in Tippera (31¾ maunds or 35·59), Malda (19¾ maunds or 34·29), Jalpaiguri (9½ maunds or 32·75), Dinajpur (22½ maunds or 31·35), Rangpur (20 maunds or 30·88), Bogra (17 maunds or 29·49), Rajshahi (21 maunds or 25·32) and Birbhum (8 maunds or 21·87). Elsewhere in which a large decrease also occurred is Dacca (9 maunds 29 seers). The decrease in consumption was partly due to the temperance movement in connection with the non-co-operation agitation and partly to the enhanced retail selling prices of the drug from 1st October 1921. The abolition of a large number of shops also, to some extent, accounted for the fall in the consumption.

The increase exceeded 10 per cent. only in two districts: Burdwan (8¼ maunds or 13·49) and Howrah (5 maunds or 12·97). It exceeded 3 maunds in Calcutta (9 maunds 27 seers), 24-Parganas (5 maunds 17 seers) and Hooghly (3 maunds 26 seers). The increase in Burdwan is reported to have been due to higher rates of wages paid to miners and labourers of all classes and to the development of industries in the Asansol subdivision. From Howrah it has been reported that the increase in consumption was due to a certain extent to the fact that many of the liquor consumers indulged in the smoking of ganja owing to the high price of country spirit. The increase in the 24-Parganas and Hooghly was due to the fact that people have resorted to ganja as a substitute for liquor which they have given up owing to the influence of the non-co-operation movement. The increase of 9 maunds 27 seers in Calcutta is negligible.

49. Total revenue.—The total receipts for the year amounted to Rs. 34,33,436 against Rs. 38,16,458 in 1920-21, a decrease of Rs. 3,83,022. The revenue from license fees decreased by Rs. 2,03,955 and that from duty by Rs. 1,79,067.

50. Incidence of Taxation.—Incidence of license fees per seer of ganja consumed was Rs. 30·6 and that of duty Rs. 20. The total taxation was Rs. 50·6 as compared with Rs. 50 in the previous year.

* * * * *

53. Cultivation and outturn of ganja at Naugaon in Rajshahi.—The number of applications to cultivate ganja received last season (1922) was 3,743 for an area of 7,332 bighas as compared with 2,542 applications for an area of 3,958 bighas in the previous year. Two thousand eight hundred and sixty-four licenses covering an area of 2,799 bighas 16 cottahs and 8 chittaks were granted as compared with 1,993 licenses covering an area of 2,802 bighas 4 cottahs and 10 chittaks in 1920-21. The area actually cultivated with ganja was 2,800 bighas 13 cottahs and 4 chittaks against 2,700 bighas and 14 chittaks in the preceding year. The area under cultivation was sufficiently tested and as a result a very large number of cases of changes of plots was detected. These changes of plots are, however, reported to have been due to bonâ fide mistake of the cultivators. Three amins were appointed by the Co-operative Society to help the cultivators in measuring their licensed lands, but as the appointments were not made in time, the result was not very satisfactory. A suggestion has been made for the timely appointment of three well-qualified amins for the next ganja season (1923). The prospects of the crop were favourable at the beginning, but want of rain was felt in December 1921 and irrigation had been resorted to. In January 1922 a kind of caterpillar called "Hirkata" appeared all over the ganja mahal, and damaged the flowering tops to such an extent that it affected the outturn both in quantity and quality. The total quantity of ganja stored in the public golas amounted to 5,339 maunds 13 seers 7 chittaks as compared with 6,847 maunds 29 seers and 1 chittak in the preceding season.

BHANG.

58. Licenses and Revenue.—The number of retail licenses in the year under report was 266 against 261 in 1920-21. Two shops were opened in the 24-Parganas and three in Dacca—all with the approval of the Advisory Committees—to meet ascertained local demand. The total number of druggists' permits issued was 381 as compared with 355 in the preceding year. There were noticeable increases in the Presidency (9), Dacca (10) and Rajshahi (8) Divisions. The total revenue from license fees and duty amounted to Rs. 1,91,500 as compared with Rs 1,77,635, an increase of Rs. 13,865.

59. Consumption.—There was, as in the previous year, an appreciable demand for bhang in most of the Western Bengal districts. In Eastern Bengal, as usual, Dacca was the only district in which there was noticeable issue of the drug. Elsewhere the consumption was very small. The drug is generally used in the preparation of a drink by some sections of the community. It is also used in the preparation of Kabiraji medicines. The total consumption in the Presidency amounted to 674 maunds 13 seers against 780 maunds 3 seers in the previous year, a decrease of 105 maunds 30 seers. The decrease exceeded 5 maunds in Calcutta (56 maunds 20 seers), 24-Parganas (18 maunds 35 seers) and Midnapore (8 maunds 34 seers) and was due to the increase in the retail price, consequent upon the introduction of the fixed-fee system throughout the Presidency.

Two maunds and twenty seers of duty-paid bhang were exported from Hooghly to French Chandernagore. Tippera supplied 17 seers to the adjoining State of Tripura.

CHARAS.

60. Licenses and Revenue.—The total number of retail licenses was 30 against 29 in the preceding year. An additional shop was opened in Birbhum to meet the demand. Two wholesale licenses were in force against four in the previous year. The margin of profit in the wholesale business is small whereas comparatively large capital is required. For this reason one wholesale license remained unsettled in Calcutta, while another at Dinajpur was abolished with effect from 1st October 1921 as being unnecessary. The total revenue amounted to Rs. 86,309 as compared with Rs. 67,693 in 1920-21, an increase of Rs. 18,616.

61. Imports, Exports and Consumption.—The total quantity of charas imported into Bengal was 28 maunds 27 seers against 23 maunds 33 seers in the preceding year. The wholesale dealers of Calcutta and Birbhum, as usual, imported the drug direct from the Punjab and supplied the retail vendors in the other districts.

The total issues to retail shops in the Presidency amounted to 27 maunds 28 seers as compared with 24 maunds 18 seers in 1920-21. There was a noticeable fluctuation in Calcutta—an increase of 2 maunds 19 seers, which has, however, been reported by the Collector not to be abnormal. The apparent increase, it has been stated, is due to the comparison with the low figures of consumption in 1920-21 owing to shortage of supply from May to July 1920, on account of the strike on the North-Western Railway, as reported last year.

The use of charas is practically confined to Western Bengal districts and its use in Eastern Bengal is extremely limited. There is one shop in each of the districts of Dacca, Bakarganj and Dinajpur. The consumers of the drug come from different sections of the community, but it is consumed chiefly by Punjabis, Peshwaries and up-countrymen of the labouring classes. It is also said to be popular with singers and members of jatra and theatrical parties, both men and women.

Ten seers of charas were exported to Bihar and Orissa and two seers to French Chandernagore.

SECTION V.—Opium.

*   *   *   *   *

62. Restricted supply of opium.—Under this system monthly issues of excise opium to retail shops are fixed according to bonâ fide local consumption. All the shops in Midnapore, Hooghly, Howrah, the 24-Parganas, Calcutta, Khulna, Bakarganj, Faridpur, Chittagong, Noakhali, Tippera and Jalpaiguri and a certain number of shops in Burdwan, Nadia, Jessore, Darjeeling, Mymensingh, Murshidabad and Rajshahi continued to work under this system. It was not found necessary to extend the system to any further areas during the year under report.

63. License for retail sale.—The total number of licenses issued for the retail sale of excise opium was 820 as compared with 835 in the previous year. Twenty-five shops were abolished during the year under report, viz., four each in Nadia, Jessore and Dinajpur, three each in Murshidabad, Bakarganj and Rajshahi, two in Bogra and one each in Faridpur and Pabna. Ten new shops were opened, viz., two each in Hooghly, Dacca and Chittagong, and one each in Burdwan, Bankura, the 24-Parganas and Tippera. All the new shops were opened with the approval of the Advisory Committees concerned.

64. Permits and licenses under the Opium and Morphia Rules.—The total number of permits and licenses was 1,240 as compared with 1,164 in 1920-21. The number includes 33 licenses to manufacturing chemists, 443 to dispensing chemists, 62 to Kabirajes and Hakims and 55 permits to permit-holders (total 593 for intoxicating drugs) and 38 licenses to dealers, 460 to chemists, 66 to persons approved under rules 21 (1) and 21 (2) of the Morphia Rules and 83 persons authorised under rule 22 of the same rules (total 647 for morphia drugs).

65. Consumption.—The consumption of excise opium during the year was 1,011 maunds and 18 seers as compared with 1,065 maunds and 34 seers in the previous year, showing a decrease by 54 maunds and 16 seers or 5·1 per cent. With the exception of Hooghly and Chittagong, where the increase being small does not call for any comment, consumption decreased in all the districts. The largest decreases occurred in Bogra (106 seers or 30·4 per cent.), Malda (322 seers or 26·8 per cent.), Rangpur (211 seers or 25·7 per cent.), Birbhum (218 seers or 25·6 per cent.), Darjeeling (46 seers or 20 per cent.), Jalpaiguri (60 seers or 19·8 per cent.), Dinajpur (144 seers or 19·7 per cent.), Bankura (136 seers or 17·3 per cent.), Murshidabad (154 seers or 17·2 per cent.), Jessore (95 seers or 15·3 per cent.), Khulna (127 seers or 15·1 per cent.), Rajshahi (70 seers or 14·05 per cent.), and Pabna (37 seers or 12·8 per cent.). The decrease in Calcutta was by 111 seers, but the percentage of decrease was small. The general fall in consumption was due mainly to the enhancement of the retail price and to the abolition of a number of shops.

66. Total receipts.—The total receipts amounted to Rs. 32,15,930 as compared with Rs. 34,00,913 in 1920-21. There was a decrease of Rs. 1,84,983 or 5·4 per cent., which was due to the fall in consumption.

67. Morphia and opium pills.—The use of morphia as a substitute for opium does not appear to have been prevalent in any of the districts. No sale of opium pills was reported during the year under report.

* * * * *

SECTION VI.—Cocaine.

* * * * *

70. Licenses and revenue.—Three hundred and thirty-four licenses were issued during the year to chemists and druggists for the sale of cocaine, as compared with 321 of 1920-21. Fifty-five permits for the possession of cocaine were issued free to managers of hospitals or dispensaries not under Government supervision, viz., eighteen licenses for tea gardens in Jalpaiguri, ten for charitable dispensaries in Burdwan, eight each in Calcutta and Tippera, five in 24-Parganas, two in each of the districts of Midnapore and Nadia, and one each in Khulna and Noakhali. Forty-four permits were issued to qualified medical practitioners and dentists, viz., twenty-three in Calcutta, ten in Pabna, four in Chittagong, two in each of the districts of Burdwan and Faridpur, and one each in Midnapore, Nadia and Jessore, for possession and use of the drug in the course of their practice.

71. Preventive operations and illicit transactions.—The abuse of cocaine continues in the Calcutta district and in the districts of the 24-Parganas and Burdwan. Two cocaine cases were detected in Midnapore. The number of persons convicted of illicit possession, sale or smuggling of cocaine decreased from 248 to 227. In Calcutta, the number was 209 as compared with 215 of 1920-21. An account of some important cocaine cases will be found in Section VII of the report.

The total quantity of cocaine seized in Bengal during the year was 462 ounces 301½ grains as compared with 294 ounces 106 grains in 1920-21. Only 2 ounces 59 grains were seized outside the Calcutta district, and of this quantity, 1 ounce 319½ grains were seized in the 24-Parganas. In Calcutta 167 ounces 230 grains were seized by Excise officers, 263 ounces 397 grains by Customs officers, 29 ounces 46 grains by Police officers, 10 grains by other officers.

* * * * *

SECTION VII.—Offences against the Excise and Opium Laws.

* * * * *

73. Prosecutions and Conviction.— * *

* * * * *

The total number of persons arrested during the year was 6,762 as compared with 6,183 in the preceding year. Of these 6,356 were convicted during the year as compared with 5,764 in 1920-21. The number of arrests increased in 13 out of the 27 districts. This increase was most marked in Hooghly (284), Midnapore (187), 24-Parganas (174), Darjeeling (106), Mymensingh (96) and Faridpur (60). On the other hand there was a decrease in 14 districts, the largest being in Bakarganj (74), Murshidabad (73), Calcutta (65), Chittagong (63) and Jalpaiguri (54). In Hooghly the increase was mainly due to greater illicit tapping of palm trees for tari in the area where the tree-tax system is in force and to the import of French liquor into the district from Chandernagore. In Midnapore the illicit manufacture of pachwai from coarse rice and illicit distillation of country spirit were the main reasons for the increase. As a result of the anti-drink movement in connection with the non-co-operation propaganda, a great deal of illicit manufacture of pachwai and illicit distillation of country spirit was indulged in, specially in the north-western portion of the district and in parts of the Ghatal and Tamluk subdivisions. The masses are reported to have practically been in sympathy with this form of crime and to have patronised the illicit distillers rather than resort to the licensed shops for their requirements, the idea being to cripple the revenue. For the same reason informers were unwilling to come forward, so that adequate action could not be taken against the offenders. In the 24-Parganas the increase was due to the illicit manufacture and possession of tari. In Darjeeling the increase was mainly due to illicit manufacture of pachwai and partly to illicit distillation. In Mymensingh the crime under the heads illicit distillation of country spirit, cultivation of hemp plant ganja and possession of bhang increased considerably and is reported to have been due to the continuous obstruction offered to bonâ fide consumers in getting their supply of intoxicants from the licensed shops and partly to economic depression. The increase, in Faridpur, was due to the detection of petty cases for illicit possession of bhang. The Collector reports "a large number of possession of wild bhang cases was sent up during the year, but I have now stopped these prosecutions. Wild bhang grows in abundance here and it is a clear case of hardship to send up men who collect bhang for medicinal purposes and for the use of their cattle. The offence is trifling and technical and the drug is really an indigenous medicine for cattle. We wish to encourage the use of indigenous drugs rather than otherwise." The decrease in Bakarganj appears to have been due to the refusal of informers to assist the Excise officers for fear of social boycott and other oppressions. In Calcutta the work of the Preventive Branch with other branches of the department suffered a good deal during the year on account of the non-co-operation movement. Influenced by the preaching of the non-co-operators, many informers cut off their connection with the department. Moreover, the idea of immediate raid and detection with inadequate staff was abandoned on many occasions owing to the attitude adopted by the masses and the tendency to create trouble on the slightest pretext. Police help was also not always available as the police were otherwise busily engaged themselves. The decrease in Chittagong has not been satisfactorily explained and no explanations have been given.

74. Classification of offences.—Four hundred and thirty persons were arrested for "illicit distillation" and 208 for "possession or sale of illicit country spirit" as compared with 482 and 144 respectively in the previous year. The chief increases under these two heads taken together occurred in Darjeeling (30), Howrah (29), Midnapore and Mymensingh (27 each) and the 24-Parganas (15) and the chief decreases were in Bankura (41), Jalpaiguri (33), Bakarganj (25) and Burdwan and Chittagong (21 each). The decrease in Bankura is ascribed to the fact that offenders evaded detection by carrying on operations in jungles away from their houses; they would not even carry the liquor home for consumption. In Burdwan the decrease is ascribed to (1) the unwillingness on the part of the villagers to help the preventive officers with information, owing to the non-co-operation movement, (2) distillation of illicit liquor in open fields in the day time, keeping guard all round and taking particular care to keep the liquor and the implements outside the houses, (3) combination of petty village landlords with the illicit distillers from whom cheaper drink was available. The decreases in Bakarganj and Chittagong have already been alluded to in paragraph 73 above. A chaukidar, who was in the habit of distilling liquor in his own house, was arrested in Midnapore with some quantity of illicit country spirit and some active mohua wash. He was sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 100. Suitable departmental action was also taken against him. In the district of Mymensingh the aborigines only had previously been known to be illicit distillers, but the detections during the year under report showed that the Muchis and Namasudras were also gradually resorting to this practice. In Jalpaiguri the Paharias still continue to be the offenders in this respect.

The number of persons arrested for "unlicensed sale of duty paid country spirit" fell from 115 to 108. The decrease took place mainly in Howrah and the 24-Parganas. Calcutta on the other hand showed an increase by 17 arrests.

Prosecutions for "illicit possession of duty paid country spirit" remained the same (29) as in the previous year.

There were 153 arrests for "illicit import, export or transport of country liquor" against 139 in the preceding year. The increase mainly occurred in the district of Hooghly. The arrests in this district were for the import of French liquor from French Chandernagore and were made by the two patrol parties stationed on the borders. In Darjeeling the smuggling of Nepal and Sikkim liquors was chiefly carried on by the Lepchas, the Bhutias and the hillmen living on the borders.

The arrests for "illicit sale of foreign liquors" fell from 88 to 49 or by 39 persons. Calcutta alone showed a decrease by 41 persons. In this district (Calcutta) the Manager of the "Berkely House Syndicate" (a boarding establishment) in Theatre Road was prosecuted for illicit sale of foreign liquor and sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 200.

The prosecutions under head tari increased from 1,524 to 1,928 or by 404. This form of crime is common amongst the lower classes (especially the up-country people) in the Presidency and Burdwan Divisions, and the increase has no special significance. In the 24-Parganas district a chaukidar was convicted for possession of one maund of tari.

The number of persons arrested for "illicit manufacture, possession or sale of pachwai" increased from 1,940 to 2,299 or by 359. The increase was marked in Midnapore (161), Darjeeling (81), Burdwan (70), Bankura (48) and Mymensingh (25). The increase in Midnapore has already been explained in paragraph 73 above. In Darjeeling the majority of the cases were detected in the Siliguri subdivision for home-brewing of more than 12 seers of pachwai at a time or for possession of pachwai beyond the limit allowed by the rule. The accused all belonged to the aboriginal classes. In Burdwan the increase was due to the picketting of the pachwai shops, as a result of which the consumers who are generally low class people resorted to illicit manufacture. The increase in Bankura was due to a similar reason. The Santhals in the south and south-west of the district have been excited and have taken to illicit manufacture much more largely.

The arrests for "illicit cultivation of poppy" remained the same (3) as in the previous year.

Taking the figures under the two heads "illicit opium" and "treasury opium" together, the number of arrests fell from 372 to 289 or by 83 persons. There had been a decrease last year by 152 from the previous year; so the further decrease is not satisfactory. The chief decreases took place in Calcutta (26), Burdwan and Hooghly (12 each) and 24-Parganas (10). Midnapore only showed an increase by 21 persons. The total quantity of opium seized in Bengal amounted to 54 maunds and 30 seers, of which 42 maunds and 17 seers were seized in Calcutta alone. Ten maunds and 18 seers were seized by the special staff at different railway stations. The Customs officers, Calcutta, made 32 seizures on board the vessels in the port of Calcutta, amounting to 5 maunds and 18 seers. Twenty-seven maunds and 24 seers were seized by the Calcutta Excise officers as compared with 33 maunds and 8 seers in the previous year; 1 maund and 24 seers, 27 seers and 11 seers were seized by the Howrah district police, Calcutta police and Howrah Railway police, respectively. Some important arrests were made by the Calcutta Excise and special staff of which details have been given in the Excise Supplement to the Criminal Intelligence Gazette. Mention may be made of three important cases detected during the year by the Excise Preventive Force, Calcutta. In the first case, the Superintendent of Excise, Detection Branch, arrested one A. W. R. Field, an Anglo-Indian opium carrier, with one of his associates for illicit possession of 2 maunds of opium. For some time past the Calcutta smugglers have been employing Anglo-Indian and others who live in the European style for carrying contraband opium from up-country on their behalf, and as these carriers generally travel 1st and 2nd class they can often with impunity carry a large quantity of opium with their personal luggage. The first accused in the case referred to above was for a long time in the employ of a notorious opium smuggler of Calcutta, on whose behalf he used to carry contraband opium in large quantities from up-country. His movements were carefully watched for some time and as a result, his room at Sooterkin Lane, Calcutta, was searched immediately after his arrival on one occasion and the contraband opium was seized. He was prosecuted and sentenced to one year's rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 500, in default six months' further rigorous imprisonment, his associate being discharged for want of sufficient evidence. He preferred an appeal before the Hon'ble High Court, which was dismissed. In the second case, one Gholam Rasul Peshwari, an old opium smuggler, was arrested for illicit possession of 1 maund and 25 seers of opium and was prosecuted before a Presidency Magistrate. The trial was proceeding when the year closed, but he has subsequently been convicted and sentenced to a fine of Rs. 500 in default to six months' rigorous imprisonment. He had previously been convicted at Howrah for a similar offence. He owns a number of fruit stalls in Harrison Road and the College Street Market, Calcutta. He is reported to be carrying on the smuggling business on an extensive scale in partnership with another notorious opium smuggler of Calcutta. His store room in Mirzapore Street, in a respectable locality, was searched and the contraband opium was seized. In the third case, one Chong Hai Sheen alias Ted Sheen Chinaman was arrested and prosecuted along with Ah Pin Chinaman, another suspected Chinese smuggler in Calcutta, for illicit possession of 1 maund and 36 seers of opium and 130 ounces of cocaine. This Ted Sheen Chinaman is said to be a partner of Ah Pin Chinaman and receiver of contraband articles; just before the detection, they negotiated to sell 5 ounces of cocaine to a bogus purchaser set up by the Inspector of Excise; but as they demanded part payment in advance the negotiation fell through. However, a careful watch was kept and the contraband articles were found on a search of the shoe shop at Ted Sheen Chinaman in Bentinck Street. He was sentenced to six months' rigorous imprisonment, but the other accused was discharged for want of sufficient evidence. The business in opium smuggling is so lucrative that it is reported that sometimes even railway employees have taken part in it. Two such instances are noted below. One Sahamat Ali, a parcels clerk, was prosecuted along with a Railway cooly for illicit possession and import of some 13 seers of opium. These two men had arrived by the Parcels Express train and the cooly was arrested on information when removing a basket containing opium. In the course of the investigation the principal offender, the parcels clerk, was arrested. He was sentenced to 6 months' rigorous imprisonment, and other accused was sentenced to 3 months' rigorous imprisonment. On an appeal before the Sessions Judge, the second accused was acquitted, but the sentence on the parcels clerk was confirmed. In another instance, one Har Nandan Singh, a Treasure guard belonging to the East Indian Railway, was arrested for illicit possession and import of 11 seers of opium. This man used to visit Delhi on duty and bring contraband opium on behalf of a Calcutta smuggler. He was prosecuted and sentenced to 2 months' rigorous imprisonment and a fine of Rs. 500. On appeal the term of imprisonment was reduced to 7 days.

(1) One parcel from Delhi to Calcutta (Burra Bazar) containing 19 seers of opium.

(2) One parcel from Sabzimundi to Calcutta containing 38 seers of gola opium.

(3) One parcel from Delhi to Calcutta containing 23¾ seers of opium.

(4) One parcel from Delhi to Calcutta containing 25 seers of opium.

(5) One parcel from Rampore State to Calcutta containing 13 seers of opium.

(6) One parcel containing two packages from Bareilly to Calcutta 27½ seers of opium. The opium was found inside sewing machine covers and the parcel was addressed to the Standard Sewing Machine Company, Calcutta.
(7) One parcel from Lucknow to Calcutta containing 19½ seers of gola opium.
(8) One parcel from Bukhtiarpore to Calcutta containing 54 seers of Kabuli gola opium.
(9) One parcel from Kiul to Calcutta containing 29 seers of Kabuli gola opium.
(10) One parcel from Agra to Calcutta containing about 12 seers of Kabuli gola opium.
(11) One parcel from Jaypore to Calcutta containing 10 seers of gola opium.
(12) One parcel from Nellimara to Howrah containing 10 seers of Treasury opium.

All the above parcels were seized after unsuccessful attempts to arrest the consignees or their agents. In some cases the parcels clerks were suspected to be in league with the smugglers.

In 17 registered postal parcels, 55 seers of opium were seized during the year under report. The parcels were all sent under fictitious names and addresses and attempts at detection proved unsuccessful.

The methods adopted by the smugglers to carry on the illicit trade were the same as in previous years; no new method seems to have come to light during the year.

Two hundred and eighteen persons were arrested for "illicit possession or sale of madak or chandu" as compared with 290 in the preceding year.

The arrests for "illicit cultivation or possession of ganja and bhang" rose from 87 to 118 or by 31. Mymensingh was principally responsible for the increase. One Sambhu Mali was arrested in this district for illicit cultivation of 8 ganja plants; he was prosecuted and sentenced to one month's rigorous imprisonment. In the same district, another offender was twice arrested during the year for illicit import and possession of ganja. He was prosecuted on both occasions and sentenced to rigorous imprisonment. In Rangpur the conduct of the Treasury guards was not above suspicion in connection with the steady disappearance of ganja from the warehouses; subsequent to the theft of 15½ seers of ganja from the Sadar ganja gola in October 1921, two police constables and the father of one of them were arrested for illicit possession of 144 tolas of ganja and were convicted. In this district a servant of the agent of the Ganja Cultivators' Co-operative Society was prosecuted for taking out 5 tolas of ganja from the gola where he went to assist at the issue of the drug. He was convicted and sentenced to one month's rigorous imprisonment. In the ganja mahals of the Naugaon subdivision (Rajshahi district) 52 cases of smuggling of non-duty paid and green ganja were detected as compared with 29 in the preceding year. Of these 13 were important cases. Three cases, in which the quantities were comparatively large, are noted below :—

(1) One Isab Pramanik and another person, were caught carrying two bundles of green ganja. He had 9 seers 6 chittaks of green non-duty paid ganja and the accomplice, who ran away, had 3 seers 8 chittaks of ganja which he threw away. The case against him was pending at the close of the year; his accomplice was also sent up for trial but was acquitted.
(2) One Surendra Nath Pal was arrested for illegal possession of 19½ seers of non-duty paid ganja and was sentenced to 6 weeks' rigorous imprisonment.
(3) One Rajani Rishi was prosecuted for illegal possession of 8½ seers of non-duty paid green ganja and was sentenced to one month's rigorous imprisonment.

The prosecutions for "unlicensed sale of hemp drugs" decreased from 207 to 148 or by 59. There was no marked decrease in any of the districts except in the 24-Parganas (16). There were 173 arrests for "illicit possession of ganja" against 133 in the preceding year. The fluctuations were not very great in any of the districts except an increase of 35 in Rajshahi. Arrests for "illicit possession of charas" slightly increased from 3 to 5. The arrests under the head "illicit possession of bhang" increased from 226 to 294. The increase was marked in Faridpur (72) and Mymensingh (22). The large increase in Faridpur has been explained in paragraph 73 above. Wild bhang grows in abundance in many of the districts of North and East Bengal. The prosecutions for "unlawful import, export or transport of hemp drugs" decreased from 41 to 25.

There were 227 arrests for "illicit sale or possession of cocaine" as compared with 277 in the preceding year. This indicates a further decline in detections, which is not a satisfactory feature, there having been a decrease last year from 324 in the previous year. The decrease was large in Calcutta (18). The crime is very prevalent in Calcutta, where 222 persons were arrested. The district of 24-Parganas comes next, with an arrest of 22 persons. In this district the Barrackpore subdivision with its mill areas continued to be the most important field for smuggling. Two cases of special importance are noted below :—

One Ojagir Das was arrested in the Barrackpore subdivision for illicit possession of 5 drams of cocaine and was convicted and sentenced to one month's rigorous imprisonment and to pay a fine of Rs. 500, in default to undergo 5 month's more rigorous imprisonment. This man is the principal smuggler at Titagarh and is the proprietor of more than one cocaine den in the locality. He is reported to have amassed his fortune by dealing in this drug. He had so long eluded the vigilance of the Preventive Officers as he would not personally handle the drug. In Calcutta, one A. E. Vietch, belonging to the European crew of the P. and O., SS. "Sicillia" was arrested with some 7 ounces of cocaine. He is said to have been in the habit of bringing this drug from England in this steamer and to dispose of it to the local smugglers. On this occasion also he is suspected to have brought a fairly large quantity and to have disposed of the greater part of it by the time the information was received. He was prosecuted and sentenced to pay a fine of Rs. 1,000, in default to undergo three months' rigorous imprisonment.

Bengal Council of Medical Registration.

NOTIFICATION.

No. 650M.R.—The 20th February 1923.—It is hereby notified for general information that on the 16th of July 1922 a person calling himself "John Rigby, M.B., CH.B., Victoria University, Manchester," applied for and obtained registration under the Bengal Medical Act, 1914. Subsequent enquiry has proved beyond doubt that this person is an impostor and that he personated one Mr. John Rigby of 18, Halliwell Street, Chorely, England, who was registered under the British Medical Acts on 7th July 1915, and whose name appears on page 918 of the British Medical Register for 1922. In the circumstances the Bengal Council of Medical Registration are satisfied that the entry of the name of John Rigby in the Register of Registered Practitioners maintained under section 15 of the Bengal Medical Act, 1914, was fraudulently effected and accordingly, as provided in section 24 of the said Act, the entry has, under the direction of the Council, been erased from the Register.

RESOLUTION REVIEWING THE REPORTS ON THE WORKING OF DISTRICT BOARDS IN THE BENGAL PRESIDENCY DURING THE YEAR 1921-22.

GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.

LOCAL SELF-GOVT. DEPARTMENT.

Local Self-Government.

CALCUTTA, THE 25TH JANUARY 1923.

RESOLUTION—No. 143 L.S.-G.

READ—

The reports of Commissioners of Divisions on the working of District Boards in Bengal during the year 1921-22.

District Boards.—Towards the end of the year, final arrangements were made for replacing the Darjeeling Road Cess Committee by a District Board, which was actually constituted in April 1922.

2. Local Boards.—There were 75 boards with 984 members. Where union boards have been formed, they are usually entrusted instead of the local boards with the repair of village roads and with the control of pounds. If local boards are to have any vitality, they must have responsible functions and the administration of adequate funds. So far the addition of a new link in the chain of local authorities has perhaps tended to impair the utility of the local board. It has new duties in supervising the activities of the union boards, but supervisory function such as this is barely sufficient justification for its existence. It is clear that the place and functions of the three rural local authorities will require careful definition, when the Local Self-Government Act is amended.

3. Village Self-Government.—At the end of 1921, nearly 1,600 union boards were in existence. When the lapse of time enables the early years of the Reforms to be viewed and appraised with a proper detachment, it is possible that the creation of an atmosphere of suspicion and distrust towards these institutions will be regarded as one of the non-co-operator's gravest disservices to India. Union boards have been represented as merely instruments of new taxation instead of potential agencies for the proper organization of the village resources. In one case, a vice-president's house was burnt down, while elsewhere a union board dispensary and office building shared the same fate.

There has been a serious set-back to village self-government; the Act was withdrawn from the Midnapore district and the boards replaced by the old chaukidari panchayets, while in other districts the introduction of the Act has been postponed. At the close of the year there were 1,089 of these boards. Nevertheless, in spite of a discouraging political environment, many boards have done useful work. Some union board dispensaries have been founded, several wells have been constructed, and in the Howrah district alone over 400 tanks were cleared of rank vegetation. A few boards have distributed quinine and other medicines gratuitously to the poor.

A considerable number of union benches and courts have been established. In Tippera they are reported in many cases to have done "remarkably good work," and the privilege of possessing a union bench is said to be highly prized.

On the other side of the ledger must be set down apathy on the part of some presidents and of more members, party faction and some natural reluctance to enforce the provisions of the Act. In many cases budgets have not been prepared in time, and meetings have lacked a quorum.

On the whole, the Minister for Local Self-Government is disposed to think that these infant institutions deserve congratulation for the manner in which they have weathered the storm, and while in more backward districts he feels that it would be most unwise to force the pace by the too rapid extension of the Village Self-Government Act, he holds firmly to the opinion, which many facts support, that these boards will ultimately play an important part in the scheme of local self-government.

One hundred and eighty-five union committees—a kind of half-way house between the chaukidari panchayet and the union board—continued to function in many districts. Their total receipts amounted to Rs. 1,27,220, of which Rs. 88,385 was expended, mainly on roads, sanitation and water-supply. The area of a union committee shows wide variations; in the Bankura district, for example, it ranges from 2 square miles to 9, in the Rajshahi district from about 8 to 11, and in the Faridpur district from 5 to 7 square miles. In one district, union committees with a population ranging from 5,000 to 10,000 had each, on an average, revenue of about Rs. 300. A committee administering this paltry sum over so large an area and for so large a population could not be expected to bring much interest or enthusiasm to its impossible task. Most union boards, however, have only slightly more ample funds. The 129 union boards of Dacca and 49 boards in Faridpur, of which all but 26 assessed union rates under section 37 (b) of the Village Self-Government Act, spent Rs. 40,031 on roads, Rs. 16,672 on water-supply, and Rs. 11,301 on drainage and conservancy, i.e., roughly Rs. 400 each.

4. Finance of District Boards.—The receipts amounted to Rs. 116·5 lakhs against Rs. 122·7 lakhs in 1920-21, the decrease being due to reduced receipts under the head of "Deposits and advances." The disbursements, however, increased from Rs. 122·7 lakhs to Rs. 123 lakhs. The closing balance amounted to Rs. 28·2 lakhs (of which Rs. 17·1 lakhs were in cash) against Rs. 34·8 lakhs in 1920-21.

5. Taxation.—The incidence was 2 annas 8 pies a head, varying in different districts from 1 anna 8 pies to 8 annas 1 pie.

6. Education.—The expenditure (Rs. 28·4 lakhs) was very slightly below that of the previous year. Of this amount, Government contributed Rs. 16·3 lakhs, while school fees yielded ·4 lakhs. District Boards from their own funds contributed Rs. 11·7 lakhs.

The number of upper and lower primary schools increased from 39,078 to 39,688, of which 3,128 were entirely maintained by the boards while the rest received grants-in-aid : 9.495 of these institutions were girls' schools, against 9,142 in 1920-21 and 8,542 in 1919-20. The Commissioner of the Burdwan Division writes appreciatively of the excellent educational work which the American Baptist Mission is doing amongst the Sonthals of Midnapore. One Sonthal girl succeeded in winning a departmental middle scholarship.

The Chairman of the District Board of Faridpur states that the extension of primary education on the lines suggested by Mr. Biss has met with much opposition. "This is mainly due to the non-co-operation movement. The people are bitterly opposed to any form of taxation, direct or indirect." Bakarganj is equally pessimistic as regards the financial aspect of the problem. The Malda District Board is utilizing an imperial grant received originally for the construction of panchayeti union schools for working out Mr. Biss's scheme in two unions, half the recurring cost to be met by the board and half from provincial revenues. Free primary schools (29) have been opened under three union boards in Khulna, and an education cess is to be levied for the maintenance of the schools.

The importance of technical and industrial education has not been overlooked. The Khulna Coronation Technical School had 30 boys as against 22 in 1920-21 on its roll, of whom 18 were specializing in carpentry, while 5 belonged to the blacksmith and the rest to the tinsmith class. The sale proceeds of the articles manufactured in the school amounted to Rs. 3,468 against Rs. 1,082 in the preceding year.

The peripatetic weaving school in Pabna is said to be popular; 55 students passed out in the year under report. The Mymensingh Technical School continued to specialize in cane and bamboo work, brass-casting and in fitter's, blacksmith's and tinsmith's work. The number of pupils increased from 43 to 57. In the Burdwan Division special attention was given to weaving schools.

7. Public health and medical relief.—The most striking feature of recent district board administration is the wider recognition of medical needs and of the importance of public health. The expenditure under these heads rose from Rs. 11·7 lakhs to Rs. 13·7 lakhs. Medical relief was provided primarily through 322 dispensaries maintained by the boards and 249 in receipt of grants-in-aid as against 304 and 226 in 1920-21.

The number of State dispensaries is small, and the resources of Western medicine are at present by no means easily available to a rural population of 42 millions. Newly qualified medical graduates tend to concentrate in Calcutta, since the mufassal offers them ordinarily a very precarious livelihood. Nadia decided to give small monthly subsidies to eight independent practitioners to enable them to carry on while building up a private practice, but the offer was accepted by only three during the year. Other districts are experimenting on similar lines, and Jessore has actually been able to withdraw its subsidies from a few established practitioners. No wide extension of the subsidy system is for the moment practicable, but if the union boards can be induced under the guidance and with the help of district boards to accept some responsibility for medical relief within the local area, a close network of dispensaries, housed in a modest way but administered by a competent doctor, will be feasible.

It can never be possible for Government to provide free medical relief for the teeming population of rural Bengal, but the Minister is strongly of opinion that as the provincial finances improve, it is essential to stimulate and encourage local endeavour by judicious grants-in-aid. He has for the present been most reluctantly compelled to curtail the practical application of this principle, but the readiness of several boards, particularly Dinajpur, Birbhum and Howrah, to accept a lead in this direction augurs well for the future.

Curative medicine comes into close touch with preventive medicine or the science of public health on the outbreak of epidemic disease. Cholera each year receives increasing attention. Several itinerant doctors were engaged by different boards to cope with serious outbreak of this fell disease, and the Director of Public Health may justly congratulate himself on the gradual evolution of a "public health conscience" in Bengal. The causes of cholera are becoming common knowledge in the mufassal, and the central department of public health is constantly asked to assist the local authorities in the organization of preventive measures. Several boards are making vaccination free, and this enlightened policy, if accompanied by a vigorous vaccination campaign, would immediately effect a large reduction in the mortality of Bengal.

The district boards of Dacca and Mymensingh are said to have reduced their expenditure on vaccination. "As there was no outbreak of small-pox in either of these districts during the year under report, no paid vaccinators had to be appointed for free vaccination, as was done in the preceding year." But if a temporary immunity breeds security and the relaxation of preventive measures, these local areas and ultimately the province will inevitably suffer from the ravages of an alarming small-pox epidemic amongst an unvaccinated population. A skeleton public health organization is now possessed by practically every district board, and the Minister is confident that this staff—though individual officers may lack the necessary inspiration and enthusiasm and in spite of exiguous revenues—can and will amply justify its creation by the better organization of preventive measures against disease, simple propaganda to dispel the appalling ignorance which produces the heavy toll of infant lives, the supervision of vaccination, and the improved compilation of vital statistics.

8. Veterinary.—It is a matter of regret that expenditure on this important branch of work fell from Rs. 1,36,000 in 1920-21 to Rs. 1,31,000. The decrease is small, but apart from medical relief, the improvement of the water-supply and roads, and the prompt arrest of a cholera epidemic, there is perhaps no direction in which expenditure of local funds among an agricultural population is more amply justified, than in the provision of good veterinary treatment, and any diminution in the present small outlay on veterinary work is to be deplored. The Chairman of the Birbhum District Board states that the work of the veterinary assistants is much more appreciated by the public than in the past. In Midnapore and Rajshahi veterinary hospitals were opened at Sadar.

The Commissioners of the Dacca and Presidency Divisions state that the veterinary assistants, itinerant and stationary, did much useful work and their services are beginning to be properly appreciated by the raiyat.

The inoculation of cattle against disease is gradually winning favour, and it is deplorable that at this juncture the Hooghly District Board should propose to abolish the posts of two of its three veterinary assistants. The Minister realizes the financial difficulties against which this board is struggling, but in this application of the axe of retrenchment he cannot forbear the exclamation :—

"Woodman, spare this tree."

9. Civil works.—The expenditure on communications fell from Rs. 37·8 lakhs to Rs. 32·9 lakhs. This is largely due to lapses of budget allotments, owing to works not being promptly executed. In the 24-Parganas, the Ganga Sagor road from Kachubaria to Mansadwip (16 miles) was completed. The Khulna District Board spent Rs. 15,000 on a toll-bar bridge over the Betna river, and nearly Rs. 30,000 on the construction of roads in accordance with a quinquennial programme.

In Jessore the metalled roads are said to be good. In Midnapore, in some parts of which a laterite soil renders repairs comparatively easy, the roads are said to have deteriorated. The Hooghly District Board was vigilant in preventing encroachments on its roads, and the Burdwan Board is becoming alive to the necessity of taking active measures in this direction.

10. Water-supply.—This is the gravest problem immediately confronting the district boards.

It is said that in Burdwan a large proportion of wells are dry in April and May—the months in which they are most needed—and a serious shortage of water for drinking purposes occurred in most districts last hot weather.

The expenditure on water-supply in the current year was only Rs. 5·14 lakhs against Rs. 5·8 lakhs in 1920-21. This expenditure is still met entirely from revenue, but it is obvious that a large programme can only be financed by means of a loan policy. The District Board of Birbhum is prepared to take a loan of Rs. 1 lakh for the re-excavation of tanks and the sinking of masonry and tube wells, while Khulna (one of the most progressive boards) also recognizes the advantages of a loan policy. In normal times, Government would readily have sanctioned those proposals, but the depletion of the provincial balances and the necessity of providing agricultural loans on a large scale to the raiyats of Rajshahi and Bogra, who suffered from the floods, has rendered it necessary to keep these applications in temporary abeyance. The Minister is, however, disposed to agree with the Commissioner of the Rajshahi Division that the solution of the water-supply problem lies in the power of the union boards alone. The district boards, even with some considerable accession of revenue and the adoption of a loans policy, would still find it impossible to bring an adequate water-supply within the reach of the vast masses for whose wants they provide. They can guide, stimulate and subsidize the union boards, but they are undoubtedly too large a unit of administration to undertake direct responsibility for the water-supply of each village.

Government recognise that it is essential to take fresh stock of the position and to attempt to propound a definite policy for the consideration of local authorities, and the Minister proposes shortly to call a conference of district board representatives for this purpose.

11. Closing balance.—There was a slight decrease, but Rs. 17·10 lakhs is still an unduly large proportion on total receipts of Rs. 116·5 lakhs.

There was a heavy balance in Burdwan (Rs. 3,07,803) and Midnapore (Rs. 2,43,409). In the case of Burdwan, these heavy accretions are in part explained; in Midnapore the balances are due mainly to delay in undertaking sanctioned works.

In view of the difficulty in meeting their expanding duties from current revenues, it is desirable that district boards with heavy closing balances should prepare careful programmes for their disbursement—whether by utilizing them for capital works and thereby economizing their borrowing capacity, or for minor works, which could not be financed from loans.

12. General remarks.—It is certain that the district boards cannot attain to their full stature until their finances are placed on a more satisfactory basis. They are anxious to extend their system of medical relief, to find some solution to the water-supply problem which presses so heavily on them, to improve communications which tend to deteriorate with so many new claimants to the common purse, and to consolidate experiments made in public health. Like the central department they are blocked at every turn by the want of funds, and so far from enlightened enterprize having any scope, they find it difficult to carry on the budgets of the past. There is abundant vitality in these boards and frequently enthusiasm in their Chairmen. The time has come when every one is glad to be a member of the district board. Under the new regime, the post is one to which considerable prestige and influence attach, and every one who aspires to be of some local importance turns his eyes towards the district board. It is not everywhere realised that with the passing of the official Chairman, a change of considerable political importance has been effected. The policy of the boards must for some time to come depend largely on the Chairman, and by giving the board the right of election, Government have, so to speak, by a stroke of the pen, transferred to popular control an administration which touches the masses in many ways more closely than several departments of Government. The Minister is of opinion that on the whole the non-official Chairmen and their colleagues have risen to their high responsibilities, and he is glad to find that several of the local officers write appreciatively of the interest they have shown in their important duties. He desires particularly to express his appreciation of the good work done by the following gentlemen who have been specially mentioned by the Commissioners of Divisions, and to thank them for their services :—
